Ambulance Girl Jane Stern, 2004-04-27 The basis for the movie starring Kathy Bates Ambulance Girl is an inspiring story by a woman who found somewhat late in life that in helping others I learned to help myself Jane Stern was a walking encyclopedia of panic attacks depression and hypochondria Her marriage of more than thirty years was suffering and she was virtually immobilized by fear and anxiety As the daughter of parents who both died before she was thirty Stern was terrified of illness and death and despite the fact that her acclaimed career as a food and travel writer required her to spend a great deal of time on airplanes she suffered from a persistent fear of flying and severe claustrophobia Yet this fifty two year old writer decided to become an emergency medical technician Stern tells her story with great humor and poignancy creating a wonderful portrait of a middle aged Woody Allen ish woman who was deeply and neurotically terrified of sick and dead people but who went out into the world to save other people s lives as a way of saving her own Her story begins with the boot camp of EMT training 140 hours at the hands of a dour ex marine who took delight in presenting a veritable parade of amputations hideous deformities and gross disasters Jane overweight and badly out of shape had to surmount physical challenges like carrying a 250 pound man seated in a chair down a dark flight of stairs After class she did rounds in the emergency room of a local hospital Each call Stern describes is a vignette of human nature often with a life in the balance From an AIDS hospice to town drunks yuppie wife beaters to psychopaths Jane comes to see the true nature and underlying mysteries of a town she had called home for twenty years Throughout the book we follow her as she gets her sea legs bonds with the firefighters who become her colleagues and eventually comes to be known as Ambulance Girl

Providing for the Casualties of War Bernard D. Rostker,2013-04-29 War has always been a dangerous business bringing injury wounds and death and until recently often disease What has changed over time most dramatically in the last 150 or so years is the care these casualties receive and who provides it This book looks at the history of how humanity has cared for its war casualties and veterans from ancient times through the aftermath of World War II

The World Turned Upside Down Melanie Phillips,2011-12-13 In what we tell ourselves is an age of reason we are behaving increasingly irrationally An astonishing number of people subscribe to celebrity endorsed cults Mayan armageddon prophecies scientism and other varieties of new age anti enlightenment philosophies Millions more advance popular conspiracy theories AIDS was created in a CIA laboratory Princess Diana was assassinated and the 9 11 attacks were an inside job In The World Turned Upside Down Melanie Phillips explains that the basic cause of this explosion of irrationality is the slow but steady marginalization of religion We tell ourselves that faith and reason are incompatible but the opposite is the case It was Christianity and the Hebrew Bible Phillips asserts that gave us our concepts of reason progress and an orderly world on which science and modernity are based Without its religious traditions the West has drifted into mass derangement where truth and lies right and wrong victim and aggressor are all turned upside down Scientists skeptical of global warming are hounded from their posts Israel is demonized and the US is vilified over the war on terror all on the basis of blatant falsehoods and obscene propaganda Worst of all asserts Phillips this abandonment of rationality leaves the West vulnerable to its legitimate threats Faced with the very real challenges of spiraling demographics and violent confrontational Islamism the West is no longer willing or able to defend the modernity and rationalism that it once brought into being

Picture Coverage of the World Heinz Dietrich Fischer, 2011 The Pulitzer Prizes for Press Photography are latecomers within the prestigious award system Established in 1942 during World War II they started with a general category called Photography covering all kinds of photographs After about a quarter century in 1968 this award category was divided into two separate prize groups entitled Spot News Photography and Feature Photography This book presents the decision making processes that lead to the annual Pulitzer Prize winners Additionally in each decision making case one award earning photo is reproduced to give an idea about the broad spectrum of aspects and themes declared prize worthy by the jurors Series Pulitzer Prize Panorama Vol 2
