Travels With Ginsberg Allen Ginsberg, 2002-05 Allen Ginsberg was a serious shutterbug who delighted in taking candid snapshots of friends and fellow writers but up until now readers have had little chance to consider the poetic world of his photographs Here in the form of twenty detachable postcards are photographs taken over the years on the poet's many travels and trips abroad Pictures include Kerouac Ginsberg and Corso in Mexico Burroughs and Bowles in Tangier Snyder in Japan Whalen and Creeley in Vancouver Ginsberg in India and Prague and Philip Glass in Turkey Allen Ginsberg was born in 1926 in Newark New Jersey In 1956 City Lights published his signal poem Howl one of the most widely read poems of the era He died in 1997 Also Available from City Lights Postcards from the Underground TP 8 95 0 87286 365 4 bu CUSA

Ellsworth Kelly: Postcards Ian Berry, 2021-11-09 A comprehensive survey of rarely seen collages from the master of abstraction Over the course of more than 50 years renowned American artist Ellsworth Kelly made approximately 400 postcard collages some of which served as exploratory musings and others as studies for larger works in other mediums They range from his first monochrome in 1949 through his last postcard collages of crashing ocean waves in 2005 Together these works show an unbounded space of creative freedom and provide an important insight into the way Kelly saw experienced and translated the world in his art Many postcards illustrate specific places where he lived or visited introducing biography and illuminating details that make these pieces unique among his broader artistic production Ellsworth Kelly Postcards is the most extensive publication of Kelly's lifelong practice of collaged postcards Ellsworth Kelly 1923 2015 was born in Newburgh New York In 1948 he moved to France where he came into contact with a wide range of classical and modern art He returned to New York in 1954 and two years later had his first exhibition at the Betty Parsons Gallery The Museum of Modern Art New York organized his first retrospective in 1973 Subsequent exhibitions have been held at museums around the world including the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum in New York Tate in London Haus der Kunst in Munich and the Centre Pompidou in Paris

Postcards from the Baja California Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2021-10-05 Postcards have a magical pull They allow us to see the past through charming relics that allow us to travel back in time Daniel D Arreola's Postcards from the Baja California Border offers a window into the historical and geographical past of storied Mexican border communities Once popular tourist destinations from the 1900s through the 1950s the border communities explored in Postcards from the Baja California Border used to be filled with revelers cabarets curio shops and more The postcards in this book show the bright and dynamic past of California's borderlands while diving deep into the historic and geographic significance of the imagery found on the postcards This form of place study calls attention to how we can see a past through a serial view of places by the nature of repetition and the photographing of the same place over and over again Arreola draws our focus to townscapes or built landscapes of four border towns Tijuana Mexicali Tecate and Algodones during the first half of the twentieth century With an emphasis on the tourist s view of these places this book creates a vivid picture of what life was like for tourists and residents of these towns in the early and mid twentieth century Postcards from the Baja California Border is a rich and fascinating experience one that takes you on a time travel journey through border town histories and geographies while celebrating the visual intrigue of postcards

Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2019-10-29 Just a trolley ride from El Paso Ciudad Ju rez was a popular destination in the early 1900s Enticing and exciting tourists descended on this and other Mexican border towns to browse curio shops dine and dance attend bullfights and perhaps escape Prohibition America In Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D Arreola captures the exhilaration of places in time taking us back to Mexico s northern border towns of Ciudad Ju rez Ojinaga and Palomas in the early twentieth century Drawing on more than three decades of archival work Arreola uses postcards and maps to unveil the history of these towns along west Texas s and New Mexico s southern borders Postcards offer a special kind of visual evidence Arreola s collection of imagery and commentary about them shows us singular places enriching our understandings of history and the history of change in Chihuahua No one postcard tells the entire story But image after image offers a collected view and insight into changing perceptions Arreola s geography of place looks both inward and outward We see what tourists see while at the same time gaining insight about what postcard photographers and postcard publishers wanted to be seen and perceived about these border communities Postcards from the Chihuahua Border is a colorful and dynamic visual history It invites the reader to time travel to revisit another era the first half of the last century when these border towns were framed and made popular through picture postcards
