Pilgrim People Learning Through The Church Year:

A Pilgrim People John H. Westerhoff, 2005-02-01 As a people whose faith is formed and nourished by the Bible's stories of creation and fall, salvation and redemption, Christians hunger to order their lives by the church's story and their own. Our journey to God leads us through the cycle of the church year from Advent and Christmas to Easter and the season called ordinary time as we tell and retell God's story and make it the story we live by. In A Pilgrim People, John Westerhoff looks at the gospel texts season by season and relates their teachings not only to Christian life and ministry but to the life cycle of childhood, adolescence, and adulthood. In teaching the lessons of the church year, Westerhoff starts not with Advent but with Holy Week and Easter, which marks the birth of Christian faith and its vision of a dream come true. Commenting briefly on each of the gospel readings for each Sunday, he moves from Eastertide through Ascension and Pentecost, the season after Pentecost, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, and Lent, offering useful themes for preaching and education. The final chapter incorporates a radical proposal for Christian education to reform the church's organization, worship, education, and outreach.

The Church David Zac Niringiye, 2014-12-14 In this day when Christians and churches are widely dispersed throughout the world, the question "Who is the church?" could easily be dismissed as irrelevant. In this publication, Bishop David Zac Niringiye pleads that as Jesus warned, we should not be in haste to conclude that any community with religious titles or forms and who speaks the right language of Lord is authentic church. Taking his cue from Hebrews 11 and 12, the author addresses the motif of the people of God, looking first at the ancient people of Israel, beginning with Moses, then the new Israel and the covenant in Christ, born through the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, and finally the life of the new community, the church, during the apostolic era. Through this biblical journey, it is made clear that as the pilgrim people of God and the new community in Christ, we must be marked by faith, love, and hope, looking forward to the full consummation of the kingdom of God, justice, peace, and joy, fully realized when the new heaven and the new earth, where righteousness dwells (2 Peter 3:13), is inaugurated.

A Pilgrim People Gerald Schlabach, 2019 Explores the trend in Roman Catholic teaching toward a commitment to active non-violence and how to become a truly catholic global peace church in which peacemaking is church-wide and parish-deep. Catholics should recognize that they have always properly been a diaspora people with an identity that transcends tribe and nation-state.

Seasons and Feasts of the Church Year Michael D. Whalen, 2004-10-15 This book provides an introduction to and history of the liturgical year, followed by a discussion of each of the major cycles. Each chapter includes questions for personal reflection or group discussion.

A Pilgrim in a Pilgrim Church Rembert Weakland, 2009-06 For many people, the name of Archbishop Rembert Weakland brings to mind only connotations of scandal: the titillating tale of a prominent priest disgraced. But that whiff of dishonor barely begins to tell the whole story. In these pages, Archbishop Weakland recounts his life from his childhood in rural Pennsylvania to his retirement from the archbishopric in 2002, at the age of 75, all in the context of the Church that he long served. Weakland takes readers with him to Rome where he discovered the splendor of a whole new intellectual world and then to New York for his extensive musical study at Juilliard and Columbia University From his early days in the priesthood to his struggles with pontiffs Weakland details how he learned to become a leader and minister to his people and how his famously liberal beliefs affected his ministry While he presents an honest account of the scandal he is so often recognized for the complete picture beyond rumor and accusation may come as a surprise to many readers Throughout his memoir Weakland describes with poignant honesty his psychological spiritual and sexual growth Candid and engaging A Pilgrim in a Pilgrim Church offers a fascinating inside look at both Pope Paul VI and Pope John Paul II even as it tells the story of a life fully lived Interdependence HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2018-05-31 This book calls attention to an urgent need for postcolonial feminist approaches to practical theology It not only advocates for the inclusion of colonialism as a critical optic for practical theology but also demands a close look at how colonialism is entangled with issues of race ethnicity gender class disability and sexual orientation Seeking to highlight the importance of the interdependence of life the author challenges and contests the notion of independence as the desirable goal of the human being Lifting up the experiences of overlooked groups including children at adult centered worship queer and interracial youth in heterosexual and white normative family discourse and non human species in human centered academic and theological realms the book contributes to expanding the concerns of practical theology in ways that create healthy community for all human beings and non human fellow creatures It also takes up issues of multiple religious belonging and migration that practical theology has not sufficiently explored These illuminating new possibilities promise to renew and even transform church communities through the inclusion of often neglected groups with whom God is already present The End of the Beginning Johanna W. H. van Wijk-Bos, 2019-11-19 The End of the Beginning presents a chapter by chapter interpretation of Joshua and Judges based on the author's translation Johanna van Wijk Bos accompanies the reader through the story of Israel from the entry into Canaan up to the time of Samuel van Wijk Bos weaves together the memories of ancient Israel's past into a story that speaks to the traumatic context of postexilic Judah The books of Joshua and Judges were written for education edification and entertainment Some of the stories may exhilarate us some may appall all will speak to the imagination if we let them They show a people forging a path forward into an uncertain future in the hope that God will forgive past failures and begin again with them Christians enter the stories of Israel's past as outsiders while at the same time claiming a bond with the same God We expect more from the text than lessons of the past intended for a different people These are not our stories but we too hope for insight and for a guiding word in our own uncertain future This is the first volume of A People and a Land a multi volume work on the historical books of Joshua Judges Samuel and Kings Teaching the Next Generations Terry Linhart, 2016-10-18 How Ministers Can Be Excellent and Effective Teachers Effective teaching is important not only to the Christian faith but to the success and impact of Christian ministry This book champions the role of teaching as a necessary skill for ministers to develop equipping them to work effectively for the spiritual growth of young people Terry Linhart who has more than twenty five years of experience training youth workers brings together expert Christian educators representing a broad array of evangelical institutions and traditions to show how teaching connects to discipleship and the church in current contexts Designed for the classroom the book covers a wide range of topics and includes helpful illustrative diagrams tables line drawings and charts Military Chaplains' Review,1983

I Can Do No Other Anna M. Madsen,2019-10-01 Author Anna M Madsen s book is a fresh and challenging look at the legacy of Martin Luther and the new reformation that is calling people of faith to action today This book is born out of the conviction that at least two gods are currently competing for our collective trust nationalism and its many sub manifestations and quietism Both make a case for and a claim on our allegiance each by way of different motivations of self and institutional protection Madsen looks at today s modern context and asks Where will the church stand in a day that is marked by globalization polarization racism bigotry and debates about justice for humanity and for the earth itself While the Reformation church was built on the foundation of justification by grace Madsen calls people of faith to a new reformation that will focus on standing for justice in the world Madsen delves into who Jesus was and how our claim that he died and was raised establishes our faith and impacts the way we live it out She pays attention to Luther s theology and juxtaposes it with our present context She explores recent examples of Nazi resistance liberation theology black and womanist theology and feminist theology each of which come at social justice in their unique ways with a common conviction that justice work is central to the Christian life She speaks of how our faith grounding and our faith history weave together and entwine themselves into our present moment offering both warnings and encouragement And last a case is made that justice anchored in justification is our new Reformation moment one not inconsistent with Luther s theology but weighted differently to address the different weighty concerns of our day A study guide is included to encourage group conversation and action

Teaching the Way of Jesus Jack L. Seymour,2014-03-18 Christian religious education provides the content processes and settings to empower the church s mission in the world a mission that includes health care peace with justice and disciple making ministries Today the field Christian Education is clear about its tasks of helping form and nurture faith that is then embodied in faithful practices Research studies on Christian faith practices show how participating in Christian community undergirds and complements thoughtful living through one s life With an emphasis on practices and mission this book offers readers concrete ways to empower vital faith formation in congregations as it describes current trends which include richer diversity entrepreneurial spirit and interfaith dialog This book will also help prepare students for leadership in the Church universal and in the field of Christian Education

Speaking to the Soul Vicki K. Black,2009-10-01 The flourishing website EpiscopalCafe.org produced by the Diocese of Washington attracts several thousand visitors a day Its popular column Speaking to the Soul which contains a concise well developed spiritual reflection for every day of the year draws from many different sources including scripture church history saints biographies books of prayers liturgies and ancient and contemporary theologians and spiritual writers This daily reader grew out of that column It follows the Episcopal Church's liturgical seasons and includes observation of major feast days as well as saints days The reading for a particular saint's day might be taken from the saint's writings prayers or biography or might develop a theme such as martyrdom or growth in the spirit Other readings focus on particular emphases of the seasons the Incarnation during Advent and Christmas spiritual disciplines during Lent or speak more generally to the Christian life prayer discipleship ministry the sacraments conflict and reconciliation and so on Readings are taken from every century of the church's life with particular attention to how the writings and experiences of earlier Christians can shed light on the difficulties joys and concerns of the church today Excerpts are long enough to give a satisfying and complete context of the writer's intended meaning Everlasting Light Sandy Dixon, 2013-10-30 This collection of litanies candlelighting services a hanging of the greens service and more offers worship resources for the three years of lectionary reading for Advent including the Sunday after Christmas Crafting of Liturgy Daniel B. Stevick, 1990 Teaching from the Heart Mary Elizabeth Moore, 1998-01-01 Here is a serious and passionate plea for theology and education to stand in relationship Moore argues for an organic approach to religious moral and theological education Get Ready! Get Set! Worship! Jean Floyd Love, Mickey Meyers, Sylvia Washer, 1998-01-01 Through an array of study exercises learning centers and games this resource enables congregations to teach children about worship baptism and communion The Pilgrim's Progress John Bunyan, 1678 The Land and Its Kings Johanna W. H. van Wijk-Bos, 2020-07-14 In The Land and Its Kings biblical scholar Johanna van Wijk Bos accompanies the reader across a large sweep of the story of Israel from the end of King David's reign through the fall of Jerusalem approximately 400 years later She views these memories of Israel's past as they are woven together in Kings from the perspective of the traumatic context of postexilic Judah Van Wijk Bos writes as a scholar of the Bible with deep commitments to feminism and issues of gender within patriarchal structures and ideologies The voices and presence of women in the accounts receive special attention As in the previous volumes of A People and a Land van Wijk Bos offers a close reading of the Hebrew text in translation to reacquaint readers with the path taken by Israel as the people embraced a form of monarchy subsequently compromised their allegiance to God and were ultimately exiled from the land She presents the multiplicity of voices which the collectors of this material let stand as an essential part of the complex history of their community Van Wijk Bos invites readers to enter into the text with questions and to find a way forward to draw closer to the presence of the Most Holy

Special Times Betty Jo Middleton, 1994 Slavery's Long Shadow James L. Gorman, Jeff W. Childers, Mark W. Hamilton, 2019-02-12 How interactions of race and religion have influenced unity and division in the church At the center of the story of American Christianity lies an integral connection between race relations and Christian unity Despite claims that Jesus Christ transcends all racial barriers the most segregated hour in America is still Sunday mornings when Christians gather for worship In Slavery's Long Shadow fourteen historians and other scholars examine how the sobering historical realities of race relations and Christianity have created both unity and division within American churches from the 1790s into the twenty first century The book s three sections offer readers three different entry points into the conversation major historical periods case studies and ways forward Historians as well as Christians interested in racial reconciliation will find in this book both help for understanding the problem and hope for building a better future Contributors Tanya Smith Brice Joel A Brown Lawrence A Q Burnley Jeff W Childers Wes Crawford James L Gorman Richard T Hughes Loretta Hunnicutt Christopher R Hutson Kathy Pulley Edward J Robinson Kamilah Hall Sharp Jerry Taylor D Newell Williams
