Pink Ink An Anthology Of Australian Lesbian And Gay Writers:

Pink Ink Kerry Bashford,1991 Pink Ink Bill Calder,2016-08-01 The tapping of typewriters first lifted the secrecy around homosexuality and a vibrant array of voices was soon heard The publishers of gay magazines and newspapers were a diverse and lively lot Some wanted to publicise where the best parties were held some to fight the political battle and others to show new ways for lesbians and gay men to live their lives The story of these magazines and newspapers is the story of society s changing attitudes and indeed the changing gay world This book traces the evolution of Australia s gay and lesbian publications from smudgy porn sold in brown paper bags to glossy coffee table magazines proudly on display from gestetnered newsletters to an industry publishing millions of newspapers each year that is until the Internet changed it all

A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns,Rebecca McNeer,2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Republics of Letters Peter Kirkpatrick,Professor Robert Dixon,2018-08-30 Republics of Letters Literary Communities in Australia is the first book to explore the notion of literary community or literary sociability in relation to Australian literature

Biographical bibliographical and critical information on more than four hundred authors who have figured prominently in gay and lesbian literature and culture since 1900 Practicing Desire Gary W. Dowsett,1996 Through frank and graphic interviews with 20 very different Australian gay men this book reveals how they understand the AIDS crisis and how they have reacted to it in terms of their sex lives The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica

Gildersleeve,2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts Meanjin ,1992 Dangerous Families Matt Bernstein Sycamore,2012-11-12 Queer survivors piece together the clues to discover their own lives Dangerous Families Queer Writing on Surviving goes beyond the recovery narrative to create a new queer literature of investigation exploration and transformation Twenty six stories illuminate the reality of growing up in fear struggling to rebuild lives damaged by sexual physical and or emotional abuse The book explores how abuse turns queer survivors male female and transgendered into healers heartbreakers and homicidal maniacs presenting brilliant stories that sear and soar Dangerous Families Queer Writing on Surviving addresses all forms of abuse head on representing a cross section of queer survivors in terms of race class ethnicity education origin sexuality and gender Contributors use their own life experiences to create a book that takes back control from well meaning outsiders as they recount the daily struggle to overcome the damage done to their minds bodies and spirits in a world that denies their gender sexual and social identities From the editor Dangerous Families consists entirely of writing by survivors of childhood abuse That s right no therapists analyzing our plight no talk show hosts exploiting us just survivors exploring our complicated frightening and fulfilling lives These stories dispense with the usual technique of carefully massaging the reader s fragile worldview before plunging this unsuspecting innocent into a world of horror They go right to the horror the beauty and the joy often throwing the reader off guard revealing layers of meaning before the reader can step back Dangerous Families Queer Writing on Surviving is an anthology of 26 true stories of growing up queer in families that magnify the horrors of the outside world instead of offering protection The book is an essential read for therapists caseworkers cultural studies specialists and anyone struggling to survive childhood abuse Australian Gay and Lesbian Writing Robert Dessaix,1993 Remarkably it confirms that few of the country s most celebrated writers regardless of their sexuality have not at one time or another written on homosexual themes Patrick White David Malouf Elizabeth Jolley Frank Moorhouse and Helen Garner are all included along with a number of newer writers This rare openness to the illicit and the subversive is just one of the revelations in an entertaining and provocative volume Through the fiction poetry and drama of over forty writers the collection traces the flowering of a rich variety of homosexual sensibilities from colonial times to the present Post-colonial Literatures in English Richard Lever,James Wieland,Scott Findlay,1996 Australian Literary Studies ,2009 Sunshine and Rainbows Clive Moore,2001 A history of the development of homosexuality as an Australian subculture Proceeding chronologically from the 1820s through to the vibrant alternative culture that exists in 2000 this book argues that the manner in which gay and lesbian identity has been constructed in Queensland is typical of Australia generally The 40th Anniversary Edition Staff,2021-12-02 Welcome to this special anniversary edition of the UTS Writers Anthology showcasing writers from four decades of its prestigious Creative Writing program one of the oldest in Australia Introduced by Miles Franklin Award winner Melissa Lucashenko this treasury of prose poetry scripts and non fiction affords glimpses of the shifting social and political landscape and evolving
