Piero Della Francesca The Flagellation:

Piero Della Francesca Marilyn Aronberg Lavin, 1990-06-22 Lavin's study of the Piero della Francesca Flagellation at Urbino as befits this exquisite masterpiece is a model of lucid and precise exposition as well as being an exciting exercise of scholarship. Informed with the intellectual rigour of Scholastic exegesis it deserves to be placed with the classic readings of fifteenth and sixteenth century works by Erwin Panofsky and Edgar Wind. Spectator Lavin leaves the picture more wondrous than before a simultaneous triumph of the theological and biographical as well as pictorial imagination. Rackstraw Downes New York Times Book Review

Piero della Francesca: Personal Encounters Christiansen, Keith, 2014-01-13 Prominent Renaissance scholars reveal new insights into Piero's life and work based on a study of his exquisite small panel paintings

The Enigma of Piero Carlo Ginzburg, 2020-05-05 Sifting the available evidence Carlo Ginzburg builds up a vivid portrait of Piero della Francesca's patrons and convincingly explains the contemporary intrigues resonant in his painting. This new edition extensively illustrated includes additional material by Ginzburg dealing with the work of Roberto Longhi, the dating of the Arezzo Cycle and the rediscovery of della Francesca in the twentieth century

Piero della Francesca and the Invention of the Artist Machtelt Brüggen Israëls, 2020-12-25 As one of the most innovative and enlightened painters of the early Italian Renaissance Piero della Francesca brought space, luminosity and unparalleled subtlety to painting. In addition Piero invented the role of the modern artist by becoming a traveler, a courtier, a geometrician, a patron and much else besides. In this nuanced account of this great painter's life and art Machtelt Brüggen Israëls reconstructs how Piero came of age. Successfully demystifying the persistent notion of Piero's art as enigmatic she reveals the simple and stunning intentions behind his work

The Road to Urbino Roma Tearne, 2020-01-14 In this finely crafted novel The Independent Roma Tearne tells the story of a Tamil exile awaiting trial for art thievery. Accomplished painterly New York Times A story of obsession, love and art set in Tuscany, Sri Lanka and London. Ras, a Sri Lankan who fled his country as a child following the violent death of his mother and his father's disappearance, has committed a crime. Dogged by his past and unable to come to terms with the killing of his mother, he struggles to make a new life for himself in the UK

A Childhood Memory by Piero della Francesca Hubert Damisch, 2007 Piero della Francesca's Madonna del Parto, a celebrated fifteenth-century Tuscan fresco in which the Virgin gestures to her partially open dress and her pregnant womb, is highly unusual in its iconography. Hubert Damisch undertakes an anthropological and historical analysis of an artwork he constructs as a childhood dream of one of humanity's oldest preoccupations: the mysteries of our origins, of our conception and birth. At once parodying and paying homage to Freud's seminal essay on Leonardo da Vinci, Damisch uses Piero's enigmatic painting to narrate our archaic memories. He shows that we must return to Freud because work in psychoanalysis and art has not solved the problem of what is being analyzed in the triangle of author, work and audience: where is the psychoanalytic component located?

The Poetics of Perspective James Elkins, 2018-10-18 Perspective has been a divided subject orphaned among various disciplines from philosophy to gardening In the first book to bring together recent thinking on perspective from such fields as art history literary theory aesthetics psychology and the history of mathematics James Elkins leads us to a new understanding of how we talk about pictures Elkins provides an abundantly illustrated history of the theory and practice of perspective Looking at key texts from the Renaissance to the present he traces a fundamental historical change that took place in the way in which perspective was conceptualized first a technique for constructing pictures it slowly became a metaphor for subjectivity That gradual transformation he observes has led to the rifts that today separate those who understand perspective as a historical or formal property of pictures from those who see it as a linguistic cognitive or epistemological metaphor Elkins considers how the principal concepts of perspective have been rewritten in work by Erwin Panofsky Hubert Damisch Martin Jay Paul Ricoeur Jacques Lacan Maurice Merleau Ponty and E H Gombrich The Poetics of Perspective illustrates that perspective is an unusual kind of subject it exists as a coherent idea but no one discipline offers an adequate exposition of it Rather than presenting perspective as a resonant metaphor for subjectivity a painter's tool without meaning a disused historical practice or a model for vision and representation Elkins proposes a comprehensive revaluation The perspective he describes is at once a series of specific pictorial decisions and a powerful figure for our knowledge of the world

Tess Jaray: Piero Inspirations, 2021-02-24 Tess Jaray RA b 1937 Vienna Austria is one of Britain's most distinguished and influential painters 00Jaray works in the abstract tradition for over 50 years she has used painting drawing and printmaking to explore and expand her personal interactions with architectural space mass surface and light 00This publication focuses on a series of new works small format paintings made in response to the frescoes of fifteenth century painter Piero della Francesca 00Jaray's longstanding interest in Piero's depictions of three dimensional space in which biblical scenes are enacted in such a manner that the viewer is invited to actively participate in their narratives arose following a transformative period spent in Italy as a young artist 00Here the artist's paintings are paired with the respective Piero frescos that inspired them along with short extracts from art historian Roberto Longhi's seminal Piero della Francesca publication first published in 1927 chosen by Jaray herself 00Exhibition NewArtCentre Salisbury UK 23 01 10 04 2021 Roger Fry and the Re-evaluation of Piero Della Francesca Caroline Elam, 2004

Although 19th century art historians appreciated Piero della Francesca and Bernard Berenson and Roberto Longhi loom larger in Piero criticism Roger Fry occupies a special place in the shaping of public opinion regarding the painter From the time he first saw the Arezzo frescoes in May 1897 Fry was under the spell of Piero considering him the greatest Italian painter after Giotto Elam says Fry's role was to bring together the taste for Piero in English and Italian collectors with the admiration felt for the painter by 19th century French painters such as Puvis de Chavannes Fry's place as founder of the Omega Workshops and his enthusiasm for Cezanne made his reverence for Piero seem to be a modern taste Using Fry's written work some of it unpublished Elam notes that Fry highly regarded both Piero's handling of paint and perspective and the lack of emotion in his work The latter Fry wrestled with considering it variously a strength and a limitation Fry's own painting has been said to have an intellectual clarity of construction and his Quakerism made him distrust display Perhaps he felt a personal as well as a critical affinity to Piero as a painter This text from a lecture at the Frick Collection notes that Roger Fry advised Henry Clay Frick Rembrandt's Polish Rider and that the Frick owns several Piero related works acquired after Frick's death but asserts no Frick Fry Piero link Memoirs of the Dukes of Urbino, Illustrating the Arms, Arts, and Literature of Italy, from 1440 to 1630 James Dennistoun, 1851
