To its left is a wooden pepper mill with a glass base containing yellow seeds. To its right is a white ceramic container holding several wooden kitchen utensils, including a spatula and a spoon. Curtis, 2010-09-03 Civilizing Habits explores the life stories of three French women missionaries Philippine Duchesne Emilie de Vialar and Anne Marie Javouhey who crossed boundaries both real and imagined to evangelize far from France's shores In so doing they helped France reestablish a global empire after the dislocation of the Revolution and the fall of Napoleon They also pioneered a new missionary era in which the educational charity and health care services provided by women became valuable tools for spreading Catholic influence across the globe Philippine Duchesne traveled to former French territory in Missouri in 1818 to proselytize among Native Americans Thwarted by the American policy of removing tribes even further west she turned her attention to girls education on the frontier Emilie de Vialar followed French troops to Algeria after its conquest and opened missions throughout the Mediterranean basin in the mid nineteenth century Prevented from direct evangelization she developed strategies and subterfuges for working among Muslim populations Anne Marie Javouhey evangelized among Africans in the French slave colonies including a utopian settlement in the wilds of French Guiana She became a rare Catholic proponent of the abolition of slavery and a woman designated a great man by the French king Paradoxically through embracing religious institutions designed to shield their femininity these women gained increased authority to travel outside France challenge church power and evangelize among non Christians all roles more commonly ascribed to male missionaries Their stories teach us about the life paths open to religious women in the nineteenth century and how both church and state benefitted from their initiative to expand the boundaries of faith and nation The Book of Jewish Food Claudia Roden, 1996-11-26 WINNER OF THE JAMES BEARD FOUNDATION COOKBOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD A monumental cookbook that gives us the story of the Jewish people told through the story of Jewish cooking from the bestselling author of A Book of Middle Eastern Food and Claudia Roden's Mediterranean The Book of Jewish Food traces the development of both Ashkenazic and Sephardic Jewish communities and their cuisine over the centuries The 800 magnificent recipes many never before documented represent treasures garnered by Roden through nearly 15 years of traveling around the world Includes 50 photos illustrations Saffron Shores Joyce Goldstein, 2002-08 A cookbook that celebrates the Jewish heritage of the Southern Mediterranean offers commentary on the history and traditional flavors of the area and recipes for dishes from Morocco Algeria Tunisia and Libya The New Mediterranean Jewish Table Joyce Goldstein, 2016-04-12 For thousands of years the people of the Jewish Diaspora have carried their culinary traditions and kosher laws throughout the world In the United States this has resulted primarily in an Ashkenazi table of matzo ball soup
