The Survival of American Silent Feature Films Council on Library and Information Resources and The Library of Congress,Council on Library and Information Resou,2014-04-11 The era of the American silent feature film lasted from 1912 until 1929 During that time filmmakers established the language of cinema and the motion pictures they created reached a height of artistic sophistication These films with their recognizable stars and high production values spread American culture around the world Silent feature films disappeared from sight soon after the coming of sound and many vanished from existence This report focuses on those titles that have managed to survive to the present day and represents the first comprehensive survey of the survival of American silent feature films The American Film Institute Catalog of Feature Films documents 10 919 silent feature films of American origin released through 1930 Treasures from the Film Archives published by the International Federation of Film Archives FIAF is the primary source of information regarding silent film survival in the archival community The FIAF information has been enhanced by information from corporations libraries and private collectors We have good documentation on what American silent feature films were produced and released This study quantifies the what where and why of their survival The survey was designed to answer five questions

Get the Picture John Godfrey

Morris, John G. Morris, 2002-06-15 How do photojournalists get the pictures that bring us the action from the world's most dangerous places How do picture editors decide which photos to scrap and which to feature on the front page Find out in Get the Picture a personal history of fifty years of photojournalism by one of the top journalists of the twentieth century John G Morris brought us many of the images that defined our era from photos of the London air raids and the D Day landing during World War II to the assassination of Robert Kennedy He tells us the inside stories behind dozens of famous pictures like these which are reproduced in this book and provides intimate and revealing portraits of the men and women who shot them including Robert Capa Henri Cartier Bresson and W Eugene Smith A firm believer in the power of images to educate and persuade Morris nevertheless warns of the tremendous threats posed to photojournalists today by increasingly chaotic wars and the growing commercialism in publishing the siren song of money that leads editors to seek pictures that sell copies rather than those that can change the way we see the world
