Recalling Education Isis:

ISIS Fawaz A. Gerges, 2017-03-14 An authoritative introduction to ISIS from a leading authority on jihadism The Islamic State has stunned the world with its savagery destructiveness and military and recruiting successes What explains the rise of ISIS and what does it portend for the future of the Middle East In this book one of the world's leading authorities on political Islam and jihadism sheds new light on these questions as he provides a unique history of the rise and growth of ISIS Moving beyond journalistic accounts Fawaz Gerges provides a clear and compelling account of the deeper conditions that fuel ISIS The book describes how ISIS emerged in the chaos of Iraq following the 2003 U S invasion how the group was strengthened by the suppression of the Arab Spring and by the war in Syria and how ISIS seized leadership of the jihadist movement from Al Qaeda Part of a militant Sunni revival ISIS claims its goals are to resurrect a caliphate and rid Islamic lands of all Shia and other minorities In contrast to Al Qaeda ISIS initially focused on the near enemy Shia the Iraqi and Syrian regimes and secular pro Western states in the Middle East But in a tactical shift ISIS has now taken responsibility for spectacular attacks in Europe and other places beyond the Middle East making it clear that the group is increasingly interested in targeting the far enemy as well Ultimately the book shows how decades of dictatorship poverty and rising sectarianism in the Middle East exacerbated by foreign intervention led to the rise of ISIS and why addressing those problems is the only way to ensure its end An authoritative introduction to arguably the most important conflict in the world today this is an essential book for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the social turmoil and political violence ravaging the Arab Islamic world

Islam, Education and Radicalism in Indonesia Tim Lindsey, Jamhari Makruf, Helen Pausacker, 2023-02-24 This book explores the connections between traditional Islamic education rising religious intolerance religious attitudes to gender campaigns for curricula innovation and modernisation and politics and society in Indonesia Drawing on extensive original research and the deep experience of the authors the book highlights tensions between traditional Islamic educators and modernisers and between different understandings of Islam emphasising the importance of these issues for the future of Indonesia

Emotion Management and Feelings in Teaching and Educational Leadership Izhar Oplatka, Khalid Arar, 2019-05-28 This book highlights the connection between culture and emotion management in teaching and educational leadership and allows researchers from different parts of the world to demonstrate how national and local culture influence the way educational leaders and teachers express their feelings display their emotion or suppress emotion publically

Home, Land, Security Carla Power, 2021-09-07 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A provocative and deeply reported look into the emerging field of deradicalization Esquire told through the stories of former militants and the people working to bring them back into society What are the roots of radicalism Journalist Carla Power came to this question well before the January 6 2021 attack in Washington D C turned our country's attention to the problem of domestic radicalization Her entry point was a different wave of radical panic the way populists and pundits encouraged us to see the young people who joined ISIS or other terrorist organizations as simple monsters Power wanted to chip away at the stereotypes by focusing not on what these young people had done but why What drew them into militancy What visions of the world of home of land of security for themselves and the people they loved shifted their thinking toward radical beliefs And what visions of the world might bring them back to society Power begins her journey by talking to the mothers of young men who d joined ISIS in the UK and Canada from there she travels around the world in search of societies that are finding new and innovative ways to rehabilitate former extremists We meet an American judge who has staked his career on finding new ways to handle terrorist suspects a Pakistani woman running a game changing school for former child soldiers a radicalized Somali American who learns through literature to see beyond his Manichean beliefs and a former neo Nazi who now helps disarm white supremacists Along the way Power gleans lessons that get her closer to answering the true question at the heart of her pursuit Can we find a way to live together An eye opening page turning investigation Home Land Security speaks to the rise of division and radicalization in all forms both at home and abroad In this richly reported and deeply human account Carla Power offers new ways to overcome the rising tides of extremism one human at a time Homegrown Alexander Meleagrou-Hitchens, Seamus Hughes, Bennett Clifford, 2020-11-12 How big is the threat posed by American ISIS supporters How many Americans have joined ISIS and how many want to return to the United States Compared to participation by Americans in other jihadist groups the scale of American involvement in jihadist activity today is unprecedented This book from one of the leading counter terror centres draws on first hand interviews with former American Islamic State members and law enforcement officials who tracked them and includes detailed analysis of the court cases against them and their social media presence Homegrown reveals how and why ISIS was able to radicalize and recruit a new generation of jihadist sympathizers in America How Terrorists Learn Carolin Görzig, Michael Fürstenberg, Florian Köhler, Imad Alsoos, 2023-09-01 This volume helps us understand the transformations of terrorist organisations and the conflicts they are involved in by broadening the perspective on what is considered terrorist learning Using a variety of methodological approaches and empirical data the volume offers a look at the clandestine inner lives of groups from different continents and ideological backgrounds in order to explore from whom they learn and how and what the outcomes are Their internal and external interactions are examined within their socio political contexts to illuminate how they adapt to challenges or fail to do so Unpacking the question of how do terrorists learn helps us to grasp not only changes of violent means of action but also of operational and strategic approaches and ultimately even transformations of the ends pursued The chapters demonstrate that terrorist learning is not principally different from that of other human organisations The contributors draw on conceptual frameworks of organizational learning but also broaden the scope beyond the organizational framework to acknowledge the variety of forms of informal and decentralized learning characteristic of much contemporary terrorism This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism studies violent extremism organisational studies and International Relations Returning Islamist Foreign Fighters Elena Pokalova, 2019-10-24 This book examines the challenges foreign fighter returnees from Syria and Iraq pose to Western countries. A number of returnees have demonstrated that they are willing to use violence against their home countries and some have already staged terrorist attacks on Western soil on apparent orders from ISIS. Through the historical context of previous waves of mobilizations of Islamist foreign fighters, the author tracks the experiences of returnees from previous conflicts and discusses the major security challenges associated with them. The book analyzes the major approaches implemented by Western countries in response to foreign fighter returnees, discusses the prosecution of returnees, and evaluates the corresponding challenges of prison radicalization.

Success with Inclusion Glynis Hannell, 2007-10-23 Today's classroom welcomes diversity where many levels, speeds, and styles of learning coexist. Success with Inclusion provides over 1000 specific strategies to help identify areas of difficulty or advanced development. Using this book, teachers will be able to quickly and easily identify and record their pupils' individual learning patterns using the observation charts provided, structure a well-planned inclusive environment, implement creative and thoughtful learning interventions, create an atmosphere of flexibility and compassion. Author and experienced teacher Glynis Hannell gets down to the nitty-gritty with chapters full of practical and creative ideas that will help accommodate not only pupils with difficulties but also those who are advanced. Learning strategies here will help you to be an effective inclusive teacher, address a variety of reading difficulties, support pupils' writing skills, make maths comprehensible, fun, and relevant, enhance pupils' concentration, encourage habits of organisation, foster teamwork between yourself, colleagues, parents, and pupils. The 42 photocopiable worksheets, checklists, charts, games, and planners are provided in the appendix to give teachers a headstart. Also here are observation charts, literacy and maths resources, as well as support materials for teachers, pupils, and parents.

A Vision for Girls Andrea Hamilton, 2004-06-02 To educate American girls and women in ways beyond the traditional has been a dangerous experiment that has challenged basic notions of female nature and has seemed to threaten the social order. One such bold venture in female education, the Bryn Mawr School of Baltimore, Maryland, is the subject of Andrea Hamilton's lively and well-researched book. In Hamilton's telling, the story of the Bryn Mawr School moves beyond its local particulars to illumine much about the history of American education and life. The importance of Hamilton's contribution is that she never loses sight of the complexity of the school and its relation to society. Her history of the Bryn Mawr School helps us understand aspects of the unique position held by American women in national, social, intellectual, and cultural life. Foreword by Helen Lefkowitz Horowitz. Baltimore's Bryn Mawr School was founded in the 1880s, the first college preparatory school for girls in the United States. Unlike other educational institutions at the time, the Bryn Mawr School championed intellectual equality of the sexes. Established with the goal of providing girls with an education identical to boys in quality and compass, it endeavored to prepare girls to excel in a public sphere traditionally dominated by men. Narrating the history of the Bryn Mawr School, Andrea Hamilton's A Vision for Girls examines the value of single sex education America's shifting educational philosophy and significant changes in the role of women in American society Hamilton reveals an institution that was both ahead of its time and a product of its time A Vision for Girls offers an original and engaging history of an institution that helped shape educational goals in America shedding light on the course of American education and attitudes toward women's intellectual and professional capabilities James B. Conant James G. Hershberg, 1995 James B Conant 1893-1978 was one of the giants of the American establishment in the twentieth century President of Harvard University from 1933 to 1953 he was also a scientist who led the US government's effort to develop weapons of mass destruction and his story mirrors the transition of the United States from isolationism to global superpower at the dawn of the nuclear age This splendid portrait of Conant illuminates the life of a pivotal figure in the making of US nuclear scientific educational and foreign policy for almost half a century But the book is much more it is not only an insightful narration of Conant's life it is also a brilliant and important account of the making of the nuclear age a chronicle that contains much that is new The Washington Post The bomb would be as much Conant's as it was anyone's in government His inner response to that burden of responsibility has long been obscured but it is illumined here This is a model of historiography that is evocative reading The New York Times Book Review Vibrantly written and compelling it breaches Conant's shield of public discretion in masterly fashion Health and Physical Education Deborah Callcott, Judith Miller, Susan Wilson-Gahan, 2015-09-08 This updated second edition continues to provide the theoretical underpinnings required to teach health and physical education in Australian schools The Last Girl Nadia Murad, 2017-11-07 WINNER OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE In this courageous The Washington Post memoir of survival a former captive of the Islamic State tells her harrowing and ultimately inspiring story Nadia Murad was born and raised in Kocho a small village of farmers and shepherds in northern Iraq A member of the Yazidi community she and her brothers and sisters lived a quiet life Nadia had dreams of becoming a history teacher or opening her own beauty salon On August 15th 2014 when Nadia was just twenty one years old this life ended Islamic State militants massacred the people of her village executing men who refused to convert to Islam and women too old to become sex slaves Six of Nadia's brothers were killed and her mother soon after their bodies swept into mass graves Nadia was taken to Mosul and forced along with thousands of other Yazidi girls into the ISIS slave trade Nadia would be held captive by several militants and repeatedly raped and beaten Finally she managed a narrow escape through the streets of Mosul finding shelter in the home of a Sunni Muslim family whose eldest son risked his life to smuggle her to safety Today Nadia's story as a witness to the Islamic State's brutality a survivor of rape a refugee a Yazidi has forced the world to pay attention to an ongoing genocide It is a call to action a testament to the human will to survive and a love letter to a lost country a fragile community and a family torn apart by war Prophetical, educational and playing cards Mrs. John King Van Rensselaer, 1912 Bulletin of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 1921 Hellenic Religion and Christianization Frank R. Trombley, 1993 This work discusses the decline of Greek religion and the christianization of town and countryside in the eastern Roman Empire between the death of Julian the Apostate and the laws of Justinian the Great against paganism c 370 529 It examines such questions as the effect of the laws against sacrifice and sorcery temple conversions the degradation of pagan gods into daimones the christianization of rite and the social political and economic background of conversion to Christianity Several local contexts are examined in great detail Gaza Athens Alexandria Aphrodisias central Asia Minor northern Syria the Nile basin and the province of Arabia It lays particular emphasis on the criticism of epigraphy legal evidence and hagiographic texts and traces the demographic growth of Christianity and the chronology of this process in select local contexts It also seeks to understand the behavioral patterns of conversion

Concerning Consequences Kristine Stiles, 2016-03-21 Kristine Stiles has played a vital role in establishing trauma studies within the humanities A formidable force in the art world Stiles examines the significance of traumatic experiences both in the individual lives and works of artists and in contemporary international cultures since World War II In Concerning Consequences she considers some of the most notorious art of the second half of the twentieth century by artists who use their bodies to address destruction and violence The essays in this book focus primarily on performance art and photography From war and environmental pollution to racism and sexual assault Stiles analyzes the consequences of trauma as seen in the works of artists like Marina Abramovic Pope L and Chris Burden Assembling rich intellectual explorations on everything from Paleolithic paintings to the Bible's patriarchal legacies to documentary images of nuclear explosions Concerning Consequences explores how art can provide a distinctive means of understanding trauma and promote individual and collective healing

Hellenic Religion and Christianization Frank R. Trombley, 2001 This work traces the decline of Greek religion and christianization of the Eastern Roman Empire between the death of Julian the Apostate and the legislation of Justinian the Great against paganism It treats both urban and rural affairs with particular emphasis on interpreting the epigraphy This publication has also been published in hardback please click here for details

Report of the Commissioner of Education, 1903

ISIS Michael Weiss, Hassan Hassan, 2015-01-29 A revelatory look inside the world's most dangerous terrorist group Initially dismissed by US President Barack Obama along with other fledgling terrorist groups as a jayvee squad compared to al Qaeda the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria ISIS has shocked the world by conquering massive territories in both countries and promising to create a vast new Muslim caliphate that observes the strict dictates of Sharia law In ISIS Inside the Army of Terror American journalist Michael Weiss and Syrian analyst Hassan Hassan explain how these violent extremists evolved from a nearly defeated Iraqi insurgent group into a jihadi army of international volunteers who behead Western hostages in slickly produced videos and have conquered territory equal to the size of Great Britain Beginning with the early days of Abu Musab al Zarqawi the founder of ISIS's first incarnation as al Qaeda in Iraq Weiss and Hassan explain who the key players are from their elusive leader Abu Bakr al Baghdadi to the former Saddam Baathists in their ranks where they come from how the movement has attracted both local and global support and where their financing comes from Political and military maneuvering by the United States Iraq Iran and Syria have all fueled ISIS s astonishing and explosive expansion Drawing on original interviews with former US military officials and current ISIS fighters the authors also reveal the internecine struggles within the movement itself as well as ISIS s bloody hatred of Shiite Muslims which is generating another sectarian war in the region Just like the one the US thought it had stopped in 2011 in Iraq Past is prologue and America s legacy in the Middle East is sowing a new generation of terror Educational Innovation and Information ,1985
