Soprintendenza archeologica di Pompei, 2002 The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815 Noémie Étienne, 2017-02-21 The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750 1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris Berlin Rome and Venice Noémie Étienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien Régime and early post Revolution France Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers artists and craftsmen and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity originality and stability of artworks emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815 Letter and Report on the Discoveries at Herculaneum Johann Joachim Winckelmann, 2011 This new translation brings to light the early days of scientific archaeology and the unearthing and study of Herculaneum and Pompeii as observed by the erudite and acerbic art historian Johann Joachim Winckelmann 1717 1768 His Letter published in German in 1762 displays his extensive knowledge of geology ancient literature and art while offering a scathing critique of the Spanish Bourbon excavations around the Bay of Naples and of the officials involved He further discusses these topics in his equally controversial Report of 1764 The introduction describes the context in which these texts were written identifies various politicians academics and collectors and elucidates topics of particular interest to Winckelmann from artifacts to local customs to the contents of ancient papyri The illustrations particularly those from the Bourbon publication Le Antichità di Ercolano 1757 92 illuminate how these monuments influenced contemporary perception of the ancient world Villa Arianna at Stabiae Paolo Gardelli, 2024-10-21 The archaeological investigation and the architectural survey conducted at Villa Arianna at Stabiae between 2010 and 2019 form the core of this book The author's motivation to start on a large scale study began with the wall constructions paintings and mosaics that have gradually been uncovered over the years His book offers an in depth comprehension of the history the decorations and the construction dynamics of the building from its foundation as country villa to the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 CE For the first time it provides a synthesis of the archaeological evidence the ancient texts and the journals of the Bourbon age excavations The first part of the book is divided into four narrative chapters which unearth essential environmental and historical archaeological information The second part consists of three chapters and the conclusion They evaluate the results of the recent excavations and the evidence obtained from the study of the archaeological findings The book offers a rare diachronic and synchronic biography of this unique villa It offers students scholars and enthusiasts alike profound first hand insights into Roman archaeology and one of its material manifestations the Roman villa

Painting, Ethics, and Aesthetics in Rome Nathaniel B. Jones, 2019-01-24 In the first centuries BCE and CE Roman wall painters frequently placed representations of works of art especially panel paintings within their own mural compositions Nathaniel B Jones argues that the depiction of panel painting within mural ensembles functioned as a meta pictorial reflection on the practice and status of painting itself This phenomenon provides crucial visual evidence for both the reception of Greek culture and the interconnected ethical and aesthetic values of art in the Roman world Roman meta pictures this book reveals not only navigated social debates on the production and consumption of art but also created space on the Roman wall for new modes of expression relating to pictorial genres the role of medium in artistic practice and the history of painting Richly illustrated the volume will be important for anyone interested in the social ethical and aesthetic dimensions of artworks in the ancient Mediterranean and beyond
