Julius Caesar Andrew Hartley,2015-11-01 Julius Caesar presents a performance history of a controversial play moving from its 1599 opening all the way into the new millennium with particular emphasis on its twentieth and twenty first century incarnations on stage and screen The book tracks the play's evolution from being a play about the oratorical skill of noble Romans to its recent manifestations as a dark political thriller Chapters in this theoretically savvy and global study consider productions such as Orson Welles's groundbreaking examination of European Fascism Joseph Mankeiwicz's Oscar winning 1953 film politically complex productions at the Royal Shakespeare Company and shows from around the world which interrogate their own cultural and educational context as well as pressing contemporary concerns such as the reach of mass media The result blows the dust off a play sometimes considered old fashioned navigates its thorny theatrical qualities and revels in those productions which have so excited audiences

Ferocious Ambition Robert Dance, 2023-10-12 Robert Dance's new evaluation of Joan Crawford looks at her entire career and while not ignoring her early years and tempestuous personal life focuses squarely on her achievements as an actress and as a woman who mastered the studio system with a rare combination of grit determination beauty and talent Crawford's remarkable forty five year motion picture career is one of the industry's longest Signing her first contract in 1925 she was crowned an MGM star four years later and by the mid 1930s was the most popular actress in America In the early 1940s Crawford's risky decision to move to Warner Bros was rewarded with an Oscar for Mildred Pierce This triumph launched a series of film noir classics In her fourth decade she teamed with rival Bette Davis in Whatever Happened to Baby Jane proving that Crawford whose career had begun by defining big screen glamour had matured into a superb dramatic actress Her last film was released in 1970 and two years later she made a final television appearance forty seven years after walking through the MGM gate for the first time Crawford made a successful transition into business during her later years notably in her long association with Pepsi Cola as a board member and the brand's leading ambassador Overlooked in previous biographies has been Crawford's fierce resolve in creating and then maintaining her star persona She let neither her age nor the passing of time block her unrivaled ambition and she continually reimagined herself noting once that for the right part she would play Wally Beery's grandmother But she was always the consummate star and at the time of her death in 1977 she was a motion picture legend and a twentieth century icon

Directing Virginia Wright Wexman, 2018-01-10 When a film is acclaimed the director usually gets the lion's share of the credit Yet the movie director's job especially the collaborations and compromises it involves remains little understood The latest volume in the Behind the Silver Screen series this collection provides the first comprehensive overview of how directing as both an art and profession has evolved in tandem with changing film industry practices Each chapter is written by an expert on a different period of Hollywood from the silent film era to today's digital filmmaking providing in depth examinations of key trends like the emergence of independent production after World War II and the rise of auteurism in the 1970s Challenging the myth of the lone director these studies demonstrate how directors work with a multitude of other talented creative professionals including actors writers producers editors and cinematographers Directing examines a diverse range of classic and contemporary directors including Orson Welles Tim Burton Cecil B DeMille Steven Soderbergh Spike Lee and Ida Lupino offering a rich composite picture of how they have negotiated industry constraints utilized new technologies and harnessed the creative contributions of their many collaborators throughout a century of Hollywood filmmaking     Backstory 2 Patrick McGilligan, 1991 Interviews with screenwriters
