Wright IV,2019-09-12 The essays in this collection all concern the interpretation of Scripture in relation to the Catholic Ressourcement A theological renewal movement that began in the early twentieth century the Ressourcement movement centered on a return to the sources such as Scripture the Church Fathers and liturgy The point of such a return was to discover in these sources the wisdom truth and spiritual insight which could speak meaningfully to contemporary challenges William M Wright first focuses on three major Ressourcement figures Henri de Lubac Yves Congar and Joseph Ratzinger and considers aspects of their theological thinking about Scripture or how Scripture is employed as a theological resource Next Wright examines Benedict XVI s Jesus of Nazareth books showing how they put into practice for a general readership many of the theological insights characteristic of the Ressourcement movement Last Wright considers how the theological insights of the Ressourcement movement can be used to as a resource for the interpretation of Scripture He uses characteristic Ressourcement concerns such as the relationship between the testaments the theology of history and liturgy to help illumine the biblical text Wright not only provides substantive examination of the place of the Bible in this important theological movement but also shows how the insights of the Ressourcement can be helpful for the interpretation of Scripture today Introduction to Phenomenology Robert Sokolowski,2000 Introductory volume presenting the major philosophical doctrines of phenomenology Categories

Michael Gorman, Jonathan J. Sanford, 2004-11 The essays in this volume written by a mix of well established and younger philosophers bridge divides between historical and systematic approaches in philosophy as well divides between analytical continental and American traditions Phenomenology in a New Key: Between Analysis and History Jeffrey Bloechl, Nicolas de Warren, 2015-01-19 In this collection of essays the sophistication and vibrancy of contemporary phenomenological research is documented including both its engagement with key figures in the history of philosophy and with critical problems defining future directions of philosophical investigations It honors the writings of Richard Cobb Stevens whose work in phenomenological philosophy analytic philosophy and the history of philosophy has served as model for generations of philosophers working between these three fields of research The essays collected in this volume provide a unique window on the contemporary state of the art in phenomenological philosophy by leading scholars of international reputation from North America and Europe Historical figures such as Aristotle and Hobbes are innovatively brought into dialogue with phenomenological thinking Phenomenological thinking is brought to bear on a wide variety of problems from the nature of artworks and photography to questions concerning consciousness and knowledge Among the topics discussed in these specially commissioned essays phenomenology and Aristotle the nature of the primal ego Hobbes and Husserl intentionality and reference Neo Aristotelian ethics Husserl and Wittgenstein photography the nature of artworks Michel de Montaigne Ann Hartle, 2003-03-27 Michel de Montaigne the inventor of the essay has always been acknowledged as a great literary figure but has never been thought of as a philosophical original This book treats Montaigne as a serious thinker in his own right taking as its point of departure Montaigne s description of himself as an unpremeditated and accidental philosopher Whereas previous commentators have treated Montaigne s Essays as embodying a scepticism harking back to classical sources Ann Hartle offers an account that reveals Montaigne s thought to be dialectical transforming sceptical doubt into wonder at the most familiar aspects of life This major reassessment of a much admired but also much underestimated thinker will interest a wide range of historians of philosophy as well as scholars in comparative literature French studies and the history of ideas Ethics and Theological Disclosures Guy Mansini, James G. Hart, 2003 Honouring distinguished philosopher and professor Robert Sokolowski for his work in phenomenology the essays included in this collection demonstrate the reception and fruitfulness of Sokolowski s analysis of moral action and his idea of a theology of disclosure

Phenomenology of the Icon Stephanie Rumpza, 2023-08-31 How can something finite mediate an infinite God Weaving patristics theology art history aesthetics and religious practice with the hermeneutic phenomenology of Hans George Gadamer and Jean Luc Marion Stephanie Rumpza proposes a new answer to this paradox by offering a fresh and original approach to the Byzantine icon She demonstrates the power and relevance of the phenomenological method to integrate hermeneutic aesthetics and divine transcendence notably how the material and visual dimensions of the icon are illuminated by traditional practices of prayer Rumpza's study targets a problem that is a major fault line in the continental philosophy of religion the integrity of finite beings I relation to a God that transcends them For philosophers her book demonstrates the relevance of a cherished religious practice of Eastern Christianity For art historians she proposes a novel philosophical paradigm for understanding the icon as it is approached in practice Gadamer's Hermeneutics Robert J. Dostal, 2022-01-15 In Gadamer's Hermeneutics Robert J Dostal provides a comprehensive and critical account of Hans Georg Gadamer's hermeneutical philosophy arguing that Gadamer's enterprise is rooted in the thesis that being that can be understood is language He defends Gadamer against charges of linguistic idealism and emphasizes language s relationship to understanding though he criticizes Gadamer for too often ignoring the role of the prelinguistic in our experience Dostal goes on to explain the concept of the inner word for Gadamer's account of language The book situates Gadamer's hermeneutics in three important ways in relation to the contestability of the legacy of the Enlightenment project in relation to the work of his mentor Martin Heidegger and in relation to Gadamer's reading of Plato and Aristotle Dostal explores both Gadamer's claim on the Enlightenment and his ambivalence toward it He considers Gadamer's dependence on Heidegger's accomplishment while pointing out the ways in which Gadamer charted his own course rejecting his teacher s reading of Plato and his antihumanism Dostal points out notable differences in the philosophers politics as well Finally Dostal mediates between Gadamer's hermeneutics and what might be called philological hermeneutics His analysis defends the civic humanism that is the culmination of the philosopher s hermeneutics a humanism defined by moral education common sense judgment and
