Pictures At An Execution:

Pictures at an Execution Wendy Lesser, 1998-07-21 At the center of this book is Lesser's investigation in a groundbreaking legal case in which a federal court judge was asked to decide whether a gas chamber execution would be broadcast on public television This gripping work brings us face to face with our own most disturbing cultural impulses

Halftones Private Pictures Janina Struk, 2020-09-14 Snapshots taken by American soldiers of Iraqi prisoners stripped naked humiliated and tortured shocked the world in 2004 and more have followed from the conflict in Afghanistan but whether the public have been horrified by the soldiers' conduct or the fact they have taken pictures has not been clear In fact as this remarkable book reveals and relates soldiers have taken photographs of war and its atrocities for more than 100 years But their pictures are private intended mainly for the soldiers themselves as mementoes or as attempts to make sense of the chaos brutality and boredom of war They can be gruesome or sociable shocking or mundane and they are seldom regarded as serious contributions to a visual culture of war which since 1939 has been dominated by professional war photography But with the 21st century shift to simple digital photography transmission by the internet available to all and a new citizen journalism soldiers' pictures are acquiring a new resonance Private Pictures traces this unacknowledged genre of photography from the origins of popular photography in the Boer War through to the present day it discusses how the images have been used and it asks what effect might the wider appreciation of soldiers' pictures have on the popular perception of war

The 4 Disciplines of Execution Chris McChesney, Sean Covey, Jim Huling, 2016-04-12 BUSINESS STRATEGY The 4 Disciplines of Execution offers the what but also how effective execution is achieved They share numerous examples of companies that have done just that not once but over and over again This is a book that every leader should read Clayton Christensen Professor Harvard Business School and author of The Innovator's Dilemma Do you remember the last major initiative you watched die in your organization Did it go down with a loud crash Or was it slowly and quietly suffocated by other competing priorities By the time it finally disappeared it's likely no one even noticed What happened The whirlwind of urgent activity required to keep things running day to day devoured all the time and energy you needed to invest in executing your strategy for tomorrow The 4 Disciplines of Execution can change all that forever

Execution Eve William J. Buchanan, 1993 Written by the son of Warden Jesse Buchanan this is the story of the three men scheduled to die for the murder of Marion Miley and how Warden Buchanan devised an unorthodox course of action that changed his life and the course of capital punishment in America Notes on an Execution Danya Kukafka, 2023-01-24 Serial killer Ansel Packer is scheduled to die in twelve hours Told through a kaleidoscope of women a mother a sister a homicide detective we learn the story of Ansel's life We meet his mother Lavender a seventeen year old girl pushed to desperation Hazel twin sister to Ansel's wife inseparable since birth forced to watch helplessly as her sister's relationship threatens to devour them all and finally Saffy the detective hot on his trail who has devoted herself to bringing bad men to justice but struggles to see her own life clearly As the clock ticks down these three women sift through the choices that culminate in tragedy exploring the rippling fissures that such destruction inevitably leaves in its wake Blending breathtaking suspense with astonishing empathy Notes on an Execution presents a chilling portrait of womanhood as it simultaneously unravels the familiar narrative of the American serial killer interrogating our system of justice and our cultural obsession with crime stories asking readers to consider the false promise of looking for meaning in the psyches of violent men Ridpath's History of the World John Clark Ridpath, 1897 Visual Information Rune Pettersson, 1993

When the State Kills Austin Sarat, 2018-06-05 Is capital punishment just Does it deter people from murder What is the risk that we will execute innocent people These are the usual questions at the heart of the increasingly heated debate about capital punishment in America In this bold and impassioned book Austin Sarat seeks to change the terms of that debate Capital punishment must be stopped Sarat argues because it undermines our democratic society Sarat unflinchingly exposes us to the realities of state killing He examines its foundations in ideas about revenge and retribution He takes us inside the courtroom of a capital trial interviews jurors and lawyers who make decisions about life and death and assesses the arguments swirling around Timothy McVeigh and his trial for the bombing in Oklahoma City Aided by a series of unsettling color photographs he traces Americans' evolving quest for new methods of execution and explores the place of capital punishment in popular culture by examining such films as Dead Man Walking The Last Dance and The Green Mile Sarat argues that state executions once used by monarchs as symbolic displays of power gained acceptance among Americans as a sign of the people's sovereignty Yet today when the state kills it does so in a bureaucratic procedure hidden from view and for which no one in particular takes responsibility He uncovers the forces that sustain America's killing culture including overheated political rhetoric racial prejudice and the desire for a world without moral ambiguity Capital punishment Sarat shows ultimately leaves Americans more divided hostile indifferent to life's complexities and much further from solving the nation's ills In short it leaves us with an impoverished democracy The book's powerful and sobering conclusions point to a new abolitionist politics in which capital punishment should be banned not only on ethical grounds but also for what it does to Americans and what we cherish Last Meal Jacquelyn C. Black, 2003 What would your last meal be Folsom's 93 April Moore, 2013-07-01 From 1895 to 1937 93 men were hanged at California's Folsom State Prison and this book is the first to tell all of their stories recounting long forgotten tales of murder and swift justice or sometimes swift injustice that hanged an innocent man Based on a treasury of historical information that has been hidden from the public for nearly 70 years the full stories of these 93 executed men are presented in this collection including their origins their crimes the investigations that brought them to justice their trials and their deaths at the gallows This wealth of previously unpublished historical detail gives a vivid view of the sociology of early 20th century crime and of the resulting prison life Readers take a trip back in time to the hard boiled early 20th century California that inspired the novels of Dashiell Hammett and countless other crime writers Illustrated throughout with authentic and haunting prison photographs of each of the condemned men the crimes and punishments of a vanished era are brought into a sharp and realistic light Editor & Publisher ,1928 The fourth estate
