Picture History Of The Twentieth Century 1920s:

Disappearing Witness Gretchen Garner, 2003-07-25 In documenting this transformation in American photography Disappearing Witness forcefully rethinks the history of photography itself Twentieth Century Theories of Art James M. Thompson, 1990-01-15 This ambitious volume provides a general introduction to the major approaches in this century to art theory and criticism from the Expression Theory to Poststructuralism For readers with little or no background clearly written introductions are provided The writings collected here are by leaders in each area such as Freud Barthes Heidegger and Derrida The collection is valuable for students of art history literature and philosophy Flappers and the New American Woman Catherine Gourley, 2008-01-01 Examines the symbols that defined perceptions of women during the late 1910s and 1920s and how they changed women's role in society Film History Through Trade Journal Art, 1916-1920 Jeff Codori, 2020-03-20 The period in film history between the regimentation of the Edison Trust and the vertical integration of the Studio System roughly 1916 through 1920 was a time of structural and artistic experimentation for the American film industry As the nature of the industry was evolving society around it was changing as well arts politics and society were in a state of flux between old and new Before the major studios dominated the industry droves of smaller companies competed for the attention of the independent exhibitor their gateway to the movie goer Their arena was in the pages of the trade press and their weapons were their advertisements often bold and eye catching The reporting of the trade journals as they witnessed the evolution of the industry from its infancy towards the future is the basis of this history Pulled from the pages of the journals themselves as archived by the Media History Digital Library the observations of the trade press writers are accompanied by cleaned and restored advertisements used in the battle among the young film companies They offer a unique and vital look at this formative period of film history Pantone: The Twentieth Century in Color Leatrice Eiseman, Keith Recker, 2011-10-19 Pantone the worldwide color authority invites you on a rich visual tour of 100 transformative years From the Pale Gold 15 0927 TPX and Almost Mauve 12 2103 TPX of the 1900 Universal Exposition in Paris to the Rust 18 1248 TPX and Midnight Navy 19 4110 TPX of the countdown to the Millennium the 20th century brimmed with color Longtime Pantone collaborators and color gurus Leatrice Eiseman and Keith Recker identify more than 200 touchstone works of art products d cor and fashion and carefully match them with 80 different official PANTONE color palettes to reveal the trends radical shifts and resurgences of various hues This vibrant volume takes the social temperature of our recent history with the panache that is uniquely Pantone The Twentieth Century, 1898 Twentieth Century, 1920 The Nineteenth century and after London The 1980s Paul Richardson, 2008 This series of ten books each devoted to a decade of British life and containing around 300 photographs from PA Photos huge archives spans the whole of the 20th Century Hand picked by PA Photos own archivists most of these images have lain unseen since they were used as news pictures when they were first taken Each image has been scanned especially for these books many from glass plates ensuring the best possible quality of reproduction

It is easy looking back to imagine a past neatly partitioned into clearly defined periods and dominated by landmarks wars political upheaval and economic trends But the archive tells a different story alongside the major events that constitute formal history are found the smaller things that had equal if not greater significance for ordinary people at the time And while the photographers were working for that moment s news rather than posterity the camera is an indiscriminating eye that records everything in its view to modern eyes it is often the backgrounds of these pictures not their intended subjects which provide the greatest fascination
