Pillow Talk Craig Conover, Blake Dvorak, 2022-03-29 Perfect for fans of One Day You'll Thank Me and Capital Gains the star of Southern Charm and cofounder and CMO of Sewing Down South reveals how he turned his passion for sewing into a profitable enterprise and a fulfilling life while also taking us behind the scenes of one of Bravo's most popular shows As a young boy sitting at a sewing machine in home economics class Craig Conover had no idea that this hobby would one day change his life for the better Growing up in Delaware Conover experienced cruel bullying and suffered from severe anxiety and obsessive compulsive disorder that robbed him of his childhood confidence and made him crave success But while law school in Charleston seemed to provide him the direction he needed Conover spent years searching for meaning and passion in life The chance to become a cast member on Bravo's Southern Charm promised to provide that Though the show gave Conover his shot at fame and fortune it also offered destructive temptations that fed his insecurities As the show increased in popularity he sank deeper into procrastination and self doubt Unable to take control of his life Conover quickly lost his job his girlfriend and his motivation Then at his lowest point Conover turned to his passion sewing and slowly pulled himself out of the spiral A chance phone call from an old friend gave Conover the support he needed to turn his hobby into a business Soon after Sewing Down South was borne and became an overnight success with Conover launching a multi state Pillow Party Tour being featured on HSN and opening a retail store in downtown Charleston Now Conover reveals the full story of the drama that swirled around him on the show both on screen and off and how it led to the founding of Sewing Down South He talks about how he was able to turn his passion into his work and reclaim the direction of his life Most of all Conover reveals how anyone can find the purpose and fulfillment they deserve Meanjin, 2005 Coming into one's Own Alexis Grohmann, 2022-06-13 Javier Marías is a major contemporary Spanish novelist who has enjoyed remarkable international success and recognition He is a writer who has undergone a singular and clearly discernible novelistic evolution and has forged a very distinctive style of his own It is this formal development that this book traces through a study of his works from Los dominios del lobo 1971 to Negra espalda del tiempo 1998 With the help of a wide range of 20th century literary theories and criticism it strives to show that in order to escape realism and Spanishness and to make his way into literature Marías forges an intricate style which progressively develops and matures and which creates highly suggestive and elaborate imaginative worlds a literature with a particular ontology ultimately capable of inventing reality This book is the first full length study of Javier Marías's work to be published so far and serves both as an introduction to and a close examination of the work of a major European writer Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States Patent Office, 1918 Invisible Agents Nadine Akkerman, 2018-06-28 It would be easy for the modern reader to conclude that women had no place in the world of early modern espionage with a few seventeenth century women spies identified and then relegated to the footnotes of history If even the espionage carried out by Susan Hyde sister of Edward Hyde Earl of Clarendon during the turbulent decades of civil strife in Britain can escape the historiographer's gaze then how many more like her lurk in the archives Nadine Akkerman's search for an answer to this question has led to the writing of Invisible Agents the very first study to analyse the role of early modern women spies demonstrating that the allegedly male world of the spy was more than merely infiltrated by women This compelling and ground breaking contribution to the history of espionage details a series of case studies in which women from playwright to postmistress from lady in waiting to laundry woman acted as spies sourcing and passing on confidential information on account of political and religious convictions or to obtain money or power The struggle of these women to construct credibility in their own time is mirrored in their invisibility in modern historiography Akkerman has immersed herself in archives libraries and private collections transcribing hundreds of letters breaking cipher codes and their keys studying invisible inks and interpreting riddles acting as a modern day spymistress to unearth plots and conspiracies that have long remained hidden by history Anthony Caro Dieter Blume, Anthony Caro, 1981 Obsessed With...Hollywood Andrew J. Rausch, Andy Rausch, 2007-10-04 Includes multiple choice questions about the world of film Embedded in the book is a special computerized quiz module that lets you compete against yourself or a friend HotelBusiness, 1999 Greta Garbo David Bret, 2012-06-25 In the male oriented studio system Greta Garbo wielded a power no other actress has ever possessed before or since Be it producer director lover or journalist Garbo called the shots and when she decided that she was done with the whirlwind of life as Hollywood's darling she withdrew completely leaving her public begging for an encore that never came Though there have been numerous biographies of Garbo this is the first to investigate fully the two so called missing periods in the life of this most enigmatic of Hollywood stars the first during the late 1920s forcing MGM to employ a lookalike to conceal what was almost certainly a pregnancy the second during World War II when Garbo was employed by British Intelligence to track down Nazi sympathisers It also analyses in detail the original uncensored copies of Garbo's films with the exception of The Divine Woman of which no complete print survives and offers substantial evidence that John Gilbert was not in fact the great love of her life Rather her true affections lay with the gay Sapphic and Scandinavian members of her very intimate inner circle Using previously unsourced material along with anecdotes from friends and colleagues that have never before been published David Bret paints a rounded portrait of Garbo's childhood in Sweden her rise to stardom and her all too brief reign as queen of MGM Hers is a truly remarkable story recounted here with warmth intensity and unique insight I Feel Love Dave Thompson, 2021-08 A celebratory look at how the groundbreaking disco hit changed the world and became one of the most influential records ever made Financial Times The life and works of Robert Burns, ed. by R. from the Tree which explores the impact of extreme differences between parents and children The old adage says that the apple doesn't fall far from the tree meaning that children usually resemble their parents But what happens when the apples fall somewhere else sometimes a couple of orchards away sometimes on the other side of the world In this young adult edition Andrew Solomon profiles how families accommodate children who have a variety of differences families of people who are deaf who are dwarfs who have Down syndrome who have autism who have schizophrenia who have multiple severe disabilities who are prodigies who commit crimes and more Elegantly reported by a spectacularly original and compassionate thinker Far From the Tree explores how people who love each other must struggle to accept each other a theme in every family's life The New York Times calls the adult edition a wise and beautiful volume that will shake up your preconceptions and leave you in a better place
