Picture Palace:

Picture Palace Paul Theroux,1978 World famous photographer Maude Coffin Pratt has pointed her lens at the beautiful obscure and obscene and at the private places and public parts of the famous from Gertrude Stein to Graham Greene When the seventy year old Maude rummages through her archives in preparation for a triumphant retrospective the resurrected images unleash a flood of suppressed memories of her extraordinary life her celebrated subjects and the dark painful secret at the core of her existence Everybody Sing! Esther M. Morgan-Ellis,2018-01-15 During the 1920s a visit to the movie theater almost always included a sing along Patrons joined together to render old favorites and recent hits usually accompanied by the strains of a mighty Wurlitzer organ The organist was responsible for choosing the repertoire and presentation style that would appeal to his or her patrons so each theater offered a unique experience When sound technology drove both musicians and participatory culture out of the theater in the early 1930s the practice faded and was eventually forgotten Despite the popularity and ubiquity of community singing it was practiced in every state in theaters large and small there has been scant research on the topic This volume is the first dedicated account of community singing in the picture palace and includes nearly one hundred images such as photographs of the movie houses opulent interiors reproductions of sing along slides and stills from the original Screen Songs follow the bouncing ball cartoons Esther M Morgan Ellis brings the era of movie palaces to life She presents the origins of theater sing alongs in the prewar community singing movement describes the basic components of a sing along explores the unique presentation styles of several organists and assesses the aftermath of sound technology including the sing along films and children s matinees of the 1930s
