Rebuilding Of Bosnia:

Bosnia and the Destruction of Cultural Heritage Dr Helen Walasek, 2015-04-28 The massive intentional destruction of cultural property during the 1992-1995 Bosnian War was a seminal marker in cultural heritage. This important volume offers the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the wartime destruction and post conflict reconstruction of Bosnia Herzegovina's cultural heritage and its far reaching impact. Scrutinizing the responses of the international community including UNESCO and examining the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and implementation of Annex 8 of the Dayton Agreement it considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in human rights discourse and in post conflict and development aid. This Was Not Our War Swanee Hunt, 2004-11-29 Combines Bosnian women's personal testimony about the recent war and its aftermath with Ambassador Hunt's analysis of the U.S. government's approach to the conflict. Open Society Reforming Global Capitalism Reconsidered George Soros, 2000-11-10 George Soros's The Crisis of Global Capitalism became an international bestseller and an instant classic a must read for anyone concerned with the complex market forces that rule our global economy and create both prosperity and instability. Now in Open Society Soros takes a new and provocative look at the arguments he made in that book incorporating the latest global economic and political developments into his analysis. He shows how our economic and political arrangements are out of sync. Recognizing that our existing institutions are under the sway of sovereign states he proposes an open society alliance with the dual purpose of fostering open societies in individual countries and laying the groundwork for a global open society. In leading up to his inspiring vision Soros presents an iconoclastic view of the world that has guided him both in making money and spending it on his network of Open Society Foundations. This book sums up the life's work of an exceptional individual. George Soros is the best fund manager in history a stateless statesman and an original thinker. Restoration of Mosques in Bosnia and Herzegovina Halit Eren, 2013 The Rebuilding of Bosnia James P. Reger, 1997 Discusses the origins of the conflict in Bosnia and efforts being made to bring peace to the area. Armed Peacekeepers in Bosnia Robert F. Baumann, George Walter Gawrych, Walter Edward Kretchik, 2004 Bosnia and Herzegovina, 2000-01-01 The Operations Evaluation Department (OED) is an independent unit within the World Bank assessing what works and what does not how a borrower plans to run and maintain a project and the lasting contribution of the Bank to a country's overall development. The goals of evaluation are to learn from experience to provide an objective basis for assessing the results of the Bank's work and to provide accountability in the achievement of its objectives. It also improves Bank work by identifying and disseminating the lessons learned from experience. Re-Making Kozarac Sebina Sivac-Bryant, 2016-05-13 This book explores agency reconciliation and minority return within the context of ethnic cleansing in Bosnia. It focuses on a community in North West Bosnia which successfully reversed the worst episode of ethnic cleansing prior to Srebrenica by fighting for return and then establishing one of the only successful examples of contested minority return in the town of Kozarac The book is a result of a longitudinal decade long study of a group of people who discovered a remarkable level of agency and resilience largely without external support and despite many of the people and institutions who were responsible for their violent expulsion remaining in place Re Making Kozarac considers how a community s traumatic experiences were utilised as a motivational vehicle for return and contrasts their pragmatic approach to local compromise with the ill informed and largely unsuccessful international projects that try to cast them as powerless victims Importantly the book offers critical reflections on the interventions of the trauma and reconciliation industries which can be more harmful than is currently realised It will be of great interest to scholars of criminology anthropology and international relations Reparations for Victims of Genocide, War Crimes and Crimes Against Humanity Carla

Ferstman, Mariana Goetz, Alan Stephens, 2009 This book provides detailed analyses of systems that have been established to provide reparations to victims of genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes and the way in which these systems have worked and are working in practice Many of these systems are described and assessed for the first time in an academic publication The publication draws upon a groundbreaking Conference organised by the Clemens Nathan Research Centre CNRC and REDRESS at the Peace Palace in The Hague with the support of the Dutch Carnegie Foundation Both CNRC and REDRESS had become very concerned about the extreme difficulty encountered by most victims of serious international crimes in attempting to access effective and enforceable remedies and reparation for harm suffered In discussions between the Conference organisers and Judges and officials of the International Criminal Court it became ever more apparent that there was a great need for frank and open exchanges on the question of effective reparation between the representatives of victims of NGOs and IGOs and other experts It was clear to all that the many current initiatives of governments and regional and international institutions to afford reparations to victims of genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes could benefit greatly by taking into full account the wide and varied practice that had been built up over several decades In particular the Hague Conference sought to consider in detail the long experience of the Conference on Jewish Material Claims against Germany the Claims Conference in respect of Holocaust restitution programmes as well as the practice of truth commissions arbitral proceedings and a variety of national processes to identify common trends best practices and lessons This book thus explores the actions of governments as well as of national and international courts and commissions in applying processing implementing and enforcing a variety of reparations schemes and awards Crucially it considers the entire complex of issues from the perspective of the beneficiaries survivors and their communities and from the perspective of the policy makers and implementers tasked with resolving technical and procedural challenges in bringing to fruition adequate effective and meaningful reparations in the context of mass victimisation Bosnia and Herzegovina ,1996-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 327 Indicates areas of high priority for additional analytical work in Russia s agriculture sector after four years of reform The study concludes that structural change in Russian agriculture is far from complete and that analysts should continue to clarify and document the factors affecting performance of the sector and shaping its evolution Professional Journal of the United States Army ,1998 Cry Bosnia ,1995 Most of the photographs are of people of refugees prisoners of war and the relatives of the missing But this is not so much a book about victims as about survivors His genre is of the compelling portrait the captured glance the giveaway gesture It is a book about resilience about the capacity to survive in the most adverse of circumstances Also seen are musicians soldiers artists shopkeepers even a grandmother driving a tank nuns with video camera and a cellist in the ruins of Sarajevo An Unforgettable Genocide: A Story of Courage in the Face of Hate Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-01 In the heart of the Balkans a family is torn apart by the ravages of war As the Bosnian War engulfs their homeland the Halilovi s find themselves trapped in a nightmarish struggle for survival The father a respected doctor desperately tries to protect his family from the escalating violence The mother a pillar of strength holds them together with unwavering love and resilience But as the conflict intensifies their worst fears are realized Their beloved city is reduced to rubble their friends and neighbors are killed and their children are forced to witness unspeakable horrors Yet amidst the chaos and despair the Halilovi s refuse to surrender their hope With courage and determination they navigate the treacherous landscape of war seeking refuge in abandoned buildings and relying on the kindness of strangers They witness the darkest depths of human depravity but they also encounter extraordinary acts of compassion and solidarity Their story is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit the power of love in the face of hate and the enduring belief in a better future Through their eyes we witness the devastating consequences of war and the urgent need for peace and understanding This book is a poignant reminder of the importance of learning from the past and working tirelessly to prevent future atrocities It is a call to action urging us to stand united against hatred and intolerance and to strive for a world where peace and justice prevail If you like this book write a review on google books Bosnian Peace United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations,1996 Lola's War Olivera Simic,2023-06-01 This longitudinal study is based on the story of Lola who was gang raped during the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina in 1992 At the time she was in a detention camp with her young children Only one of Lola s several perpetrators was convicted but his sentence of six years of imprisonment has never been actioned by the Bosnian judiciary Lola s rapist is still free and she lives in continual fear that he will retaliate against her and her children for her role in his trial Peacebuilding in the Balkans Paula M. Pickering,2018-07-05 After suffering years of war Bosnia is now the target of international efforts to reconstruct and democratize a culturally divided society The global community s strategy has focused on reforming political institutions influencing the behavior of elite populations and cultivating nongovernmental organizations But expensive efforts to promote a stable peace and a multiethnic democracy can be successful only if they resonate among ordinary people Otherwise such projects will produce fragile institutions and alienated citizens who will be susceptible to extremists eager to send them back into war Paula M Pickering challenges the conventional wisdom that common people are merely passive recipients of peacebuilding projects Instead in Peacebuilding in the Balkans she shows how ordinary people particularly minorities in Bosnia understand elite rhetoric and actively shape reconstruction Pickering's years of fieldwork direct observation interviews and analysis of many surveys has yielded a precise understanding of how ordinary citizens react to and influence peacebuilding programs in their neighborhoods workplaces municipal agencies and other real life social settings The evidence suggests that international efforts to rebuild an inclusive Bosnia will be futile unless they pay sufficient attention to citizens varying ties to ethnic groups indigenous forms of civic activity and the development of nondiscriminatory employment and responsive political institutions Pickering's insights from reconstruction in the Balkans have important implications for peacebuilding elsewhere in Eurasia Quarterly Review of Military Literature ,1998 Healing and Peacebuilding After War Julianne Funk,Nancy Good,Marie E. Berry,2020-05 This book brings together multiple perspectives to examine the strengths and limitations of efforts to promote healing and peacebuilding after war focusing on the aftermath of the traumatic armed conflict in Bosnia and Herzegovina This book begins with a simple premise trauma that is not transformed is transferred Drawing on multidisciplinary insights from academics peace practitioners and trauma experts this book examines the limitations of our current strategies for promoting healing and peacebuilding after war while offering inroads into best practices to prevent future violence through psychosocial trauma recovery and the healing of memories The contributions create a conversation which allows readers to critically rethink the deeper roots and mechanisms of trauma created by the war Collectively the authors provide strategic recommendations to policymakers peace practitioners donors and international organizations engaged in work in Bosnia and Herzegovina strategies that can be applied to other countries rebuilding after war This volume will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peacebuilding social psychology Balkan politics and International Relations in general Rebuilding Mostar John Yarwood,1999-11-01 Following the devastation of the war in Bosnia the European Union formed the European Union Administration of Mostar EUAM and John Yarwood a widely experienced architect town planner and project manager worked as Director of Reconstruction for EUAM for the whole of the period of its mandate from 1994 to 1996 On behalf of the international community the EU formed a city administration in Mostar with the goal of reconciling the former warring parties building security and creating a unified police force establishing freedom of movement holding democratic elections and establishing a City Council It also spent DM170 million on repairing 6000 houses 30 public buildings 25 schools 18 health buildings 70 water projects 5 bridges a construction equipment pool and a technical training centre Ninety buildings were de mined and an urban planning system was established This was a project of unique historical significance from many points of view In a book extensively illustrated with photographs and plans Yarwood and his collaborators describe reconstruction from a general technical standpoint The book shows what was done explains how it was done and considers the problems issues failures and successes It analyses what lessons were learned and points out the relevance for similar future projects The analysis is firmly grounded in the context of Bosnian and European politics
