Recent Theories Of Narrative Hb:

Recent Theories of Narrative Wallace Martin, 1986 The Marketing of Edgar Allan Poe , Rethinking Narrative Identity Claudia Holler, Martin Klepper, 2013-02-28 Why is it that we tend to think about our lives as stories Why do we strive to create coherent narratives that reflect a particular perspective What happens when we discover multiple perhaps conflicting perspectives in our narratives Following groundbreaking work in the study of narrative identity in the last 20 years the scholars of this volume have expanded and merged their theories of narrative identity with new perspectives in fields such as narratology literary theory philosophy cultural studies psychology sociology gender studies and history Their contributions focus on the significance of perspective in the formation of narrative identities probing the stratagems and narrative means of individuals in testing out personae for themselves Guide to Reprints , 2009 Luke's Christology of Divine Identity Nina Henrichs-Tarasenkova, 2015-11-19 Henrichs Tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent Luke's Christology When read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the Lukan narrative demonstrate that Luke indirectly characterizes Jesus as the one God of Israel together with YHWH Henrichs Tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of YHWH and Jesus within the Lukan narrative She employs Richard Bauckham's concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the Greco Roman world She engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how Luke speaks of YHWH as God in order to demonstrate that Luke Acts upholds a traditional Jewish view that only the God of Israel is the one living God and to eliminate false expectations for how Luke should speak of Jesus as God This analysis establishes how Luke binds Jesus identity to the divine identity of YHWH and concludes that the Lukan narrative in fact does portray Jesus as God when it shows that Jesus shares YHWH's divine identity Geomodernisms Laura Doyle, Laura Anne Doyle, Laura Winkiel, 2005-11-22 Focuses on modernism as a global phenomenon This work considers modernism as it was expressed in the non Western world the contradictions at the heart of modernization and modernism's imagined geographies psychogeographies of distance and desire as viewed by the subaltern the caste bound the racially mixed and the gender determined Guide to Reprints Albert James Diaz, 2001 An Update on Adult Development Theory: New Ways of Thinking About the Life Course M. Carolyn Clark, Rosemary S. Caffarella, 2011-10-13 Our approach to adult learners and the learning process is shaped by our knowledge of how adults change and develop across the life span This issue of New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education reviews the latest work in adult developmental theory in the biological psychological sociocultural and integrated domains and explores the implications of this work for adult education Chapters examine how gender race and sexual orientation affect our sense of self explore spiritual development and theories of aging and offer a way of understanding development in terms of how people use narrative to organize and make meaning of their experiences This is the 84th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Adult and Continuing Development

Melanesian Odysseys Lisette Josephides, 2008 In a series of epic self narratives ranging from traditional cultural embodiments to picaresque adventures Christian epiphanies and a host of interactive strategies and techniques for living Kewa Highlanders PNG attempt to shape and control their selves and their relentlessly changing world This account transcends ethnographic particularity and offers a wide reaching perspective on the nature of being human Inverting the analytic logic of her previous work which sought to uncover what social structures concealed Josephides focuses instead on the cultural understandings that people make explicit in their actions and speech Using approaches from philosophy and anthropology she examines elicitation how people create their selves and their worlds in the act of making explicit and mimesis how anthropologists produce ethnographies to arrive at an unexpected conclusion that knowledge of self and other alike derives from self externalization rather than self introspection BOOK JACKET

Literature and the Anthropocene Pieter Vermeulen, 2020 The Anthropocene has fundamentally changed the way we think about our relation to nonhuman life and to the planet This book is the first to critically survey how the Anthropocene is enriching the study of literature and inspiring contemporary poetry and fiction Engaging with topics such as genre life extinction memory infrastructure energy and the future the book makes a compelling case for literature's unique contribution to contemporary environmental thought It pays attention to literature's imaginative and narrative resources and also to its appeal to the emotions and its relation to the material world As the Anthropocene enjoins us to read the signals the planet is sending and to ponder the traces we leave on the Earth it is also this book argues a literary problem Literature and the Anthropocene maps key debates and introduces the often difficult vocabulary for capturing the entanglement of human and nonhuman lives in an insightful way Alternating between accessible discussions of prominent theories and concise readings of major works of Anthropocene literature the book serves as an indispensable guide to this exciting new subfield for academics and students of literature and the environmental humanities Narrative Absorption Frank Hakemulder, Moniek M. Kuijpers, Ed S. Tan, Katalin Bálint, Miruna M. Doicaru, 2017-11-15 Narrative Absorption brings together research from the social sciences and Humanities to solve a number of mysteries Most of us will have had those moments of being totally absorbed in a book a movie or computer game Typically we do not have any idea about how we ended up in such a state Nor do we fully realize how we might have changed as we return for the fictional worlds we have visited The feeling of being absorbed is one of the most illusive and transient feelings but also one that motivates audiences to spend considerable amounts of time in narrative worlds and one that is central to our understanding of the effects of narratives on beliefs and behavior Key specialists inform the reader of this book about the nature of the peculiar state of consciousness during episodes of absorption the perception of absorption in history the role of absorption in meaningful experiences with narratives the relation with related phenomena such as suspense and identification issues of measurement and the practical implications for instance in education entertainment Various fields have worked separately on topics of absorption albeit using different terminology and methods but having reached a high level of development and complexity in understanding absorption Now is the time to bring them together This volume will be a point of reference for years to come The Geographical Journal ,1928 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal geographical society formerly pub separately The Sociolinguistics of Narrative Joanna Thornborrow,Jennifer Coates,2005-06-30 This book aims to appraise sociolinguistic work devoted to the form and function of storytelling and to examine in detail the ways in which narrative constitutes a fundamental discursive resource across a range of contexts The chapters presented here bring together some of the most recent work in the theory and practice of narrative analysis from a broad sociolinguistic perspective They address some of the questions left implicit whenever stories are brought within the analytic frame of sociolinguistics What exactly do we mean by story what kind of social and contextual variations can determine the production and shape of situated stories and what are the core elements of narrative as a discursive unit and interactional resource how is the relationship between narrative discourse and social context articulated in the construction of cultural identities The data come both from institutional settings such as workplaces courtrooms schools and the media as well as from informal everyday settings Literary-critical Approaches to the Bible Mark Minor,1992 Transactions with the World Adam O'Brien,2016-02-01 In their bold experimentation and bracing engagement with culture and politics the New Hollywood films of the late 1960s and early 1970s are justly celebrated contributions to American cinematic history Relatively unexplored however has been the profound environmental sensibility that characterized movies such as The Wild Bunch Chinatown and Nashville This brisk and engaging study explores how many hallmarks of New Hollywood filmmaking such as the increased reliance on location shooting and the rejection of American self mythologizing made the era such a vividly grounded cinematic moment Synthesizing a range of narrative aesthetic and ecocritical theories it offers a genuinely fresh perspective on one of the most studied periods in film history The New Statesman ,1924 Children and the Internet Sonia Livingstone,2009-07-27 A major new contribution to the hot topic of children and the internet from one of the world s leading researchers in this area It considers children s everyday practices of internet use in relation to the complex socio cultural conditions of contemporary childhood American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1865 Peter Fred Lapham,2004-10-19 This book critically examines all the early and important Petrine pseudepigrapha to identify a distinctive Petrine theology which it is believed was later swamped by the tide of western orthodoxy Despite the diversity of the books and tractates ranging from Jewish Christian writings to avowedly Gnostic works a remarkably consistent Petrine tradition does emerge and Peter is shown essentially to be neither the impetuous undiscerning and even vacillating figure portrayed in the Gospels and Acts nor the magisterial and pontifical figure of later Church tradition but a visionary who was concerned above all to hold together both the moral and cognitive aspects of the Faith Subjective Realist Cinema Matthew Campora,2014-03-01 Subjective Realist Cinema looks at the fragmented narratives and multiple realities of a wide range of films that depict subjective experience and employ subjective realist narration including recent examples such as Mulholland Drive Memento and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The author proposes that an understanding of the narrative structures of these films particularly their use of mixed and multiple realities enhances viewers enjoyment and comprehension of such films and that such comprehension offers a key to understanding contemporary filmmaking
