Modernity and Culture Leila Fawaz, C. A. Bayly, 2002-05-15 Between the 1890s and 1920s cities in the vast region stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to the Indian Ocean were experiencing political social economic and cultural changes that had been set in motion at least since the early nineteenth century As the age of pre colonial empires gave way to colonial and national states there was a sense that a particular liberalism of culture and economy had been irretrievably lost to a more intolerant age

Avoiding such dichotomies as East West and modernity tradition this book provides a comparative analysis of contested versions of the concept of modernity The book examines not only the high culture of scholars and the literati but also popular music the visual arts and journalism The contributors incorporate discussion of the way in which the business in both commodities and ideas was conducted in the increasingly cosmopolitan cities of the time in the Pre-Modern Islamic World Amira K. Bennison, Alison L. Gascoigne, 2007-08-07 Wide range of case studies across the Islamic world Provides a new interdisciplinary perspective on the Islamic city Well illustrated with maps and photographs The mix of contributors is good from well established and highly respected academics to younger upcoming talents The issue of urbanism in the Islamic world is an enduringly popular area of study and investigation The Politics of Iconoclasm James Noyes, 2013-09-10 From false idols and graven images to the tombs of kings and the shrines of capitalism the targeted destruction of cities sacred sites and artefacts for religious political or nationalistic reasons is central to our cultural legacy This book examines the different traditions of image breaking in Christianity and Islam as well as their development into nominally secular movements and paints a vivid scholarly picture of a culture of destruction encompassing Protestantism Wahhabism and Nationalism Beginning with a comparative account of Calvinist Geneva and Wahhabi Mecca The Politics of Iconoclasm explores the religious and political agendas behind acts of image breaking and their relation to nationhood and state building From sixteenth century Geneva to urban developments in Mecca today The Politics of Iconoclasm explores the history of image breaking the culture of violence and its paradoxical roots in the desire for renewal Examining these dynamics of nationhood technology destruction and memory a historical journey is described in which the temple is razed and replaced by the machine Russian Hajj Eileen Kane, 2015-11-02 In the late nineteenth century as a consequence of imperial conquest and a mobility revolution Russia became a crossroads of the hajj the annual Muslim pilgrimage to Mecca The first book in any language on the hajj under tsarist and Soviet rule Russian Hajj tells the story of how tsarist officials struggled to control and co opt Russia s mass hajj traffic seeing it not only as a liability but also an opportunity To support the hajj as a matter of state surveillance and control was controversial given the preeminent position of the Orthodox Church But nor could the hajj be ignored or banned due to Russia s policy of toleration of Islam As a cross border migratory phenomenon the hajj stoked officials fears of infectious disease Islamic revolt and interethnic conflict but Kane innovatively argues that it also generated new thinking within the government about the utility of the empire s Muslims and their global networks Russian Hajj reveals for the first time Russia s sprawling international hajj infrastructure complete with lodging houses consulates Hejaz steamships and direct rail service In a story meticulously reconstructed from scattered fragments ranging from archival documents and hajj memoirs to Turkic language newspapers Kane argues that Russia built its hajj infrastructure not simply to control and limit the pilgrimage as previous scholars have argued but to channel it to benefit the state and empire Russian patronage of the hajj was also about capitalizing on human mobility to capture new revenues for the state and its transport companies and laying claim to Islamic networks to justify Russian expansion Encyclopedia of the Ottoman Empire Ga'bor A'goston, Bruce Alan Masters, 2010-05-21 Presents a comprehensive A to Z reference to the empire that once encompassed large parts of the modern day Middle East North Africa and southeastern Europe
