Picture History Of British Columbia:

British Columbia Frederic William Howay, Ethelbert Olaf Stuart Scholefield, 1912 Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner, 2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author's original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province's history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization Haida Gwaii Daryl W. Fedge, Rolf W. Mathewes, 2005 Over the last ten years there has been intensive field research in archaeology and paleo geography in Haida Gwaii Queen Charlotte Islands primarily by agencies such as Parks Canada but also by consultants and other independent researchers Members of the Haida Nation have participated directly in this field work Haida Gwaii presents the results of this research and carefully integrates the results with earlier archaeological ethnohistorical and paleo environmental work in the region The book presents as complete a picture as possible of past environments and culture on Haida Gwaii from the late glacial through the prehistoric and protohistoric periods preceding the period of direct European contact While this is a scientific text Haida tradition is covered to a limited extent through the inclusion of a previously unpublished Haida origin myth The collection makes a significant contribution to understanding the natural history of Haida Gwaii from new data on ice retreat shoreline and sea level change faunal communities and culture history to broader inferences made from these data regarding the late glacial and early post glacial history of the entire coast Alphabetic Catalog of the Books, Manuscripts, Maps, Pictures and Curios of the Illinois State Historical Library Illinois State Historical Library, 1900

British Columbia Patricia Roy, John Herd Thompson, 2005 Providing a detailed account of the multitude of experiences within British Columbia this fifth volume in Oxford's acclaimed Illustrated History of Canada series presents a compact narrative survey of British Columbia's economic political and social history generously illustrated with roughly 150 paintings drawings and maps that shed their own light on the province's history Midwest Upstarts and Outcasts Valerie

Green,2000 The popular myth of Victoria's genteel history all upper class colonists and Royal Navy dances is ripe for puncturing Yes there were the wealthy and the well born but the city's pioneers also included madams and murderers salesmen and saloon keepers who would never have been seated at the dinner tables of the elite But these people upstanding citizens or impudent criminals contributed in their way to the life of the little settlement perched on the Pacific the New World represented a new start for everyone earnest hard working seamstresses and fly by night gold seekers alike Valerie Green has unearthed a variety of stories about saloon keepers housemaids actors and brothel owners Victoria's past may not be as proper as legends have it but it was a lot more colourful The History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia Adrien Gabriel Morice,1905 Bella Coola Valley Leslie H.
