Randel Everett, 2012-06-01 We live in a day that is extraordinarily like the time described by the Old Testament writer when everyone did what was right in their own eyes We are constantly bombarded with the message there are no moral absolutes In the midst of this chaos Randel Everett brings a word of hope It might appear that everything is crumbling but the pillars of our morality are still standing The world might change the attitude of people can become indifferent the actions of mankind seem reprehensible but the truth is we still have the pillars the foundation for a strong society The Ten Commandments given by God centuries ago have a relevant word of hope for us today There are moral absolutes They are not the invention of any religion or culture but the revealed Word of God Speaking with a pastor's heart and a knowledge of the biblical world and language Randel Everett breathes new life into an ancient word from God If you are seeking to build a solid foundation for your life Pillars will lead you to a marvelous discovery that is just as powerful as when it was first delivered centuries ago
