Pilgrims Guide To Planet Earth:

A Pilgrim's Guide to Planet Earth Parmatma Khalsa, Wildwood House, Limited, 1981     A Pilgrim's Guide to Planet Earth, 1981     A Pilgrims Guide to Planet Earth Wildwood House, Limited, 1981-01-01     A Pilgrim's Guide to Planet Earth, 1974     Looking for Mary Magdalene Anna Fedele, 2013 Anna Fedele provides a detailed ethnography of alternative pilgrimages to Catholic shrines in contemporary France that are dedicated to Saint Mary Magdalene or house black Madonna statues Based on more than three years of fieldwork it describes the way in which pilgrims with a Christian background from Italy Spain Britain and the United States interpret Catholic figures symbols and sites according to spiritual theories and practices derived from the transnational Neopagan movement     Facing the Wild Chilla Bulbeck, 2012-06-25 What do wild animals mean to humans Will they survive both rampant habitat loss and extinction caused by human encroachment and as ecotourists our enthusiasm for them With ecotourism now the fastest growing segment of tourism and encounters with wild animals be it swimming with dolphins going on safari or bird watching ever more popular these are critical questions Yet until now little has been known about why people crave encounters with wild animals and the meaning for the ecotourism industry conservation efforts and society at large Facing the Wild is the first serious empirical examination of why people seek out animals in their natural environment what the desire for this experience tells us about the meanings of animals nature authenticity and wilderness in contemporary industrialized societies and whether visitors change their environmental perspectives and behaviour as the custodians of wildlife parks would like them to The book explores the contradictions and ambivalence that so many people experience in the presence of wild nature in loving it we may diminish it and in the act of wanting to see it we may destroy it Ultimately the book makes a case for respectful stewardship of a hybrid nature and provides insight for both practitioners and ecotourists alike     Claiming Sacred Ground Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2001-07-26 Claiming Sacred Ground Pilgrims and Politics at Glastonbury and Sedona Adrian J Ivakhiv A study of people and politics at two New Age spiritual sites In this richly textured account Adrian Ivakhiv focuses on the activities of pilgrim migrants to Glastonbury England and Sedona Arizona He discusses their efforts to encounter and experience the spirit or energy of the land and to mark out its significance by investing it with sacred meanings Their endeavors are presented against a broad canvas of cultural and environmental struggles associated with the incorporation of such geographically marginal places into an expanding global cultural economy Ivakhiv sees these contested and heterotopic landscapes as the nexus of a complex web of interest and longings from millennial anxieties and nostalgic re imaginings of history and prehistory to real estate power grabs contending religious visions and the free play of ideas from science pseudo science and popular culture Looming over all this is the nonhuman life of these landscapes another that alternately reveals and conceals itself behind a pageant of beliefs images and place myths A significant contribution to scholarship on alternative spirituality sacred space and the politics of natural landscapes Claiming Sacred Ground will interest scholars and students of environmental and cultural studies and the sociology of religious movements and pilgrimage Non specialist readers will be stimulated by the cultural ecological and spiritual dimensions of extraordinary natural landscapes Adrian Ivakhiv teaches in the Faculty of Environmental Studies at York University in Toronto and is President of the Environmental Studies Association of Canada April 2001 384 pages 24 b w photos 2 figs 9 maps 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 index append cloth 0 253 33899 9 37 40 s 28 50 Contents I DEPARTURES 1 Power and Desire in Earth s Tangled Web 2 Reimagining Earth 3 Orchestrating Sacred Space II Glastonbury 4 Stage Props and Players of Avalon 5 Many Glastonburys Place Myths and Contested Spaces III SEDONA 6 Red Rocks to Real Estate 7 New Agers Vortexes and the Sacred Landscape IV ARRIVALS 8 Practices of Place Nature and Heterotopia Beyond the New Age Handbook of New Age Daren Kemp,James R. Lewis,2007 The Handbook of New Age is a comprehensive survey of alternative spiritualities their history their global impact their cultural influence and how they are understood by scholars Chapters by many of the leading scholars of the movement give the latest analysis of contemporary spiritual trends and present up to date observations of the interaction between the New Age movement and many different fields of knowledge and research The Cumulative Book Index ,1981 A world list of books in the English language

Race Matters Gillian Cowlishaw,Barry Morris,1997 Annotation pending A Sacred Vertigo Deana L. Weibel,2022-02-14 Deana L Weibel explains the shifting identities of Rocamadour a medieval Black Madonna shrine turned tourist attraction which enchants both the devout and secular Weibel analyzes how locals and visitors compete to define Rocamadour arguing that the unusual properties of the cliff hanging site make it a prize worth fighting for Spiritual Community Guide [for North America ,1973 Pilgrimage and Healing Jill Dubisch,Michael Winkelman,2022-08-09 Bikers converge at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D C Thousands flock to a Nevada desert to burn a towering effigy And the hopeless but hopeful ill journey to Lourdes as they have for centuries Although pilgrimage may seem an antiquated religious ritual it remains a vibrant activity in the modern world as pilgrims combine traditional motives such as seeking a cure for physical or spiritual problems with contemporary searches for identity or interpersonal connection That pilgrimage continues to exercise such a strong attraction is testimony to the power it continues to hold for those who undertake these sacred journeys This volume brings together anthropological and interdisciplinary perspectives on these persistent forms of popular religion to expand our understanding of the role of the traditional practice of pilgrimage in what many believe to be an increasingly secular world Focusing on the healing dimensions of pilgrimage the authors present case studies grounded in specific cultures and pilgrimage traditions to help readers understand the many therapeutic resources pilgrimage provides for people around the world The chapters examine a variety of pilgrimage forms both religious and non religious from Nepalese and Huichol shamanism pilgrimage to Catholic journeys to shrines and feast days to Nevada s Burning Man festival These diverse cases suggest a range of meanings embodied in the concept of healing itself from curing physical ailments and redefining the self to redressing social suffering and healing the wounds of the past Collectively and individually the chapters raise important questions about the nature of ritual in general and healing through pilgrimage in particular and seek to illuminate why so many participants find pilgrimage a compelling way to address the problem of suffering. They also illustrate how pilgrimage exerts its social and political influence at the personal local and national levels as well as providing symbols and processes that link people across social and spiritual boundaries. By examining the persistence of pilgrimage as a significant source of personal engagement with spirituality, Pilgrimage and Healing shows that the power of pilgrimage lies in its broad transformative powers. As our world increasingly adopts a secular and atheistic perspective in many domains of experience, it reminds us that for many, spiritual quest remains a potent force. Sites and Politics of Religious Diversity in Southern Europe Ruy Blanes, José Mapril, 2013-07-11. In recent years the Southern borders of Europe have become landmarks for the mediatic and academic verve regarding the migration and diasporas towards and beyond Schengen Europe. In these debates religion is acknowledged as playing a central role in the recognition of major societal changes in the continent, being object of political concern and attention from the recognition of plural forms of Christianity to the debates on a European Islam. Yet in this respect what goes on around the borders of Portugal, Spain, Italy or Greece is still largely uncharted and un-debated. With the contribution of renowned anthropologists, sociologists and religious studies scholars, this book critically presents and discusses case studies on the sites and politics of religious diversity in Southern Europe, including the impact of migrant religiosity in national and EU politics. Contributors include Anna Fedele, Barbara Bertolani, Clara Saraiva, Cristina Sanchez Carretero, Ester Gallo, Eugenia Roussou, Fabio Peroco, Inam Leghari, Jos Mapril, Katerine Seraidari, Maria Del Mar Grier, Manuela Canton Delgado, Nora Repo, Ramon Sarr, Ruy Blanes, Sandra Santos, Silvia Sai, Trine Staunig, Willert and Virtudes Tellez Delgado. Religious Books, 1876-1982, 1983. Prepared by the R. R. Bowker Company's Department of Bibliography in collaboration with the Publications Systems Department. Page opposite t p. Includes indexes: Author Index 3901-4069, Title Index 4071-4389.

Religious Innovation in a Global Age George N. Lundskow, 2017-02-10. Certain timeless questions rise and fall through changing social conditions, scientific advances and cultural variation: Who am I? How should I live? What happens when I die? In modern society, traditions no longer integrate the individual into a larger spiritual community, and so movements have risen to address the crisis of meaning in a rapidly changing world. This collection of essays, while considering variables of work, class, race and gender, theoretically and empirically examines how diverse groups are trying to restore a sense of meaning through religious innovation. The first group of essays considers new developments in theory, framing critical inquiry into recent developments in religion and the larger quest for meaning. The second section examines grass roots emancipation movements which seek an expanded role for the individual in both belief and practice. Topics addressed include the dialectic between religious and secular values and norms, anti-Semitism, new evangelism, Neopaganism on the internet, Max Horkheimer's critical theory of religion, Christian speed thrash metal music Islamic fundamentalism modernity and the role of women French tourist destination Rocamadour s competition between the Catholic shrine and secular attractions developments within the Polish Roman Catholic Church the Finnish Satanism scare of 1999 and Islam and politics in Turkey A bibliography completes each essay Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here      Adventures on Planet Earth Dr. Diana Prince, 2016-05-14 In this book Dr Diana Prince invites you along to experience adventures in the farthest corners of the world and some intriguing places closer to home      American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Title index R.R.
