'Picture Post', 1938-50 Sir Hopkinson (Tom),1970 Graphic Design Paul Jobling,David Crowley,1996 This is an inventive a well researched study which explores the production and consumption of graphic design in Europe PICTURE POST ~1938-50æ (NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-EIGHT TO FIFTY). Tom Hopkinson,1979 1938: Modern Britain Michael John Law,2017-12-14 In 1938 Modern Britain Michael John Law demonstrates that our understanding of life in Britain just before the Second World War has been overshadowed by its dramatic political events 1938 was the last year of normality and Law shows through a series of case studies that in many ways life in that year was far more modern than might have been thought By considering topics as diverse as the opening of a new type of pub the launch of several new magazines the emergence of push button radios and large screen televisions sets and the building of a huge office block he reveals a Britain both modern and intrigued by its own modernity that was stopped in its tracks by war and the austerity that followed For some life in Britain was as consumerist secular Americanized and modern as it would become for many in the late 1950s and early 1960s Presenting a fresh perspective on an important year in British social history illuminated by six engaging case studies this is a key study for students and scholars of 20th century Britain Picture Post 1938-50. Ed.with an Introduction by Tom Hopkinson Tom Hopkinson,1970 Writings on Media Stuart Hall,2021-09-10 Writings on Media gathers more than twenty of Stuart Hall s media analyses from scholarly essays such as Encoding and Decoding in the Television Discourse 1973 to other writings addressed to wider publics Hall explores the practices of news photography the development of media and cultural studies the changing role of television and how the nation imagines itself through popular media He attends to Britain s imperial history and the politics of race and cultural identity as well as the media s relationship to the political project of the state Testifying to the range and agility of Hall s critical and pedagogic engagement with contemporary media culture and also to his collaborative mode of working this volume reaffirms his stature as an innovative media theorist while demonstrating the continuing relevance of his methods of analysis Face Forms in Life-Writing of the Interwar Years Teresa Bruś,2023-08-16 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the engagement with and representation of the face across literature photography and theatre It looks at how the face is an active agent closely connected with the history of the media and the social interactions reflected in media images Focusing on the dynamic period of the interwar years it explores a range of case studies in Poland UK and the US and examines artists like Stanisław Ignacy Witkiewicz Witkacy Virginia Woolf Debora Vogel Sir Cecil Beaton Theodore Wadysław Benda and Edward Gordon Craig Teresa Bru argues that these writers and photographers defended the face against threats from modern life not least the media She focuses on transformations of the face in life writing across a range of media and draws attention to the artists autobiographical narratives Mapping the Magazine Tim Holmes,2013-09-13 The media and more recently journalism have provided rich areas of study for many years but magazines perhaps the most prolific single medium have been largely ignored Mapping The Magazine aims to

redress the balance with an unprecedented collection of original scholarly detailed but wide ranging examinations of the magazine form Drawing on a variety of theoretical approaches and a wealth of titles from around the world the contributions demonstrate just how significant the magazine has been and continues to be in the realm of journalism and cultural production From the science magazines of the Victorian era to women s magazines of South Africa and Israel via rock music and photojournalism past and present the material in Mapping The Magazine illuminates and explores the all encompassing global and historical nature of the subject matter Some of the most notable names in the field of magazine studies including John Hartley Sammye Johnson David Abrahamson Bethan Benwell and Patrick Roessler contribute research based analyses of various aspects of magazine journalism from around the globe and across a wide historical span This book will help to establish the magazine as a medium which is not only suitable for research but which also opens up a huge new field of possibilities This book was previously published as a special issue of Journalism Studies Penguin Books and political change Dean Blackburn,2020-11-12 Founded in 1935 by a young publisher disillusioned with the class prejudices of the interwar publishing trade Penguin Books set out to make good books available to all The Penguin Specials a series of current affairs books authored by leading intellectuals and politicians embodied its democratising mission Published over fifty years and often selling in vast quantities these inexpensive paperbacks helped to shape popular ideas about subjects as varied as the welfare state homelessness social class and environmental decay Using the Specials as a lens through which to view Britain s changing political landscape Dean Blackburn tells a story about the ideas that shaped post war Britain Between the late 1930s and the mid 1980s Blackburn argues Britain witnessed the emergence and eclipse of a meritocratic moment at the core of which was the belief that a strong relationship between merit and reward would bring about social stability and economic efficiency Equal opportunity and professional expertise values embodied by the egalitarian aspirations of Penguin s publishing ethos would be the drivers of social and economic progress But as the social and economic crises of the 1970s took root many contemporary thinkers and politicians cast doubt on the assumptions that informed meritocratic logic Britain s meritocratic moment had passed Routledge Library Editions: British Sociological Association Various,2021-07-14 The volumes in this set originally published between 1969 and 2001 is comprised of original books published in conjunction with the British Sociological Association The set draws together original research by leading academics based on study groups and conference papers in the areas of youth race the sociology of work gender social research urban studies class deviance and social control law development and health Each volume provides a rigorous examination of related key issues This set will be of particular interest to students and academics in the field of sociology health and social care gender studies and criminology respectively An Apology for Pictures Detlev Gohrbandt,2024-11-25 Illustrierte B cher sind f r viele Kinder der Einstieg ins eigene Lesen nachdem Oma oder Papa ihnen vorgelesen und ihren Leseappetit geweckt haben Mit etwas Gl ck werden sie bald eifrige sprachgewandte und weltoffene Leser innen Die Bilder in einem gedruckten Text erleichtern den

Zugang zu den sperrigen Buchstabenfolgen indem sie ein Vorverständnis bereitstellen Das gilt auch für erwachsene Leserinnen denen das Lesen durch Illustrationen auf diese Weise attraktiv und gelingend wird dass es bald zu ihrem Alltag gehört So haben viele Menschen in der Zeit zwischen den Weltkriegen in Frankreich Deutschland und Großbritannien immer fester zu den in großer Zahl angebotenen preiswerten Büchern mit Holzschnitten gegriffen und sind selbst zu Leserinnen und Sammlerinnen geworden Die vergleichende Untersuchung dieser illustrierten Erzähltexte zeigt wie verschieden die Entwicklung in den drei Ländern war und bietet eine systematische Einführung in die verschiedenen Illustrationsformen und ihre Wechselwirkungen mit den Texten

London 1945 Maureen Waller, 2013-12-31 London at the outset of World War II in 1939 was the greatest city in the world the heart of the British Empire By 1945 it was a drab and exhausted city beginning the long haul back to recovery The defiant capital of England had always been Hitler's prime target The last months of the Second World War saw the final phase of the battle of London as the enemy unleashed its new vengeance weapons the flying bombs and rockets They were terrifying and brought destruction on a vast scale but fortunately came too late to dent morale seriously The people of London were showing the spirit courage and resilience that had earned them the admiration of the world during a long siege In the harshest winter of fifty years they were living in primitive conditions Thousands were homeless living in the Underground and deep shelters Women lined up for horse meat and were lucky to obtain one egg a month They besieged emergency coal dumps Everyone longed for peace The bright new world seemed elusive As the victory celebrations passed into memory there were severe hardships and all the problems of post war adjustment Women lost the independence the war had lent them husbands and wives had to learn to live together again and children had a lot of catching up to do Yet London's loss has often been its opportunity Its people had eagerly embraced plans for a modern metropolis and an end to poverty They voted overwhelmingly for a Labour government and the new fairer social order that was their reward for all they had endured The year of victory 1945 represents an important chapter in London's and Britain's long history Acclaimed historian Maureen Waller draws on a rich array of primary sources letting the people tell their own story to re-create that moment bringing to it the social insight at which she excels Inventing Television Culture Janet Thumim, 2004-12-16 During the fertile decade 1955-65 the television institution emerged in a form which would be familiar for the next half century this book attends to two aspects of its formation The first entails the production strategies programmes schedules and emergent generic modes as these were invented through a process of trial and error allied to a close attention to building the mass audience in short the question of how television invented itself The second aspect concerns the place of women and the concept feminine in the new institution Television offered women access to the public sphere in ways that were potentially disruptive of the order prevailing in mid 1950s Britain Apart from new employment opportunities images of women and definitions of the feminine were purveyed nightly to an heterogeneous audience of millions an audience that was itself under construction throughout the period Through close attention to three discrete areas of programming women's programmes news and current affairs and popular drama the book aims to convey a sense of the excitement entailed in establishing the institution and to ask where and how it may have posed challenges to the prevailing patriarchal hegemony Hence the productive interplay of two terms television and the feminine both of which were evolving rapidly during the period is explored in the context of the contemporary discursive climate Sport and the British

Richard Holt,1990 This is a lively and deeply researched history of British sport since 1800 the first of its kind It goes beyond a few great names and moments to explain how sport has changed and what it has meant to ordinary people Sport and the British shows how the way we play reflects not only our lives as citizens of a predominantly urban and industrialised world but what is especially distinctive about British sport Modern media coverage of sport gambling violence and attitudes towards it nationalism and the role of sport in sustaining male identity are all examined in this account which combines entertaining anecdote with more serious historical understanding The Word at War Philip Gooden, Peter

Lewis,2014-09-25 War words have embedded themselves in our collective psyche British politicians are fond of invoking the Dunkirk spirit whenever the country is faced with major crisis or even minor adversity and Roosevelt's famous description of Pearl Harbor as a date which will live in infamy was echoed by many US commentators after the 9 11 attacks So far so familiar Or is it How many of us know for instance that Keep Calm and Carry On far from achieving its morale boosting aim was considered at the time to be deeply patronizing by the people it was directed at and so had only limited distribution The Word at War explores 100 phrases spawned and popularized in the lead up and during the conflict of World War Two Substantial essays explore and explain the derivations of and the stories behind popular terms and phraseology of the period including wartime speeches and the words of Churchill Hitler and FDR service slang national stereotypes food and drink and codewords The Media in Britain Jeremy Tunstall,1983 British newspapers The Times The Guardian Daily Telegraph and Financial Times have long been considered among the best in the world and the BBC has become the world's most venerated television and radio organization In this book Jeremy Tunstall author of The Media are American surveys British media since 1945 including television radio films newspapers and magazines with the purpose of studying how they operate and what the future holds for them In the course of the book he discusses such issues as the relationship of politics to the media media audiences media biases control of the media by conglomerates and policies for the future From Garden Cities to New

Towns Dennis Hardy,2003-12-16 This book offers a detailed record of one of the world's oldest environmental pressure groups It raises questions about the capacity of pressure groups to influence policy and finally it assesses the campaigning as a major factor in the emergence of modern town and planning and as a backdrop against which to examine current issues

War Photography John Taylor,2020-12-22 What makes news patriotic How is photojournalism used in wartime In a national crisis the press operates under various forms of censorship Within these constraints it continues to produce news in line with what is considered newsworthy Everyday human interest photographs and stories which tell of bizarre comic or tragic events are turned to patriotic ends The subject of death is transformed by its use in saving the nation it is accompanied and displaced by more comforting ideas Originally published in 1991 with the help of full page illustrations from newspapers and journals John Taylor looks at the special truth of war news how it is built on established ways of storytelling and how photography is used to make it seem real Taking examples from the First and Second World Wars the Falklands campaign and present day accounts of terrorism and crime within the United Kingdom Taylor shows that aside from legal controls the press s own methods bring it close to the official perspective Drawing on history sociology and photo history War Photography is a well illustrated account of the place of photojournalism in the news industry and the use of news in creating national identity

Distortion and Love Nigel Rapport, 2016-07-07 In this ground breaking book a theory of distortion of the way in which the processes of human life are subject to interference diversion and transformation is developed by way of the art of one of Britain s greatest twentieth century painters and that art s public reception Devoted to his native village of Cookham on Thames Stanley Spencer painted not only landscapes and portraits with loving detail but also the memory feelings which he felt were a sacred part of his consciousness Yet Spencer was also a controversial public figure with some taking the view that his visionary paintings were ugly distortions of human life even marks of an immoral nature Examining how Spencer lived his vision how he painted it and wrote it and also how his attempts to communicate that vision were received by his contemporaries and have continued to be interpreted since his death the author posits distortion as key an intrinsic aspect both of human creation and of human interaction What we intend to make to say to do and have done often mutates in the process of being expressed or put into effect we live amid distortion Love the affective appreciation of one another is then a means by which we accommodate distortion and its consequences in our lives An illustration through Stanley Spencer s story of significant aspects of a human condition this book will appeal across disciplines including to art historians and students of Spencer s work as well as to scholars of anthropology with interests in creativity perception and interpretation

British Art in the Nuclear Age Catherine Jolivet, 2017-07-05 Rooted in the study of objects British Art in the Nuclear Age addresses the role of art and visual culture in discourses surrounding nuclear science and technology atomic power and nuclear warfare in Cold War Britain Examining both the fears and hopes for the future that attended the advances of the nuclear age nine original essays explore the contributions of British born and gr rtists in the areas of sculpture textile and applied design painting drawing photo journalism and exhibition display Artists discussed include Francis Bacon John Bratby Lynn Chadwick Prunella Clough Naum Gabo Barbara Hepworth Peter Lanyon Henry Moore Eduardo Paolozzi Peter Laszlo Peri Isabel Rawsthorne Alan Reynolds Colin Self Graham Sutherland Feliks Topolski and John Tunnard Also under discussion is new archival material from Picture Post magazine and the Festival of Britain Far from insular in its concerns this volume draws upon cross cultural dialogues between British and European artists and the relationship between Britain and America to engage with an interdisciplinary art history that will also prove useful to students and researchers in a variety of fields including modern European history political science the history of design anthropology and media studies
