Picture Queensland National Parks:

With Brush and Canvas in Queensland's National Parks Joan Starr, 1989 Powerful Pictures: Rock Art Research Histories around the World Jamie Hampson, Sam Challis, Joakim Goldhahn, 2022-12-29 Focusing on stunning paintings and engravings from around the world 16 papers interrogate the driving forces behind global rock art research Many of the motifs featured were created by indigenous hunter gatherer groups this book sheds new light on non Western rituals and worldviews many of which are threatened or on the point of extinction American Photo , 1998-01 Australia , 2010 Each information packed page is splashed with enticing photographs of the people animals deserts and ocean vistas that make the country Down Under famous the world over Full color maps and at a glance tables make it easy to sort through dining and accommodation choices Australian National Bibliography , 1978 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Rocks and Landscapes of the National Parks of Southern Queensland W. F Willmott, Geological Society of Australia. Queensland Division, 2014 Place of Shadows Phil Jarratt, 2021-06-08 This comprehensive history of Noosa comes straight from the heart Award winning writer Phil Jarratt has lived in the seaside town for more than 30 years and has played many roles as both communicator and protagonist over its transition from sleepy village to iconic resort In many ways it is a love letter to his adopted home but the Noosa story is not always a pretty one and Jarratt does not flinch from the harsh realities of the cruelties inflicted on the Kabi Kabi First Nation nor from the wild years when Tewantin was a playground for cashed up gold diggers nor from the unscrupulous development deals of the Joh era But this is a history filled with admiration for the fighters of the past and hope for the future Australia in Pictures Ann Kerns, 2004-01-01 A guide to the history government people culture and economy of Australia Australia's Wild Places Roger McDonald, 2009 Drawing on the extensive collection of the National Library of Australia this book highlights the fingerprints humans have left on the landscape through the lenses of Australia's greatest photographers Roger McDonald has written an insightful introductory essay as well as extended captions describing his response Queensland Geographical Journal , 1905 Visions of Nature Dr. Jarrod Hore, 2022-04-19 Visions of Nature revives the work of late nineteenth century landscape photographers who shaped the environmental attitudes of settlers in the colonies of the Tasman World and in California Despite having little association with one another these photographers developed remarkably similar visions of nature They rode a wave of interest in wilderness imagery and made pictures that were hung in settler drawing rooms perused in albums projected in theaters and re created on vacations In both the American West and the Tasman World landscape photography fed into settler belonging and produced new ways of thinking about territory and history During this key period of settler revolution a generation of photographers came to associate nature with remoteness antiquity and emptiness a perspective that disguised the realities of Indigenous presence and reinforced colonial fantasies of environmental abundance This book lifts the work of these photographers out of their provincial contexts and repositions it within a new comparative frame Primary Society and Environment ,2001 Topics covered are Community studies Australia s neighbours Working together Exploration and discovery Saving Australia s natural heritage Year Book Australia, 1991 No. 74 ,2008 Pictures of Time Beneath Kirsty Douglas,2010-04-27 Pictures of Time Beneath examines three celebrated heritage landscapes Adelaide s Hallett Cove Lake Callabonna in the far north of South Australia and the World Heritage listed Willandra Lakes Region of New South Wales It offers philosophical insights into significant issues of heritage management our relationship with Australian landscapes and an original perspective on our understanding of place time nation and science Glaciers in Adelaide cow sized wombats monster kangaroos desert dunes littered with freshwater mussels ancient oases and inland seas a diverse group of deep time imaginings is the subject of this ground breaking book Ideas about a deep past in Australia are central to broader issues of identity belonging uniqueness legitimacy and intellectual community This journey through Australia s natural histories examines the way landscapes and landforms are interpreted to realise certain visions of the land the nation and the past in the context of contemporary notions of geological heritage cultural property cultural identity and antiquity Crossing Boundaries Sandy Toussaint,2004 Ever since the 1992 Mabo decision put an end to the legal fiction that Australia was without owners before the arrival of the British colonisers the work associated with resolving native title claims has developed as a significant but often difficult arena of professional practice Increasingly anthropologists linguists historians and lawyers have been encouraged to work collaboratively often in the context of highly charged public controversy about who owns the land In Crossing Boundaries editor Sandy Toussaint and her contributors have created a cross disciplinary exploration of native title work In all twenty professionals share their experience and expertise As Toussaint concludes Chapters in this volume reveal the extent to which native title workers need to communicate more cogently and in some cases to redefine their practice The Forest Flora of New South Wales Joseph Henry Maiden,1925 Beautiful Australia in Pictures Geoff Higgins,1990 Over six hundred colour photographs of various regions and features of Australia Each state has a separate chapter Geoff Higgins has published several photographic collections of the Australian landscape What If You Had An Animal Tongue!? Sandra Markle,2020-09-15 If you could have any animal s tongue whose would you choose What if you woke up one morning and your tongue wasn t yours What If You Had an Animal Tongue the next imaginative book in the What If You Had series explores what would happen if you looked in the mirror and saw an animal s tongue instead of your own From a Komodo dragon s split yellow tongue which can detect food from five miles away to a woodpecker s long thorny tongue used to dig into trees for food discover what it would be like if you had these special tongues and find out why your tongue is just the right one for you Leadership and the Construction of Environmental Concern Bruce Tranter,Elizabeth Lester,Lyn McGaurr,2017-11-23 This book emerges from a three year Australian Research Council funded study that asks how the formation and d evolution of leadership has impacted on public environmental debate To do this it draws on extensive news text analysis and public opinion survey data as well as qualitative interviews with Australian and international movement actors The volume investigates environmental leadership in a period of rapid political and media change by examining the nature variety and scope specifically how it is understood and generated and how it changes over time For the first time the interconnected roles of leaders and media in constructing environmental issues are researched together providing new evidence based understandings of the people and processes driving public debate on environmental futures
