experience is a tradition embodied by many long standing restaurants scattered throughout the small towns of Wisconsin. It is based around a bygone idea that going out to dinner should be an experience that lasts an entire evening emphasizing food made from scratch slow paced dining and family run businesses. Combine this with stately dark panel decor complimentary relish trays and the best brandy Old Fashioned sweet you'll ever have and you have barely scratched the surface of the Wisconsin supper club's appeal.

The signing of the Paris Peace Accords in 1973 signified the end of the Vietnam War. American personnel returned home and the 591 American prisoners held captive in North Vietnam were released. Still 2,646 individuals did not come home. Thirty-seven of those missing in action were from Wisconsin. Their names appear on the largest object a motorcycle now part of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Collection ever left at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Using the recollections of the soldiers, families, friends, and fellow servicemen, the author tells the story of each man's life.

Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1979 Catalogue of Copyright Entries, 1919 Public Roads, 1937 Nickelodeon, 1911 Great Pages in History from the Wisconsin State Journal, 1852-2002 Frank Denton, 2002

This fascinating collection reproduces the most important front pages in the history of the Wisconsin State Journal newspaper from its first publication under that name on September 30, 1852 to the current War on Terrorism. See what Wisconsinites first read about Abraham Lincoln's election and assassination, Custer's last stand against the Sioux, the first votes by women, Henry Ford's $5 daily wage, the Saint Valentine's Day mob massacre in Chicago, the disappearance of Amelia Earhart as she attempted to fly around the world, and the war's elections, crimes, and social revolutions that have defined the past century and a half. Each front page reproduced from the original is readable down to the smallest type. In 2002 the Wisconsin State Journal celebrates its Sesquicentennial, marking one hundred and fifty years of service to the people of Madison and the State of Wisconsin. The newspaper had an earlier inception as the Madison Express in 1839 when Madison was a territorial town on the frontier and statehood was still nine years away. Readers will notice the newspaper's appearance has changed nearly as much as have the methods of gathering the news and producing the paper. But readers' fascination with and hunger for the news of each day remain strong.
