Drawing Futures Bob Sheil,Frédéric Migayrou,Luke Pearson,Laura Allen,2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas

The Modern State Christopher Pierson,2004-07-31 The modern state is hugely important in our everyday lives It takes nearly half our income in taxes It registers our births marriages and deaths It educates our children and pays our pensions It has a unique power to compel in some cases exercising the ultimate sanction of preserving life or ordering death Yet most of us would struggle to say exactly what the state is The Modern State offers a clear comprehensive and provoking introduction to one of the most important phenomena of contemporary life Topics covered include the nation state and its historical context state and economy state and societies state and citizens international relations the future of the state

Idea Man Paul Allen,2012 What's it like to start a revolution How do you build the biggest tech company in the world And why do you walk away from it all Paul Allen co-founded Microsoft Together he and Bill Gates turned an idea writing software into a company and then an entire industry This is the story of how it came about two young mavericks who turned technology on its head the bitter battles as each tried to stamp his vision on the future and the ruthless brilliance and fierce commitment

The Twilight of American Culture Morris Berman,2001-06-17 An emerging cult classic about America's cultural meltdown and a surprising solution A prophetic examination of Western decline The Twilight of American Culture provides one of the most caustic and surprising portraits of American society to date Whether examining the corruption at the heart of modern politics the Rombification of popular entertainment or the collapse of our school systems Morris Berman suspects that there is little we can do as a society to arrest the onset of corporate Mass Mind culture Citing writers as diverse as de Toqueville and DeLillo he cogently argues that cultural preservation is a matter of individual conscience and discusses how classical learning might triumph over political correctness with the rise of a new monastic individual a person who much like the medieval monk is willing to retreat from conventional society in order to preserve its literary and historical treasures Brilliantly observant deeply thoughtful lucidly argued Christian Science Monitor

Trigger Happy Steven Poole,2004

Examines the history and phenomenal success of video games and argues that the popular games are on the way to becoming a legitimate art form much in the same way movies did a century earlier Film Maria Pramaggiore, Tom Wallis, 2008-07-31

Film A Critical Introduction provides a comprehensive framework for studying films with an emphasis on writing as a means of exploring film's aesthetic and cultural significance. This text's consistent and comprehensive focus on writing allows students to master film vocabulary and concepts while learning to formulate rich interpretations. Part I introduces readers to the importance of film analysis, offering helpful strategies for discerning the way films produce meaning. Part II examines the fundamental elements of film, including narrative form, mise en scene, cinematography, editing, and sound, and shows how these concepts can be used to interpret films. Part III moves beyond textual analysis to explore film as a cultural institution and introduces students to essential areas of film studies research.
