Folds, 1970 Albrecht Dürer and the Embodiment of Genius Jeffrey Chipps Smith, 2021-05-28 During the nineteenth century Albrecht Dürer s art piety and personal character were held up as models to inspire contemporary artists and it was hoped to return Germany to international artistic eminence In this book Jeffrey Chipps Smith explores Dürer s complex posthumous reception during the great century of museum building in Europe with a particular focus on the artist's role as a creative and moral exemplar for German artists and museum visitors. In an era when museums were emerging as symbols of civic, regional and national identity, dozens of new national, princely and civic museums began to feature portraits of Dürer in their elaborate decorative programs, embellishing the facades, grand staircases, galleries and ceremonial spaces. Most of these arose in Germany and Austria, though examples can be seen as far away as St Petersburg, Stockholm, London and New York City. Probing the cultural, political and educational aspirations and rivalries of these museums and their patrons, Smith traces how Dürer was painted, sculpted and prominently placed to accommodate the era's diverse needs and aspirations. He investigates what these portraits can tell us about the rise of a distinct canon of famous Renaissance and Baroque artists, addressing the question of why Dürer was so often paired with Raphael, who was considered to embody the greatness of Italian art, and why, with the rise of German nationalism, Hans Holbein the Younger often replaced Raphael as Dürer's partner. Accessibly written and comprehensive in scope, this book sheds new light on museum building in the nineteenth century and the rise of art history as a discipline. It will appeal to specialists in nineteenth century and early modern art, the history of museums and collecting, and art historiography.

The Faustian Bargain Jonathan Petropoulos, 2000. This book follows the careers of five prominent individuals who chose to pursue artistic ends through collaboration with Nazi Germany and put their talents to work for Hitler. 50 halftones.

Hans Hofmann Lucinda Barnes, 2019-02-22. Hans Hofmann's The Nature of Abstraction offers a fresh and revealing assessment of the artist's prolific and innovative painterly career. The comprehensive exhibition and accompanying catalogue will feature approximately seventy paintings and works on paper by Hofmann from 1930 through the end of his life in 1966, including works from public and private collections across North America and Europe. Curator Lucinda Barnes builds on new scholarship published over the past ten years and the 2014 catalogue raisonné to present Hofmann as a unique synthesis of student, artist, teacher and mentor who transcended generations and continents. His singular artistic achievement drew on artistic influences and innovations that spanned two world wars and transatlantic avant-gardes. Over the last fifty years, Hofmann has come to be understood primarily from the vantage of his late color plane abstractions. Hans Hofmann: The Nature of Abstraction expands our understanding and reinvigorates our appreciation of Hofmann through an inclusive presentation of his artistic arc, showing the vibrant interconnectedness and continuity in his work of European and American influences from the early twentieth century through the advent of abstract expressionism.

Exhibition dates: Berkeley Museum of Art, Pacific Film Archive (BAMPFA), February 27–July 21, 2019; The Peabody Essex Museum, Salem, MA, September 21, 2019–January 6, 2020.

When Pigasso Met Mootisse Nina Laden, 2014-10-14 When Pigasso met Mootisse what begins as a neighborly overture escalates into a mess Before you can say paint by numbers the two artists become fierce rivals calling each other names and ultimately building a fence between them But when the two painters paint opposite sides of the fence that divides them they unknowingly create a modern art masterpiece and learn it is their friendship that is the true work of art Nina Laden's wacky illustrations complement this funny story that not only introduces children to two of the world's most extraordinary modern artists but teaches a very important lesson how to creatively resolve a conflict in a most unusual way
