Picture and Text Henry James, 1893 Knowledge Acquisition from Text and Pictures H. Mandl, J.R.

Levin, 1989-04-01 Media didactics have recently become more firmly grounded on cognitive theory with an increasing concern for the internal processes of knowledge representation and acquisition. With this cognitive aspect in mind, an international group of researchers held a meeting in Tübingen, Federal Republic of Germany, to present and discuss the theoretical approaches to and empirical investigations of knowledge acquisition from text and pictures. This volume contains the revised contributions resulting from that meeting. I Am Perfectly Designed Karamo Brown, Jason "Rachel"

Brown, 2019-11-05 I Am Perfectly Designed is an exuberant celebration of loving who you are exactly as you are from Karamo Brown, the Culture Expert of Netflix's hit series Queer Eye, and Jason Brown, featuring illustrations by Anoosha Syed. In this empowering ode to modern families, a boy and his father take a joyful walk through the city, discovering all the ways in which they are perfectly designed for each other. With tenderness and wit, this story captures the magic of building strong childhood memories. The Browns and Syed celebrate the special bond between parent and child with joy and flair. Syed's bright cartoon illustrations enrich the tale with a meaningful message of kindness and inclusion. Ekphrastic Shields in

Graeco-Roman Literature Karel Thein, 2021-09-30 This volume takes a fresh look at ekphrasis as a textual practice closely connected to our embodied imagination and its verbal dimension. It offers the first detailed study of a large family of ancient ekphrastic shields, often studied separately but never as an ensemble with its own development. The main objective consists of establishing a theoretical and historical framework that is applied to a series of famous ekphrastic shields, starting with the Homeric shield of Achilles. The latter is reinterpreted as a paradigmatic thing whose echoing down the centuries is reinforced by the fundamental connection between ekphrasis and artefacts as its primary objects. The book demonstrates that although the ancient sources do not limit ekphrasis to artificial creations, the latter are most efficient in bringing out the intimate affinity between artefacts and vivid mental images as two kinds of entities that lack a natural scale and are rightly understood as ontologically unstable. Ekphrastic Shields in Graeco-Roman Literature. The World's Forge should be read by those interested in ancient culture, art, and philosophy, but also by those fascinated by the broader issue of imagination and by the interplay between the natural and the artificial. Reading Contemporary Picturebooks David Lewis, 2001

This work analyzes how picture books work, the role of picture books in learning to read, how children make meaning from pictures, and how teachers can make best use of picture books in the classroom. Text and Image John Bateman, 2014-05-30 Text and image are used together in an increasingly flexible fashion, and many disciplines and areas of study are now attempting to understand how these combinations work. This introductory textbook explores and analyses the various approaches to multimodality and offers a broad interdisciplinary survey of all aspects of the text-image relation. It leads students into detailed discussion concerning a number of approaches that are used. It also brings out their strengths and weaknesses using
