A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Piers Plowman And The Image Of God:

Piers Plowman and the Image of God Daniel M. Murtaugh, William Langland's Piers Plowman William Langland, George Economou, 1996 A gifted poet has given us an astute adroit vigorous inviting eminently readable translation The challenging gamut of Langland's language has here been rendered with blessed energy and precision Economou has indeed Done Best Allen Mandelbaum Piers Plowman William Langland, 2018-09-07 Piers Plowman By William Langland Written by a fourteenth century cleric this spiritual allegory explores man in relation to his ultimate destiny against the background of teeming colorful medieval life The Image of God and the Manual Arts in "Piers Plowman" Sally Joyce Cross, 1988 Transactions of the American Philosophical Society, The Virtuous Pagan in Middle English Literature Cindy L. Vitto, 1989 For pious Christians of every age the question of ultimate concern has been salvation What is necessary to ensure the soul's eternal bliss During the Middle Ages within the Church itself the guidelines were clear baptism reception of the sacraments an attempt to put into practice the teachings of Christ But a theological debate arose on the possibility of salvation for those outside the Church who fell into two basic categories those who had been offered the Christian faith but had refused it the Virtuous Pagan in legend St Erkenwald's Harrowing of Hell Piers Plowman Issues in Salvation the Harrowing as Thematic Climax The Mystical Gesture Robert Boenig, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 These essays explore the spiritual culture shared by texts and writers in Western Europe from the 13th to 17th centuries the visionaries mystics and nuns who were poets or scholars and the creative writers who drew on spiritual themes The topics range chronologically from the late 13th to late 17th centuries and geographically from Germany England Italy France Spain and New Spain Mexico though the volume's centre is the spiritual culture of 16th century Spain Common concerns of each essay are the exploration of spiritual culture how some texts and writers shape expectations attending the life of the spirit and how they are in turn shaped by them The sub themes many of the essays share are the gendering of spiritual culture and the relationship between traditional literary genres like poetry and drama and spiritual discourse Each text or spiritual figure covered here has a distinctive spiritual voice a mystical gesture that contributes an individual mysticism to the common spiritual culture they all share Each scholar in her or his own way defines this mystical gesture The essays analyze Mechthild von Magdburg Piers Plowman The Second Shepherd's Play Catherine of Siena Bernardo de Laredo Teresa of Avila Alonso de la Fuente Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza Cecilia de nacimiento Margaret Mary Alaconque and Sor Juana Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt, 2023-03-21 In Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt argues that late medieval dream poetry was able to use the tools of allegorical fiction to explore a set of complex philosophical questions regarding the nature of human knowledge The focus is on three of the most widely read and influential poems of the later Middle Ages Jean de Meun's Roman de la Rose the Pelerinages trilogy of Guillaume de Deguileville and William Langland's vision of Piers Plowman in its various versions All three poets grapple with a collection of shared closely related epistemological problems that emerged in Western Europe during the thirteenth century in the wake of the reception of the complete body of Aristotle's works on logic and the natural sciences. This study therefore not only examines the intertextual and literary historical relations linking the work of the three poets but takes their shared interest in cognition and epistemology as a starting point to assess their wider cultural and intellectual significance in the context of broader developments in late medieval philosophy of mind, knowledge and language. Vernacular literature more broadly played an extremely important role in lending an enlarged cultural resonance to philosophical ideas developed by scholastic thinkers but it is also shown that allegorical narrative could prompt philosophical speculation on its own terms deliberately interrogating the dominance and authority of scholastic discourses and institutions by using first person fictional narrative as a tool for intellectual speculation.

Consolation in Medieval Narrative C. Schrock, 2015-05-13. Medieval writers such as Chaucer, Abelard and Langland often overlaid personal story and sacred history to produce a distinct narrative form. The first of its kind, this study traces this widely used narrative tradition to Augustine's two great histories, Confessions and City of God. Medieval Latin and Middle English Literature Jill Mann, Christopher Cannon, Maura Nolan, 2011. Fresh and provocative approaches to the literature of the middle ages offering close readings of texts from Chaucer to Henryson and beast fable to devotional works. Jill Mann's writing, teaching and scholarship have transformed our understanding of two distinct fields: medieval Latin and Middle

English literature as well as their intersection Essays in this volume seek to honour this achievement by looking at entirely new aspects of these fields the relationship of song to affect the political valence of classical allusion the Latin background of Middle English devotional texts Others look again at the literary kinds and ideas most important in Mann s own work beast fable the nature of allegory the nature of nature the relationship of economic thought and literature satire language as a subject for poetry in the poets she has been most drawn to Chaucer Langland Henryson All of the essays involve close readings of the most careful kind taking as their primary method Professor Mann s repeated injunction to attend above all to the words on the page Christopher Cannon is Professor of English New York University Maura Nolan is Associate Professor of English University of California Berkeley Contributors Siobhain Bly Calkin Christopher Cannon Rebecca Davis Peter Dronke A S G Edwards Elizabeth B Edwards Maura Nolan Paul J Patterson Derek Pearsall Ad Putter Paul Gerhard Schmidt James Simpson Barry Windeatt Nicolette Zeeman Encounters with God in Medieval and Early Modern English Poetry Charlotte Clutterbuck, 2017-07-05 Engaging with four English poems or groups of poems the anonymous medieval Crucifixion lyrics William Langland s Piers Plowman John Donne s Divine Poems and John Milton s Paradise Lost this book examines the nature of poetic encounter with God At the same time the author makes original contributions to the discussion of critical dilemmas in the study of each poem or group of poems The main linguistic focus of this book is on the nature of dialogue with God in religious poetry an area much neglected by grammarians and often overlooked in studies of literary style It constitutes an important contribution to our understanding of the relationship between literature and theology Transactions of the American Philosophical Society American Philosophical Society, 1989 The Vision of William Concerning Piers the Plowman William Langland, 1923
