Piloting At Night:

Piloting at Night Lewis Bjork, 1998 Written by a commercial pilot this instructional guide focuses on the practical knowledge and skills required to successfully operate an airplane at night Using quotes from experienced aviators accident records personal histories federal regulations and the Airman's Information Manual each chapter Night Flight Robert Burleigh, 2011-02-22 Amelia Earhart is a legend in the field of aviation and no accomplishment of hers is more acclaimed than her unparalleled 1932 solo flight across the Atlantic As only the second person and the first woman to achieve such a feat Amelia Earhart earned a place in the history books and award winning author Robert Burleigh has captured every nuance of her remarkable journey in this detailed picture book that is full of action and edge Readers will be thrilled with the adventure and drama in this nonfiction account and Wendell Minor's vivid paintings will make them feel as if they're along for the ride

Night Flight Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, 1974-03-20 Fasten your seatbelt to experience the spectacle and solitude of flying high in the Andes in this novel from the author of The Little Prince No writer has equaled Saint-Exupéry in describing the perilous and poetic experience of flying in submission to what he calls those damn elemental divinities night day mountain sea and storm In this gripping beautifully written novel inspired by his experience as a pilot in South America he tells of the brave men who pilot night mail planes from Patagonia Chile and Paraguay to Argentina in the early days of commercial aviation They are impelled to perform their routine acts of heroism by a steely chief named Rivière whose extraordinary character is revealed through the dramatic events of a single night Preface by André Gide Translated by Stuart Gilbert The book stands out by reason of the quality of its style the beauty of the passages in which flight is described better than it ever has been before but more especially because of the emotions of the men of heroic mold André Maurois Saturday Review West with the Night Beryl Markham, 2012-08-14 The classic memoir of Africa aviation and adventure the inspiration for Paula McLain's Circling the Sun and a bloody wonderful book Ernest Hemingway Beryl Markham's life story is a true epic Not only did she set records and break barriers as a pilot she shattered societal expectations threw herself into torrid love affairs survived desperate crash landings and chronicled everything A contemporary of Karen Blixen better known as Isak Dinesen the author of Out of Africa Markham left an enduring memoir that soars with astounding candor and shimmering insights A rebel from a young age the British born Markham was raised in Kenya's unforgiving farmlands She trained as a bush pilot at a time when most Africans had never seen a plane In 1936 she accepted the ultimate challenge to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean from east to west a feat that fellow female aviator Amelia Earhart had completed in reverse just a few years before Markham's successes and her failures and her deep lifelong love of the soul of Africa are all told here with wrenching honesty and agile wit Hailed as one of the greatest adventure books of all time by Newsweek and the sort of book that makes you think human beings can do anything by the New York Times West with the Night remains a powerful testament to one of the iconic lives of the twentieth century Night Stalkers: 160th Special Operations Aviation

Regiment (Airborne) Fred J. Pushies, The 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment specializes in carrying out its life and death operations under the cover of darkness hence their nickname Night Stalkers They are renowned for being swift sure and particularly deadly with their accuracy in using state of the art aircraft and equipment to assist special ops from the air Their specialty is covert insertion re supply and extraction of Special Ops teams They also take part in armed escort reconnaissance surveillance and electronic warfare in support of missions

Night over Water Ken Follett, 2004-04-06 1 New York Times bestselling author Ken Follett takes to the skies in this classic novel of international suspense Set in the early days of World War II Night over Water captures the daring and desperation of ordinary people caught in extraordinary circumstances in prose as compelling as history itself September 1939 England is at war with Nazi Germany In Southampton the world's most luxurious airliner the legendary Pan Am Clipper takes off for its final flight to neutral America Aboard are the cream of society and the dregs of humanity all fleeing the war for reasons of their own shadowed by a danger they do not know exists and heading straight into a storm of violence intrigue and betrayal

Flying At Night Ted Kooser, 2005-03-11 Named U S Poet Laureate for 2004 2006 Ted Kooser is one of America's masters of the short metaphorical poem Dana Gioia has remarked that Kooser has written more perfect poems than any poet of his generation In Flying at Night Poems 1965 1985 Kooser has selected poems from two of his earlier works Sure Signs and One World at a Time 1985 Taken together or read one at a time these poems clearly show why William Cole writing in the Saturday Review called Ted Kooser a wonderful poet and why Peter Stitt writing in the Georgia Review proclaimed him a skilled and cunning writer An authentic poet of the American people
