Pink Geishas And Other Poems:

Pink Geishas and Other Poems Mary F. Tomaselli, 2001-07 Pink Geishas is a collection of poems sometimes funny sometimes irreverent that describes the life and thoughts of a 56 year old woman who is simply grateful for making it this far Poetry Ariake, 2000-04 Books like Arthur Golden's Memoirs of a Geisha have signaled the current fascination with the discreetly private side of Japan during the evocative age of dynasties and imperial rule Ariake a stunning gift book offers up the passionate words of the elegant and cultured female courtesans of ancient Japan It was customary in the late 1st and early 2nd century Japanese courts for women to express their hearts greatest desires and sorrows through poetry Translated and compiled in Ariake these lyrical and poignant verses of seduction love and lament are both simple and extraordinary Illustrated throughout with gorgeous collages that evoke the color fabric and textures of the East Ariake brings to life the subtle eloquence of ancient Japan and the universal passions and torments of love Ariake is an exquisite and timeless volume of the heart's longing Women of the Pleasure Quarters Lesley Downer, 2002-01-08 From critically acclaimed author and Japanese scholar Lesley Downer an enchanting portrait of the mysterious world of the geisha Ever since Westerners arrived in Japan they have been intrigued by Japanese womanhood and above all by geisha This fascination has spawned a wealth of extraordinary fictional creations from Puccini's Madama Butterfly to Arthur Golden's Memoirs of a Geisha The reality of the geisha's existence though whether today or in history has rarely been addressed Contrary to popular opinion geisha are not prostitutes but literally arts people Their accomplishments include singing dancing playing a musical instruments but above all they are masters of the art of conversation soothing the worries and stroking the egos of the wealthy businessmen who can afford their attentions It is this which imbues the geisha with such power and which makes absolute secrecy such a crucial aspect of their work As denizens of a world defined by silence and mystery geisha are notoriously difficult to meet and even to find Lesley Downer an award winning writer Japanese scholar and consummate storyteller gained more access into this world than almost any other Westerner ever has and spent several months living among them In Women of the Pleasure Quarters she weaves together intimate portraits of modern geisha with the romantic legends and colorful historical tales of geisha of the past From Sada Yakko who dined with American presidents and had her portrait painted by Picasso to Koito a modern day geisha who maintains her own website geisha throughout history step out of the pages of Women of the Pleasure Quarters to become living breathing creatures Looking into such traditions as mizuage the ritual deflowering which was once a rite of passage for all geisha and providing colorful depictions of the geisha's dress training and homes Downer with grace elegance and respect transforms their reality in a captivating narrative that both informs and entertains At once a symbol of a bygone age and an institution more quintessentially Japanese than any other geisha are a society at a crossroads struggling to reinvent their place in the new millennium while honoring the traditions of the past Both instructive and evocative Women of the Pleasure Quarters is an enthralling portrait of a world
