remains You have carnage and chaos As you wade into that sea of wailing sirens and screaming survivors awash with the stench of diesel fuel and decaying bodies your job is to ferret out forensic clues in a type of macabre scavenger hunt to ultimately reconstruct the scene and the explosive device and determine what happened and what the bomb looked like before it was torn asunder None of this happens overnight Nor does it happen in a timeframe that can be neatly packaged in an hour long made for TV drama The scavenger hunt can take months or in the case of the infamous Collar Bomber seven painstaking years The work is worth every second and every horrific image that etches itself into your brain because it helps prevent new horrors Not all obviously We are not superheroes But unlike shooters who often just snap or seem to act out in random ways bombers almost always have a story one that follows an arc In The Bomb Doctor my goal is to explain that arc explode myths reconstruct reality and build an understanding of the reason and means behind the mayhem as well as pull back the curtain on the investigative process that brings bombers to justice
