with sacred symbols and secret knowledge from the very first abstract symbols and handprints to complex and vivid arrangements of animals and people. Often undisturbed for many tens of thousands of years, these were among the first visual symbols that humans shared with each other, though they were made so long ago that we have entirely forgotten their meaning. However, as archaeologist Bruno David reveals, caves decorated more recently may help us to unlock their secrets. David tells the story of this mysterious world of decorated caves from the oldest known painting tools to the magnificent murals of the European Ice Age. Showcasing the most astounding discoveries made in more than 150 years of archaeological exploration, Cave Art explores the creative achievements of our remotest ancestors and what they tell us about the human past. Our Historic Desert Diana Lindsay, 1974

Rendez-vous with Art Philippe de Montebello, Martin Gayford, 2014-09-16 The fruits of a lifetime of experience by a cultural colossus, Philippe de Montebello, the longest serving director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in its history, distilled in conversations with an acclaimed critic. Beginning with a fragment of yellow jasper, all that is left of the face of an Egyptian woman who lived 3,500 years ago, this book confronts the elusive questions: how and why do we look at art? Philippe de Montebello and Martin Gayford talked in art galleries or churches or their own homes, and this book is structured around their journeys. But whether they were in the Louvre or the Prado, the Mauritshuis or the Palazzo Pitti, they reveal the pleasures of truly looking. De Montebello shares the sense of excitement recorded by Goethe in his autobiography, akin to the emotion experienced on entering a House of God, but also reflects on why these secular temples might nevertheless be the worst possible places to look at art. But in the end, both men convey with subtlety and brilliance the delights and significance of their subject matter and some of the intense creations of human beings throughout our long history.

Painters of the Caves Patricia Lauber, 1998 Describes the 1994 discovery made in Chauvet, France, of a cave with Stone Age rock paintings and discusses the significance of cave art to people living in prehistoric as well as modern times.
