knowing what has happened Cursed or blessed with unconsciousness and a lack of being able to immediately remember and reflect upon where they have been and what has happened to them very little communication and incidence ensues and they all end up somewhat trapped in the philosophical mentalities they are snagged into by being void of any connection to any true fictional reality If no thing much is happening all they can really do is think and think they do but much of their inner lives is philosophy religion and social judicial histrionicism Essentially nothing is really happening in terms of conversation and incidence But what unravels is how even when seemingly nothing is happening so much can be happening inside peoples minds Moreover something is happening in terms of their contexts More a concourse of philosophy and thinking than any true narrative entertainment what unravels stands in difference to the consistent fictional element of the earlier book and predicates a somewhat sinister expos on the problems of living a life in the mind At bottom if fiction is not happening philosophy is And if such is in somewhat uncomfortable situations fanaticism is bred
