Finney, 1970 Australian Books National Library of Australia, 1980 The Athenæum , 1841 A Pictorial History of Chinese Architecture 卞卞, 2024 Australian Books , 1980 Koala Ann Moyal, 2008-07-25 The koala is both an Australian icon and an animal that has attained flagship status around the world Yet its history tells a different story While the koala figured prominently in Aboriginal Dreaming and Creation stories its presence was not recorded in Australia until 15 years after white settlement Then it would figure as a scientific oddity despatched to museums in Britain and Europe a native animal driven increasingly from its habitat by tree felling and human settlement and a subject of relentless hunting by trappers for its valuable fur It was not until the late 1920s that slowly emerging protective legislation and the enterprise of private protectors came to its aid This book surveys the koala s fascinating history its evolutionary survival in Australia for over 30 million years its strikingly adaptive physiognomy its private life and the strong cultural impact it has had through its rich fertilisation of Australian literature The work also focuses on the complex problems of Australia s national wildlife and conservation policies and the challenges surrounding the environmental economic and social questions concerning koala management Koala embraces the story of this famous marsupial in an engaging historical narrative extensively illustrated from widely sourced pictorial material

"The" Athenaeum James-Silk Buckingham, 1841 The American Booksellers Guide , 1869 Transnational Australian Cinema Olivia Khoo, Belinda Smaill, Audrey Yue, 2013-03-08 To date there has been little sustained attention given to the historical cinema relations between Australia and Asia This is a significant omission given Australia s geo political position and the place Asia has held in the national imaginary oscillating between threat and opportunity Many accounts of Australian cinema begin with the 1970s film revival placing Asian Australian cinema within a post revival schema of multicultural or diasporic cinema and ignoring Asian Australian connections prior to the revival Transnational Australian Cinema charts a history of Asian Australian cinema encompassing the work of diasporic Asian filmmakers films featuring images of Asia and Asians films produced by Australians working in Asia s film industries or addressed at Asian audiences and Asian films that use Australian resources including locations and personnel Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach the book considers diasporic Asian histories the impact of government immigration and film policies on representation and the new aesthetic styles and production regimes created by filmmakers who have forged links both through roots and routes with Asia This expanded history of Asian Australian cinema allows for a renewed discussion of so called dormant periods in the nation s film history In this respect the mapping of an expanded history of cinema practices contributes to our broader aim to rethink the transnationalism of Australian cinema Catalogue of the Libraries Sydney Mechanics' School of Arts, N.S.W.,1892 The Australia Book Eve Pownall,2008 When The Australia Book won the 1952 Children s Book of the Year Award it was described as one of the most beautiful and original books ever published for children in Australia and that remains as true today as it was then Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1851 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1856 Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd,1894 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1884
