A Pictorial History of Sex in the Movies Jeremy Pascall, Clyde Jeavons, 1975      The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins, 2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message      The Complete Films of Mae West Jon Tuska, 1992      Hard to Imagine Thomas Waugh, 1996 Waugh identifies four primary aspects of homoerotic photography and film the artistic the commercial the illicit and the politico scientific tracing their development against a background of advances in visual technology This comprehensive work explores a vast eclectic tradition in its totality analyzing the visual imagery in addition to its production circulation and consumption      The Rhapsodes David Bordwell, 2016-04-04 An engaging look at four pioneering film critics besides being a pleasure to read it makes a sophisticated contribution to the study of film criticism Cineaste In the 1960s Pauline Kael Andrew Sarris and Roger Ebert were three of America's most popular and influential film critics But their remarkable contributions to the cinema landscape were deeply influenced by the work of four earlier critics who are too often overlooked Otis Ferguson James Agee Manny Farber and Parker Tyler Throughout the 30s and 40s these pioneering critics scrutinized movies with an intensity not previously seen in popular reviewing With The Rhapsodes renowned film scholar and critic David Bordwell restores their work to a wider audience Bordwell calls these four critics the Rhapsodes in honor of their passionate and deliberately offbeat prose Each broke with prevailing currents in criticism finding new ways to discuss popular films that their contemporaries regarded as trivial With his customary clarity and brio Bordwell considers each critics writing style their conceptions of films and their many quarrels He then concludes by examining their profound impact on later generations of film writers

Censoring Sex John E. Semonche, 2007-07-20 In this gracefully written accessible and entertaining volume John Semonche surveys censorship for reasons of sex from the nineteenth century up to the present He covers the various forms of American media books and periodicals pictorial art motion pictures music and dance and radio television and the Internet The tale is varied and interesting replete with a stock of colorful characters such as Anthony Comstock Mae West Theodore Dreiser Marcel Duchamp Opie and Anthony Judy Blume Jerry Falwell Alfred Kinsey Hugh Hefner and the Guerilla Girls Covering the history of censorship of sexual ideas and images is one way of telling the story of modern America and Semonche tells that tale with insight and flair Despite the varieties of censorship running from self censorship to government bans a common story is told Censorship whether undertaken to ward off government regulation to help preserve the social order or to protect the weak and vulnerable proceeds on the assumption that the censor knows best and that limiting the choices of media consumers is justified At various times all of the following groups were perceived as needing protection from sexually explicit materials children women the lower classes and foreigners As social and political conditions changed however the simple fact that someone was a woman or a day laborer did not support stereotyping that person as weak or impressionable What would remain as the only acceptable rationale for censorship of sexual materials was the protection of children and unconsenting adults For each mode of media Semonche explains via abundant examples how and why censorship took place in America Censoring Sex also traces the story of how the cultural territory contested by those advocating and opposing censorship has diminished over the course of the last two centuries Yet Semonche argues the censorship of sexual materials that continues in the United States poses a challenge to the free speech that is part of the foundation upon which the nation is built Indeed in an era in which sexual images are pervasive and the need for reliable information about sex and sexuality is growing he questions the remaining rationales for censorship and the justification for placing obscenity outside the protection of the U S Constitution

Swinging Single Hilary Radner, Moya Luckett, 1999 Critics and defenders alike connect today s widespread anxieties about sexuality and culture to the political activism of the 1960s and the counterculture s preoccupation with the individual pursuit of pleasure In contrast the essays in Swindling Single attribute the new sexual mores of that era not to its political upheavals but to a confluence of social cultural and economic factors that encouraged personal gratification and altered traditionally defined gender roles Contributors analyze a broad range of topics the commercialization of avant garde and exploitation films new visions of female sexuality in That Girl and The Avengers the social context of such cultural icons as Hugh Hefner and Charles Manson the intersection of race and sexuality in Eldridge Cleaver s Soul on Ice and depictions of sexual pleasure in pornography and scientific films

Film and Sexual Politics A Critical Reader features a variety of noteworthy critical essays that explore the evolution, representation and social construction of sex, gender and sexual orientation from the early days of cinema to the early twenty-first century. This collection investigates the complex relations between film form, style and sexual politics past and present as well as the ideological and social ramifications of those relations for the lived realities of individuals in the United States over the course of the twentieth century and beyond. Contrary to popular perceptions of films as relatively simplistic forms of entertainment, the essays in this collection demonstrate clearly how the act of producing meaning through the use of cinematic verbal and visual signs is far from a simple process with negligible historical consequences. This book offers insightful and satisfying reading to established and emerging scholars who explore film history, theory and criticism as well as to all readers with a general interest in film history and the effects of cinema on individuals and popular culture. The range of films analyzed includes Being John Malkovich, Citizen Kane, Elizabeth, Female Perversions, From Here to Eternity, Gidget, The Incredible Shrinking Man, Jackass the Movie, The Matrix, Maurice, My Own Private Idaho, Porcile, The Road to Ruin and Wilde. Out in Culture Corey K. Creekmur, Alexander Doty, 1995

Out in Culture charts some of the ways in which lesbians, gays and queers have understood and negotiated the pleasures and affirmations as well as the disappointments of mass culture. The essays collected here, combining critical and theoretical works from a cross-section of academics, journalists and artists, demonstrate a rich variety of gay and lesbian approaches to film, television, popular music and fashion. This wide-ranging anthology is the first to juxtapose pioneering work in gay and lesbian media criticism with recent essays in contemporary queer cultural studies. Uniquely accessible, Out in Culture presents such popular writers as B. Ruby Rich, Essex Hemphill and Michael Musto as well as influential critics such as Richard Dyer, Chris Straayer and Julia Lesage on topics ranging from the queer careers of Agnes Moorehead and Pee Wee Herman to the cultural politics of gay drag, lesbian style, the visualization of AIDS and the black sissy queen experience. Of particular interest are two dossier essays: the first linking the queer content of Alfred Hitchcock's films and the second on the production and reception of popular music within gay and lesbian communities. The volume concludes with an extensive bibliography, the most comprehensive currently available of sources in gay, lesbian and queer media criticism. Out in Culture explores the distinctive and original ways in which gays, lesbians and queers have experienced, appropriated and resisted the images and artifacts of popular culture. This eclectic anthology will be of interest to a broad audience of general readers and scholars interested in gay and lesbian issues, students of film, media, gender and cultural studies and those interested in the emerging field of queer theory Contributors Sabrina Barton Edith Becker Rhona J Berenstein Nayland Blake Michelle Citron Danae Clark Corey K Creekmur Alexander Doty Richard Dyer Heather Findlay Jan Zita Grover Essex Hemphill John Hepworth Jeffrey Hilbert Lucretia Knapp Bruce La Bruce Al LaValley Julia Lesage Michael Moon Michael Musto B Ruby Rich Marlon Riggs Arlene Stein Chris Straayer Anthony Thomas Mark Thompson Valerie Traub Thomas Waugh Patricia White Robin Wood
