Street Life in London Adolphe Smith, John Thomson, 2014-11-01 Street Life in London 1877-78 by journalist Adolphe Smith and photographer John Thomson aimed to reveal by the innovative use of photography and essays the conditions of a life of poverty in London Now regarded as a pioneering photo-text and a foundational work of socially conscious photography one of the most significant and far-reaching photobooks in the medium's history The Photobook A History Street Life in London failed to achieve commercial success in its own time In this groundbreaking book we see the start but not the conclusion of a conversation between text and image in the service of education reportage and social justice This newly designed and typeset edition contains the full text and makes available to a contemporary audience Thomson's powerful images in their original size and rich colour Victorian

Babylon Lynda Nead, 2005-01-01 Lynda Nead charts the relationship between London's formation into a modern organised city in the 1860s and the emergence of new types of production and consumption of visual culture The picture of London for 1805 ... John Feltham, 1805

Out of The Sun Esi Edugyan, 2022-02-03 History is a construction What happens when we bring stories consigned to the margins up to the light How does that complicate our certainties about who we are as individuals as nations as human beings As in her fiction the essays in Out of the Sun demonstrate Esi Edugyan's commitment to seeking out the stories of Black lives that history has failed to record In five wide-ranging essays written with the rise of the Black Lives Matter movement in the background Edugyan reflects on her own identity and experiences She delves into the history of Western Art and the truths about Black lives that it fails to reveal and the ways contemporary Black artists are reclaiming and reimagining those lives She explores and celebrates the legacy of Afrofuturism the complex and problematic practice of racial passing the place of ghosts and haunting in the imagination and the fascinating relationship between Africa and Asia dating back to the 6th Century With calm piercing intelligence Edugyan asks difficult questions about how we reckon with the past and imagine the future The Picture of London for 1807 John Feltham, Sir Richard Phillips, 1807
