Context in Literary and Cultural Studies Jakob Ladegaard,Jakob Gaardbo Nielsen,2019-06-24 Context in Literary and Cultural Studies is an interdisciplinary volume that deals with the challenges of studying works of art and literature in their historical context today The relationship between artworks and context has long been a central concern for aesthetic and cultural disciplines and the question of context has been asked anew in all eras. Developments in contemporary culture and technology as well as new theoretical and methodological orientations in the humanities once again prompt us to rethink context in literary and cultural studies. This volume takes up that challenge. Introducing readers to new developments in literary and cultural theory, Context in Literary and Cultural Studies connects all disciplines related to these areas to provide an interdisciplinary overview of the challenges different scholarly fields today meet in their studies of artworks in context. Spanning a number of countries and covering subjects from nineteenth century novels to rave culture, the chapters together constitute an informed, diverse and wide ranging discussion. The volume is written for scholarly readers at all levels in the fields of Literary Studies, Comparative Literature, Cultural Studies, Art History, Film, Theatre Studies and Digital Humanities.

The past decade has witnessed a remarkable resurgence in the intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles. The book is divided into four sections representing different modes of examining the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The topics covered range widely and include interpretations of space place and landscape in literature and the visual arts philosophical reflections on geographical knowledge cultural imagination in scientific exploration and travel accounts and expanded geographical understanding through digital and participatory methodologies The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors This book is essential reading for students scholars and interested general readers seeking to understand the new synergies and creative interplay emerging from this broad intellectual engagement with meaning and geographic experience Sports Media

David Livingstone the missionary explorer has attracted more commentary than nearly any other Victorian hero Beginning in the years following his death he soon became the subject of a major biographical tradition Yet out of this extensive discourse no unified image of Livingstone emerges Rather he has been represented in diverse ways and in a variety of socio political contexts Until now no one has explored Livingstone s posthumous reputation in full This book meets the challenge In approaching Livingstone s complex legacy it adopts a metabiographical perspective in other words this book is a biography of biographies Rather than trying to uncover the true nature of the subject metabiography is concerned with the malleability of biographical representation It does not aim to uncover Livingstone s real identity but instead asks what has he been made to mean Crossing disciplinary boundaries Livingstone s lives will interest scholars of imperial history postcolonialism life writing travel writing and Victorian studies Literary Intention, Literary Interpretations, and Readers John

Maynard,2009-04-17 This accessible personal and provocative study returns to the major subject in literary discussion before and during the relatively recent flourishing of literary theory that of literary intention Does the author s personal intention or historical site determine a correct interpretation of a literary work Probing the entire range of issues connected with this many faceted and knotty concept this book engages with interpretation on both theoretical and practical levels It argues that the hard questions about interpretation connected to issues of intention cannot be sidestepped or ignored It does not argue for conservative concepts of literature itself nor against the major historical engagements of critics in our time But in addressing those who continue to read or teach literature it does insist on a level of sophistication in issues of literary interpretation that cannot be assured by historical research and knowledge of the social and cultural connections to literary works The overall aim of the work is to recall readers to the great complexity pleasure and interest of literary interpretation
