Book-prices Current ,1928 Diaspora, Law and Literature Klaus Stierstorfer, Daniela Carpi, 2016-11-07 The well known challenges of international migration have triggered new departures in academic approaches with diaspora studies evolving as an interdisciplinary and even transdisciplinary field of study Its emerging methodology shares concerns with another interdisciplinary field the study of the relations between law and literature which focuses on the ways in which the two cultural practices of law and literature mutually negotiate each other and on the question after the ontological commensurability of the domains This volume offers for the first time an attempt to provide an interface between these overlapping interdisciplinary endeavours of literary studies legal studies and diaspora studies In doing so it explores new approaches and invites new perspectives on diasporas migration and the disciplines that study them hopefull also adding to the cultural resources of coping with a swiftly changing social landscape in a globalizing world Monique Lallier ,2018

Clothing Sacred Scriptures David Ganz, Barbara Schellewald, 2018-12-03 According to a longstanding interpretation book religions are agents of textuality and logocentrism This volume inverts the traditional perspective its focus is on the strong dependency between scripture and aesthetics holy books and material artworks sacred texts and ritual performances The contributions written by a group of international specialists in Western Byzantine Islamic and Jewish Art are committed to a comparative and transcultural approach The authors reflect upon the different strategies of clothing sacred texts with precious materials and elaborate forms They show how the pretypographic cultures of the Middle Ages used book ornaments as media for building a close relation between the divine words and their human audience By exploring how art shapes the religious practice of books and how the religious use of books shapes the evolution of artistic practices this book contributes to a new understanding of the deep nexus between sacred scripture and art Report Texas Education Agency, 1916

The Reception of the Virgin in Byzantium Thomas Arentzen, Mary B. Cunningham, 2023-03-31 This book explores how the Virgin Mary s life is told in hymns sermons icons art and other media in the Byzantine Empire before AD 1204 A group of international specialists examines material and textual evidence from both Byzantine and Muslim ruled territories that was intended for a variety of settings and audiences and seeks to explain why Byzantine artisans and writers chose to tell stories about Mary the Mother of God in such different ways Sometimes the variation reflected the theological or narrative purposes of story tellers sometimes it expressed their personal spiritual preoccupations Above all the variety of aspects that this holy figure assumed in Byzantium reveals her paradoxical theological position as meeting place and mediator between the divine and created realms Narrative whether historical theological or purely literary thus played a fundamental role in the development of the Marian cult from Late Antiquity onward Report of the State Board of Education Texas Education Agency,1916 The Pilgrim's Progress from this World to that which is to Come John Bunyan,1751 The American Bookseller ,1889 Aids to reflection in the formation of a manly character on the several grounds of prudence, morality and religion Samuel Taylor Coleridge,1839 The International Who's who ,1950 The Publishers Weekly ,1917 Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago,1913 The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 1 ,2015-06-10 Volume I of the thirty eight volume translation of abar s great History begins with the creation of the world and ends with the time of Noah and the Flood It not only brings a vast amount of speculation about the early history of mankind into sharp Muslim focus but it also synchronizes ancient Iranian ideas about the prehistory of mankind with those inspired by the Qur an and the Bible The volume is thus an excellent guide to the cosmological views of many of abar s contemporaries The translator Franz Rosenthal one of the world s foremost scholars of Arabic has also written an extensive introduction to the volume that presents all the facts known about abar s personal and professional life Professor Rosenthal s meticulous and original scholarship has yielded a valuable bibliography and chronology of abar s writings both those preserved in manuscript and those alluded to by other authors The introduction and first volume of the translation of the History form a ground breaking contribution to Islamic historiography in English and will prove to be an invaluable source of information for those who are interested in Middle Eastern history but are unable to read the basic works in Arabic The Pilgrim's Progress from this World to that which is to Come. ... ,1800 The English Catalogue of Books ... ,1936 The Pilgrim's Progress ,1778
