The Tudor, Stuart and Early Georgian Pictures in the Collection of Her Majesty the Queen Oliver Millar, 1963
For contents see Author Catalog Early Georgian, 1714-1760 Henry Avray Tipping, 1921 The Pictures in the Collection of Her Majesty the Queen: The Tudor, Stuart and early Georgian pictures, text and plates Elizabeth II (Queen of Great Britain), 1964 A New Picture of Georgian Hull Ivan Hall, Elisabeth Hall, 1979 The Image of Georgian Bath 1700-2000 Peter Borsay, 2000-07-06 This interdisciplinary study explores the evolution structure and uses of the image of Georgian Bath from its genesis in the eighteenth century to its renaissance in the twentieth century In recent decades there has been both a popular resurgence of interest in heritage and tradition and a growing academic awareness of the power of imagery in shaping the lives of individuals and societies There is perhaps no city in Britain so saturated in history and layered with historic imagery as Bath It therefore provides an ideal case study to investigate the dynamic fusion and impact of the forces of past and representation The dominant perception of Bath today is that of a classical and particularly Georgian city In this stimulating and scholarly study Peter Borsay examines the construction and development of this image Its principal components biography and architecture are explored together with the media through which it was constructed and transmitted as well as its commercial social political and psychological uses Dr Borsay concludes by relating the findings for Bath to current debates on towns heritage and the nature of history Medieval Images, Icons, and Illustrated English Literary Texts Maidie Hilmo, 2019-10-30 The function of images in the major illustrated English poetic works from the Anglo Saxon period to the early fifteenth century is the primary concern of this book Hilmo argues that the illustrations have not been sufficiently understood because modern judgments about their artistic merit and fidelity to the literary texts have got in the way of a historical understanding of their function The author here proves that artists took their work seriously because images represented an invisible order of reality that they were familiar with the vernacular poems and that they were innovative in adapting existing iconographies to guide the ethical reading process of their audience To provide a theoretical basis for the understanding of early monuments artefacts and texts she examines patristic opinions on image making supported by the most authoritative modern sources Fresh emphasis is given to the iconic nature of medieval images from the time of the iconoclastic debates of the 8th and 9th centuries to the renewed anxiety of image making at the time of the Lollard attacks on images She offers an important revision of the reading of the Ruthwell Cross which changes radically the interpretation of the Cross as a whole Among the manuscripts examined here are the Caedmon Auchinleck Vernon and Pearl manuscripts Hilmo s thesis is not confined to overtly religious texts and images but deals also with historical writing such as Layamon s Brut and with poetry designed ostensibly for entertainment such as the Canterbury Tales This study convincingly demonstrates how the visual and the verbal interactively manifest the real text of each illustrated literary work The artistic elements place vernacular works within a larger iconographic framework in which human composition is seen to relate to the activities of the divine Author and Artificer Whether iconic or anti iconic in stance images by their nature were a potent means of influencing the way an English author's words accessible in the vernacular were thought about and understood within the context of the theology of the Incarnation that informed them and governed their aesthetic of spiritual function This is the first study to cover the range of illustrated English poems from the Anglo Saxon period to the early 15th century English Homes: Period V: Early Georgian, 1714-1760. 1921 Henry Avray Tipping, 1920 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1971 National Portrait Gallery Mid-Georgian Portraits, 1760-1790 John Ingamells, National Portrait Gallery (Great Britain), 2004 This catalogue includes such famous figures as David Garrick and Dr Samuel Johnson Sarah Siddons and Emma Hamilton and the work of such artists as Gainsborough Reynolds and Romney It has been compiled by one of the leading authorities on 18th century English portraiture John Ingamells British Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1575-1875 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Katharine Baetjer, 2009 Covering the period between the late 16th century through to the third quarter of the 19th century this book features paintings by English Scottish Welsh and Irish artists which are part of the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art The British National Bibliography, 1968 The World Book Encyclopedia, 1984 An encyclopedia designed especially to meet the needs of elementary junior high and high school students Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia and Fact-index ..., 1958 Ancient Christianity in the Caucasus Tamila Mgaloblishvili, 2014-02-04 The is the first volume of Iberica Caucasica a new annual publication based in Tbilisi Georgia and devoted exclusively to the art history and culture of the Caucasus Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955 Cite Them Right Richard Pears, Graham Shields, 2010-08-15 This book is renowned as the most comprehensive yet easy to use guide to referencing available Tutors rely on the advice to guide their students in the skills of identifying and referencing information sources and avoiding plagiarism This new edition has new and expanded content especially in relation to latest electronic sources Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia and Fact-index Guy Stanton Ford, 1957 Bibliography of Fossil Vertebrates, 1964-1968 Charles Lewis Camp, 1972 The Athenaeum, 1914 The Guitar in Georgian England Christopher Page, 2020-10-02 A fascinating social history of the guitar reasserting its long forgotten importance in Romantic England This book is the first to explore the popularity and novelty of the guitar in Georgian England noting its impact on the social cultural and musical history of the period The instrument possessed an imagery as rich as its uses were varied it emerged as a potent symbol of Romanticism and was incorporated into poetry portraiture and drama In addition British and Irish soldiers returning from war in Spain and Portugal brought with them knowledge of the Spanish guitar and its connotations of stylish masculinity Christopher Page presents entirely new scholarship in order to place the guitar within a multifaceted context drawing from recently digitized original source material The Guitar in Georgian England champions an instrument whose importance in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is often overlooked
