Pier Paolo Pasolini Beverly Allen,1982-01-01 This work examines the writings of this Italian poet novelist filmmaker theorist and dramaturge directing attention to this neglected area of study by focusing on the question of narrative form that invests all of Pasolini's writings A Poetics of Resistance David Ward,1995 A Poetics of Resistance Narrative and the

Writings of Pier Paolo Pasolini examines the writings of the Italian poet novelist filmmaker theorist and dramaturg

Stanford Italian Review Beverly Allen,1982 The Selected Poetry of Pier Paolo Pasolini Pier Paolo Pasolini,2014-08-20 Most people outside Italy know Pier Paolo Pasolini for his films many of which began as literary works Arabian Nights The Gospel According to Matthew The Decameron and The Canterbury Tales among them What most people are not aware of is that he was primarily a poet publishing nineteen books of poems during his lifetime as well as a visual artist novelist playwright and journalist Half a dozen of these books have been excerpted and published in English over the years but even if one were to read all of those the wide range of poetic styles and subjects that occupied Pasolini during his lifetime would still elude the English language reader For the first time Anglophones will now be able to discover the many facets of this singular poet Avoiding the tactics of the slim idiosyncratic and aesthetically or politically motivated volumes currently available in English Stephen Sartarelli has chosen poems from every period of Pasolini's poetic oeuvre In doing so he gives English language readers a more complete picture of the poet whose verse ranged from short lyrics to longer poems and extended sequences and whose themes ran not only to the moral spiritual and social spheres but also to the aesthetic and sexual for which he is most known in the United States today This volume shows how central poetry was to Pasolini no matter what else he was doing in his creative life and how poetry informed all of his work from the visual arts to his political essays to his films Pier Paolo Pasolini was a poet of the cinema as James Ivory says in the book's foreword who left a trove of words on paper that can live on as the fast deteriorating images he created on celluloid cannot This generous selection of poems will be welcomed by poetry lovers and film buffs alike and will be an event in American letters Pier Paolo Pasolini Patrick Allen Rumble,Bart Testa,1994-01-01 A reexamination of Pasolini life and work as a poet novelist filmmaker journalist and cultural theorist reflecting new developments in semiotics post structuralist theory and historical research on Italian literature and film Pasolini's Lasting Impressions Ryan Calabretta-Sajder,2018-01-03 This collection examines the multifaceted opus of Pier Paolo Pasolini through a contemporary critical lens It offers new interpretations to some classic works such as Salò or the 120 Days of Sodom and Decameron while considering some lesser studied pieces for example Orestia and his Friulian verse Pasolini Robert Samuel Clive Gordon,1996 In the twenty years since his death Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 has grown into a figure of defining importance in the history of post war Italian literary and cinematographic culture His extraordinary and continuing impact is explained by his capacity to appropriate and transform or distort traditional genres media languages and forms of art and to bring them into stark confrontation with the deeply fractured social political and sexual landscape of modern Italy Pasolini Forms of Subjectivity aims at a global reassessment of Pasolini examining in turn his journalism and essays his poetry his film theory and practice and his sprawling posthumously published narrative fragment Petrolio all from the perspective of the complex shifting workings of subjectivity which animate every aspect of his work Gordon provides a conceptual and interpretative framework which illuminates Pasolini's mastery of both the written word and the cinematographical world

Pasolini Requiem Barth David Schwartz, 2017-05-10 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922-75 was one of the most important Italian intellectuals of the post World War II era An astonishing polymath poet novelist literary critic political polemicist screenwriter and film director he exerted profound influence on Italian culture up to his untimely death at the age of fifty three This revised edition of what the New York Times Book Review has called the standard Pasolini biography introduces the artist to a new generation of readers Based on extensive interviews with those who knew Pasolini both friends and enemies admirers and detractors Pasolini Requiem chronicles his growth from poet in the provinces to Italy's leading civil poet his flight to Rome in 1950 the scandalous success of his two novels and political writing and his transition to film where he started as a contributor to the golden age of Italian cinema and ended with the shocking Salò or the 120 Days of Sodom Pasolini's tragic and still unsolved murder has remained a subject of contentious debate for four decades The enduring fascination with who committed the crime and why reflects his vital stature in Italy's political and social history Updated throughout and with a new afterword covering the efforts to reopen the investigation and the legal maelstrom surrounding Pasolini's demise this edition of Pasolini Requiem is a riveting account of one of the twentieth century's most controversial ever present iconoclasts

Andrea Zanzotto Beverly C. Allen, 2023-07-28 Andrea Zanzotto's poetry is celebrated for its intellectual rigor and inventive style establishing him as a distinctive voice in Italian and international literature The Language of Beauty's Apprentice introduces readers to Zanzotto's works particularly highlighting how his early poems lay the groundwork for his later more complex pieces Zanzotto's early collections reveal a poetic journey rooted in self exploration and the boundaries of language a journey that later explodes with La Belt in 1968 These early works serve not only as an entryway to Zanzotto's literary evolution but also as a metaphorical tale on the possibilities of language and selfhood Here Zanzotto presents language as both a material and paradoxical force a medium for self expression that inherently limits yet also amplifies subjective experience This duality what might be termed linguistic materialism becomes a central theme marking Zanzotto's critique of individual identity and communication as interwoven with communal and linguistic frameworks With La Belt Zanzotto propels this linguistic exploration forward fusing political and social critiques with a richly layered poetic form Drawing from Italian literary tradition and figures such as Leopardi Zanzotto uses language to explore the intersections of personal and collective identities symbolized through metaphors like snow which represent both fleeting stasis and the potential for renewal His 1969 poem Gli sguardi i fatti e senhal inspired by the Apollo 2 moon landing continues this trajectory contrasting humanity's technological conquests with an ecological awareness embodied by the goddess Diana Through these works Zanzotto examines the tensions between beauty language and existential vulnerability in an era fraught with political turmoil and rapid technological advancement His poetry ultimately stands as a profound meditation on the collective and individual implications of language perception and identity in the modern world This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988 Pasolini Stefania Benini,2015-01-01 Benini illuminates the radical politics embedded within Pasolini s adoption of Christian themes Christos Tsiolkas and the Fiction of Critique Andrew McCann,2015-06-15 This is the first theoretically informed study of Tsiolkas s work It follows the arc of his controversial career and explores the tensions between political radicality transgressive sexuality and his more recent commercial success

Pasolini, Fassbinder and Europe Fabio Vighi,2010-08-11 The present collection of essays brings into dialogue Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 and Rainer Werner Fassbinder 1945 1982 by comparing their cultural and intellectual legacy Pasolini and Fassbinder are amongst the last radical filmmakers to have emerged in Europe Born in Italy and Germany they inherited a traumatic social and political past which is reflected in their works through a number of similarly articulated and unresolved tensions high and popular cultures theatre literature and cinema ideology and narration major and minor codes of expression The essays in this book examine the uncompromising character of Pasolini s and Fassbinder s films Constantly oscillating between utopia and nihilism these works invite us to reconsider subjective and collective questions which from today s perspective seem lost forever Allegories of Contamination Patrick Rumble,1996-01-01 Rumble offers a comparative study based on the concept of aesthetic contamination which is fundamental to the understanding of Pasolini s poetics Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey,1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Screening the Tortured Body Mark de Valk,2016-11-11 Inspired by Michel Foucault s examination of state subjugation and control this book considers post structuralist notions of the political technology of the body and the spectacle of the scaffold as a means to analyse cinematic representations of politically motivated persecution and bodily repression Through a critique of sovereign power and its application of punishment for transgressions against the state the collected works herein assess the politicised body via a range of cinematic perspectives Imagery character construction and narrative devices are examined in their account of hegemonic sanctioned torture and suppression as a means to a political outcome Screening The Tortured Body The Cinema as Scaffold elicits philosophical and cultural accounts of the restrained body to deliberate on a range of politicised films and filmmakers whose narratives and mise en sc ne techniques critique corporeal subjugation by authoritarian factions The Worldliness of a Cosmopolitan Education William F. Pinar, 2009-08-04 Pinar positions himself against three pressing problems of the profession the crime of collectivism that identity politics commits the devaluation of academic knowledge by the programmatic preoccupations of teacher education and the effacement of educational experience by standardized testing A cosmopolitan curriculum Pinar argues juxtaposes the abstract and the concrete the collective and the individual history and biography politics and art public service and private passion Such a curriculum provides passages between the subjective and the social and in so doing engenders that worldliness a cosmopolitan education invites Such worldliness is vividly discernible in the lives of three heroic individuals Jane Addams 1860 1935 Laura Bragg 1881 1978 and Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 What these disparate individuals demonstrate is the centrality of subjectivity in the cultivation of cosmopolitanism Subjectivity takes form in the world and the world is itself reconstructed by subjectivity's engagement with it In this intriguing thought provoking and nuanced work Pinar outlines a cosmopolitan curriculum focused on passionate lives in public service providing one set of answers to how the field accepts and attends to the inextricably interwoven relations among intellectual rigor scholarly erudition and intense but variegated engagement with the world
