ever supported life and could also help answer questions about its geologic and climatic history Other projects should include a mission to Jupiter's icy moon Europa and its subsurface ocean and the Uranus Orbiter and Probe mission to investigate that planet's interior structure atmosphere and composition For medium size missions Vision and Voyages for Planetary Science in the Decade 2013-2022 recommends that NASA select two new missions to be included in its New Frontiers program which explores the solar system with frequent mid size spacecraft missions If NASA cannot stay within budget for any of these proposed flagship projects it should focus on smaller less expensive missions first Vision and Voyages for Planetary Science in the Decade 2013-2022 suggests that the National Science Foundation expand its funding for existing laboratories and establish new facilities as needed It also recommends that the program enlist the participation of international partners This report is a vital resource for government agencies supporting space science the planetary science community and the public

Hello, Is This Planet Earth? Tim Peake, 2017-06-06 The 1 international bestseller An astronaut's tour of our planet from the heavens featuring 150 mesmerizing photographs with commentary from the International Space Station During his six month mission to the International Space Station astronaut Tim Peake became the first British astronaut to complete a spacewalk and perhaps more astonishingly the first to run an entire marathon in space During his historic mission he captured hundreds of dazzling photographs the very best of which are collected here Tim captures the majesty of the cosmos and of the planet we call home breath taking aerial photos of the world's cities illuminated at night the natural beauty of the northern lights and unforgettable views of oceans mountains and deserts Tim's lively stories about life in space appear alongside these photographs including the tale from which the title is taken his famous wrong number dialed from space when he accidentally called a stranger and asked Hello is this planet Earth With this truly unique perspective on the incredible sights of our planet Tim demonstrates that while in space hundreds of miles above his friends and family he never felt closer to home

Big World, Small Planet Johan Rockström, Mattias Klum, 2015-09-22 A carefully laid out argument about the ecological limits of our planet and the challenge these limits pose to our patterns of life and economic growth Daniel C Esty coauthor of Green to Gold Big World Small Planet probes the urgent predicament of our times how is it possible to create a positive future for both humanity and Earth We have entered the Anthropocene the era of massive human impacts on the planet and the actions of over seven billion residents threaten to destabilize Earth's natural systems with cascading consequences for human societies In this extraordinary book the authors combine the latest science with compelling storytelling and amazing photography to create a new narrative for humanity's future Johan Rockström and Mattias Klum reject the notion that economic growth and human prosperity can only be achieved at the expense of the environment They contend that we have unprecedented opportunities to navigate a good Anthropocene By embracing a deep mind shift humanity can reconnect to Earth discover universal values and take on the essential role of planetary steward With eloquence and profound optimism Rockström and Klum envision a future of abundance within planetary boundaries a revolutionary future that is at once necessary possible and sustainable for coming generations We are inflicting grave damage on Planet Earth and if we carry on with business as usual we may reach the point of no return when ecosystems collapse and more and more species become extinct There is hope if only we can bridge the gap between the clever human brain and the compassionate human heart and act now Johan Rockström and Mattias Klum lead the way with scientific clarity powerful storytelling and inspiring and award winning photography Dr Jane Goodall Lonely Planet's Beautiful World
