Pijin A Trilingual Cultural Dictionary:

Pijin Christine Jourdan, 2002 Cultural Keywords in Discourse Carsten Levisen, Sophia Waters, 2017-10-15 Cultural keywords are words around which whole discourses are organised They are culturally revealing difficult to translate and semantically diverse They capture how speakers have paid attention to the worlds they live in and embody socially recognised ways of thinking and feeling The book contributes to a global turn in cultural keyword studies by exploring keywords from discourse communities in Australia Brazil Hong Kong Japan Melanesia Mexico and Scandinavia Providing new case studies the volume showcases the diversity of ways in which cultural logics form and shape discourse The Natural Semantic Metalanguage NSM approach is used as a unifying framework for the studies This approach offers an attractive methodology for doing explorative discourse analysis on emic and culturally sensitive grounds Cultural Keywords in Discourse will be of interest to researchers and students of semantics pragmatics cultural discourse studies linguistic ethnography and intercultural communication Multi-disciplinary Lexicography Olga M. Karpova, Faina I. Kartashkova, 2014-08-11 The present book is based on presentations made during the IXth International School on Lexicography Multi disciplinary Lexicography Traditions and Challenges of the XXIst Century at Ivanovo State University September 8 10 2011 and continues a series of collective monographs devoted to the theoretical and practical problems of lexicography published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing in 2007 2009 and 2010 The scope of topics discussed in four parts Dictionary as a Cross road of Language and Culture Dictionary Use and Dictionary Criticism Terminology and LSP Studies and Projects of New Dictionaries is rather wide and focuses on burning problems of European Russian and world lexicography as well as on projects of new dictionaries This book will be of interest to theoreticians practitioners and students of linguistic faculties Understanding Pragmatics Gunter Senft, 2014-01-21 Understanding Pragmatics takes an interdisciplinary approach to provide an accessible introduction to linguistic pragmatics. This book discusses how the meaning of utterances can only be understood in relation to overall cultural social and interpersonal contexts as well as to culture specific conventions and the speech events in which they are embedded From a cross linguistic and cross cultural perspective this book debates the core issues of pragmatics such as speech act theory conversational implicature deixis gesture interaction strategies ritual communication phatic communion linguistic relativity ethnography of speaking ethnomethodology conversation analysis languages and social classes and linguistic ideologies incorporates examples from a broad variety of different languages and cultures takes an innovative and transdisciplinary view of the field showing linguistic pragmatics has its predecessor in other disciplines such as philosophy psychology ethology ethnology sociology and the political sciences Written by an experienced teacher and researcher this introductory textbook is essential reading for all students studying pragmatics Postcolonial Semantics Carsten Levisen, 2024-04-01 Global knowledge production increasingly happens through one particular language modern Anglo English What does the Anglocentric reliance of English words and phrases mean for the way we make claims formulate research questions and develop theories In this monograph these questions are scrutinized and explored through Postcolonial Semantics a new framework that draws on advances in postcolonial linguistics and cognitive cultural semantics Through original semantic work on Bislama words and Urban Pacific concepts each chapter provides alternatives to Anglocentric linguistic framings of knowledge in the domains of language communication sociology psychology and geopolitics Highlighting the pluriversality of meaning making and the multipolarity of knowledge the book speaks into central themes in semantics including the question of metalanguage and the representation of meaning as well as contact zone semantics and the colonial matrix of power All analyses are provided in both English and Bislama through a translatable semantic metalanguage of shared human concepts Apart from semanticists and postcolonial language scholars the monograph is of interest to researchers and research students in fields such as World Englishes creole studies linguistic anthropology intercultural pragmatics and global discourse studies Pidgin and Creole Languages [eff Siegel, 2008-02-28 This book examines the emergence of pidgins and creoles and the controversies surrounding current theories about them Among the questions considered are why their grammars are simple at the pidgin creole postcreole life cycle and the causes of grammatical innovation. The analysis is supported with detailed examples and case studies Pidgins, Creoles and Mixed Languages Viveka Velupillai, 2015-04-15 This lucid and theory neutral introduction to the study of pidgins creoles and mixed languages covers both theoretical and empirical issues pertinent to the field of contact linguistics Part I presents the theoretical background with chapters devoted to the definition of terms the sociohistorical settings theories on the genesis of pidgins and creoles as well as discussions on language variation and the sociology of language Part II empirically tests assumptions made about the linguistic characteristics of pidgins and creoles by systematically comparing them with other natural languages in all linguistic domains This is the first introduction that consistently applies the findings of the Atlas of Pidgin and Creole Language Structures and systematically includes extended pidgins and mixed languages in the discussion of each linguistic feature. The book is designed for students of courses with a focus on pidgins creoles and mixed languages as well as typologically oriented courses on contact linguistics Pijin Christine Jourdan, 2002 Creoles, Their Substrates, and Language Typology Claire Lefebvre, 2011-01-01 Since creole languages draw their properties from both their substrate and superstrate sources the typological classification of creoles has long been a major issue for creolists typologists and linguists in general Several contradictory proposals have been put forward in the literature For example creole languages typologically pair with their superstrate languages Chaudenson 2003 with their substrate languages Lefebvre 1998 or even creole languages are alike Bickerton 1984 such that they constitute a definable typological class McWhorter 1998 This book contains 25 chapters bearing on detailed comparisons of some 30 creoles and their substrate languages As the substrate languages of these creoles are typologically different the detailed investigation of substrate features in the creoles leads to a particular answer to the question of how creoles should be classified typologically The bulk of the data show that creoles reproduce the typological features of their substrate languages This argues that creoles cannot be claimed to constitute a definable The Handbook of Language Contact Raymond Hickey, 2020-09-01 The second edition of the definitive reference on contact studies and linguistic change provides extensive new research and original case studies Language contact is a dynamic area of contemporary linguistic research that studies how language changes when speakers of different languages interact Accessibly structured into three sections The Handbook of Language Contact explores the role of contact studies within the field of linguistics the value of contact studies for language change research and the relevance of language contact for sociolinguistics This authoritative volume presents original findings and fresh research directions from an international team of prominent experts Thirty seven specially commissioned chapters cover a broad range of topics and case studies of contact from around the world Now in its second edition this valuable reference has been extensively updated with new chapters on topics including globalization language acquisition creolization code switching and genetic classification Fresh case studies examine Romance Indo European African Mayan and many other languages in both the past and the present Addressing the major issues in the field of language contact studies this volume Includes a representative sample of individual studies which re evaluate the role of language contact in the broader context of language and society Offers 23 new chapters written by leading scholars Examines language contact in different societies including many in Africa and Asia Provides a cross section of case studies drawing on languages across the world The Handbook of Language Contact Second Edition is an indispensable resource for researchers scholars and students involved in language contact language variation and change sociolinguistics bilingualism and language theory Language Description, History and Development Jeff Siegel, John Lynch, Diana Eades, 2007-03-14 This volume in memory of Terry Crowley covers a wide range of languages Australian Oceanic Pidgins and Creoles and varieties of English Part I Linguistic Description and Typology includes chapters on topics such as complex predicates and verb serialization noun incorporation possessive classifiers diphthongs accent patterns modals in Australian English and directional terms in atoll based languages Part II Historical Linguistics and Linguistic History ranges from the reconstruction of Australian languages to reflexes of Proto Oceanic to the lexicon of early Melanesian Pidgin Part III Language Development and Linguistic Applications comprises studies of lexicography language in education and language endangerment and language revival spanning the Pacific from South Australia and New Zealand to Melanesia and on to Colombia The volume will whet the appetite of anyone interested in the latest linguistic research in this richly multilingual part of the globe Language Complexity Matti Miestamo, Kaius Sinnemäki, Fred Karlsson, 2008 Language complexity has recently attracted considerable attention from linguists of many different persuasions This volume a thematic selection of papers from the conference Approaches to Complexity in Language held in Helsinki August 2005 is the first collection of articles devoted to the topic The sixteen chapters of the volume approach the notion of language complexity from a variety of perspectives The papers are divided into three thematic sections that reflect the central themes of the book Typology and theory Contact and change Creoles and pidgins The book is mainly intended for typologists historical linguists contact linguists and creolists as well as all linguists interested in language complexity in general As the first collective volume on a very topical theme the book is expected to be of lasting interest to the linguistic community Grammar of Savosavo Claudia Wegener, 2012-10-30 This is the first comprehensive description of Savosavo a non Austronesian Papuan language spoken by approximately 2 500 speakers on Savo Island Solomon Islands Based on primary field data recorded by the author it provides an overview of all levels of grammar In addition a full chapter is dedicated to nominalization of verbs by means of one particular suffix which occur in a number of constructions ranging from lexical to syntactic nominalization The appendix provides glossed example texts and a list of lexemes The Digitizing Family Geoffrey Hobbis, 2020-02-07 At once a digital ethnography of smartphones and a classically conceived village based ethnography this book relocates the study of digital technologies to rural Melanesia with a focus on the Lau of Malaita Soloman Islands In this technography Geoffrey Hobbis studies the materiality and functional attributes of smartphones and their object biographies modes of acquisition maintenance uses limitations and the problems specific to this region in adopting and adapting smartphones in everyday life As he examines the various uses of smartphones as both telephone and multimedia device Hobbis also explores the social and cultural transformations the hopes and uncertainties with which they are associated Ultimately in bringing together a study of digital technologies with classical anthropological theory The Digitizing Family develops a theory of smartphones as kinship technologies and supercompositional objects and Social Justice Kathleen C. Riley, Bernard C. Perley, Inmaculada M. García-Sánchez, 2024-02-22 Language whether spoken written or signed is a powerful resource that is used to facilitate social justice or undermine it The first reference resource to use an explicitly global lens to explore the interface between language and social justice this volume expands our understanding of how language symbolizes frames and expresses political economic and psychic problems in society thus contributing to visions for social justice Investigating specific case studies in which language is used to instantiate and or challenge social injustices each chapter provides a unique perspective on how language carries value and enacts power by presenting the historical contexts and ethnographic background for understanding how language engenders and or negotiates specific social justice issues Case studies are drawn from Africa Asia Europe North and South America and the Pacific Islands with leading experts tackling a broad range of themes such as equality sovereignty communal well being and the recognition of complex intersectional identities and relationships within and beyond the human world Putting issues of language and social justice on a global stage and casting light on these processes in communities increasingly impacted by ongoing colonial neoliberal and neofascist forms of globalization Language and Social Justice is an essential resource for anyone interested in this area of research Anthropological Considerations of Production, Exchange, Vending and Tourism Donald C. Wood, 2017-08-25 Volume 37 of REA features eleven original articles organized in four different sections each focusing on a specific popular and significant theme in economic anthropology production exchange vending and tourism
