Picture Of Roberto Burle Marx:

Roberto Burle Marx Jens Hoffmann, Claudia J. Nahson, 2016-01-01 An unprecedented look at the wide ranging artistic work of one of the 20th century's most significant landscape architects The modernist parks and gardens of Brazilian landscape architect and garden designer Roberto Burle Marx 1909 1994 earned him awards widespread acclaim and international fame Over a 60 year career he designed more than 2 000 gardens worldwide the most famous of which are those he created in collaboration with the architect Oscar Niemeyer for Brasilia Although he is best known for his landscape work Burle Marx was a prolific artist in a variety of media and his larger body of work which includes paintings drawings tile mosaics sculpture textile design jewelry theater costumes and more is critical to understanding his importance as a modernist An avid horticulturalist he was among the first to denounce deforestation in the Amazon region he also discovered over thirty species of Brazilian flora which bear his name This beautifully illustrated and groundbreaking publication covers the full range of Burle Marx's artistic output as well as his remarkable home an abandoned estate that he transformed into his office workshop gallery and living space The enduring influence of Burle Marx's work is also explored through interviews with seven contemporary artists Juan Araujo Paloma Bosqu Dominique Gonzalez Forster Luisa Lambri Arto Lindsay Nick Mauss and Beatriz Milhazes These artists exemplify the extent to which his work continues to be a source of inspiration

Roberto Burle Marx Lectures Gareth Doherty, 2013 Roberto Burle Marx 1909 1994 remains one of the leading landscape architects ever The significance of his landscape design lies in his use of abstract shapes that rarely employ symmetry and his use of tropical mainly Brazilian flora His distinctive and widely acclaimed work has been featured and referenced in numerous sources yet few of Burle Marx's own words have been published This book of previously unpublished lectures fills this void The lectures delivered on international speaking tours address topics such as The Garden as an Art in Living Gardens and Ecology and The Problem of Garden Lighting Their timely publication helps shed light on Burle Marx's distinctive style and ethos of landscape as a way of life

Roberto Burle Marx, 1990 The Cultivated Wild Raymond Jungles, 2015-10-20 A long awaited second book from the Miami based landscape architect lauded by the Wall Street Journal for dreaming up dense thickly forested canopies that give way to modern high rises and million dollar residences Color and texture burst forth at every turn in gardens by landscape architect Raymond Jungles Sculptural bromeliads swaying palms delicate epiphytes and vibrant orchids combine to immerse visitors in rich lush environments that captivate the eye with layer upon layer of interest Taking cues first from a site's topography and conditions Jungles combines tapestries of plants with unique water elements that enhance what nature has offered swaths of grasses and succulents direct the eye toward unspeakably romantic Caribbean vistas intriguingly pitted and mossy oolitic limestone monoliths create trickling waterfalls and hidden grottoes and innovative combinations of native trees surround sinuous and calming infinity pools The Cultivated Wild shows Jungles expanding to such diverse locales as Big Timber Montana Monterrey Mexico St Kitts and Nevis in the West Indies Abacos Bahamas and even the temporary Brazilian Modern Orchid Show for the New York Botanical Garden as well as responding creatively to sites unique to his adopted hometown rooftop gardens and pools including the penthouse Sky Garden atop the now iconic Herzog de Meuron designed parking garage at 1111 Lincoln Road along with its famous pedestrian promenade Jungles presents 21 gardens here in glorious full color many accompanied by highly personal hand drawn plans general and thumbnail plans sections sketches and design details that reveal the creative process Packed with inspiration for gardeners in warm zones and those interested in creating subtropical gardens of their own The Cultivated Wild reveals a firm working at the height of its talents

Roberto Burle Marx Lauro Cavalcanti, Farès El-Dahdah, Francis Rambert, 2011 Roberto Burle Marx Sao Paulo 1909 Rio de Janeiro 1994 is known as a landscape architect but also as a painter botanist gardener chef and jewellery designer He considered the garden to be one of the fine arts as the adaptation of the biome to civilisation's natural requirements This book introduces the realm of the full sensory experience Burle Marx's work with plants becomes highly pictorial everything is drawn coloured and constructed In this symbiosis between aesthetics and botany Burle Marx is the master of both species and spaces His work is the embodiment of the nature city a concept developed from the garden cities of the late 19th century which has become compromised in the 21st century due to the compact city model This new publication focuses on Burle Marx's scientific interest in the landscape and his relationship with the environment Concepts that continue to be of major significance in contemporary landscape architecture such as ecology garden as an art form and landscape design in the urban structure are some of the subjects the book deals with The visual information of the book is complemented by the texts by Fares El Dahdah Francis Rambert Jacques Leenhardt Jose Tabacow Lelia Coelho Frota Andre Correa do Lago Dorothee Imbert Valerie Fraser and Gilles Clement

The Gardens of Roberto Burle Marx Sima Eliovson, 1991 Building the New World Valerie Fraser, 2000 Brasilia Caracas Mexico City Rio de Janeiro these are cities synonymous with some of the most innovative and progressive architecture of the twentieth century The period between 1930 and 1960 in particular when many Latin American economies expanded rapidly was an era of incomparable inventiveness and creative production as the various governments strove to shake off their colonial pasts and make public their modernising intentions This book focuses on major state funded architectural projects featuring not only the high profile prestigious building like the House of Representatives in Brasilia but also social architecture such as schools and low cost housing developments Architects like Pani Costa Reidy and Niemeyer who undertook this work with considerable autonomy and significant financial resources in effect became social planners their avant garde aesthetic and technical experimentation often being teamed with radical social agendas By 1960 the year in which Brasilia was inaugurated economic growth in the region was slowing and faith in the modernist project in general was faltering The English speaking world which had previously endorsed and even envied Latin American architectural production changed its opinion and largely dismissed it from the history of twentieth century architecture Building the New World redresses the balance It provides an accessible introduction to the most important examples of state funded modernism in Latin America during a period of almost unimaginable optimism when politicians and architects saw architecture as literally a way of building themselves out of underdevelopment and into the new world of a culturally rich and socially inclusive future The Artful Garden James van Sweden, Tom Christopher, 2011-02-01 I want to put the mystery back into the heart of garden design where it needs to be It's what lures you in through the gate keeps you moving through the landscape and fills you with excitement along the way The sense of mystery is what turns a mere display of plants paths and ornaments into an adventure James van Sweden Guided by world renowned landscape architect James van Sweden and horticulture expert Tom Christopher any gardener can learn the secrets of the gardener's art and absorb the essence of inspired garden design In their gifted hands creating your own perfect garden with its own alluring mysteries turns out to be not only easy but a delight Whether it's a ten foot square city terrace or a ten acre expanse the same principles apply the intelligent use of positive and negative space of form and scale of light and shadow of rough and smooth textures Do you want a garden you can immerse yourself in A garden you can smell and listen to as well as observe An exuberant garden or a contemplative garden In this elegantly written and visually stunning book van Sweden reveals the secrets of famous gardens around the world and encourages you to find inspiration in the arts in painting from America's classic regional artists to the abstract expressionists music from classical to jazz sculpture even dance He introduces you to famous artists who share how their art has influenced the design of their own gardens and teaches you to think not in terms of borders and beds or even paths and meadows but of a tapestry woven from sky trees rocks vines flowers grasses and space Richly illustrated throughout with magnificent photographs The Artful Garden both tells and shows sharing with beginning and experienced gardeners a wealth of inspiration and practical help What's my message van Sweden asks in conclusion The wise answer Don't squander the potential for surprise and wonder This beautiful book guarantees everyone who reads it a priceless store of gardening wisdom Roberto Burle Marx Marta Iris Montero, Roberto Burle Marx, 2001-01-01 Roberto Burle Marx was one of the most influential landscape and garden designers of the 20th century This book presents 26 projects in plans photographs and Burle Marx's own paintings The introduction considers his life ideas and work Influential Gardeners Andrew Wilson, 2002 Reveals the history and development of garden and landscape design in the 20th century by focussing on the key personalities who have shaped and continue to form today's taste in gardens The 20th century was an important period when garden designers began to apply the same design principles to the smaller private garden or to public spaces as had previously been applied to country houses From early stars such as Gertrude Jekyll Russell Page and Thomas Church to pivotal contemporary designers such as Jacques Wirtz Kathryn Gustafson Beth Chatto and Peter Walker this overview puts the complete spectrum of garden designers into perspective The 56 garden and landscape designers whose work is featured in depth are organized by their prime focus colour and decoration plants concept form structure texture or materials The book is also full of anecdotes and quotes that
