National Parks (Illustrated) John Muir, 2024-01-09 John Muir's California Collection is a comprehensive compilation of some of his most influential works including My First Summer in the Sierra Picturesque California The Mountains of California The Yosemite Our National Parks. Muir's writing style is characterized by his vivid descriptions of the natural world, his deep connection to the wilderness, and his advocacy for environmental conservation. These texts provide readers with a unique and profound insight into the beauty of California's landscapes and the importance of preserving them. Muir's poetic prose and detailed observations set these works apart as essential reading for anyone interested in the natural world and the history of conservation efforts in the United States. Muir's passion for nature and the outdoors is evident in every word he writes, making his works both informative and inspirational. John Muir's California Collection is a must-read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the environmental movement and the stunning landscapes of California.

Picturesque and Artistic Homes of California Joseph C. Newsom, 1890* At Home in the Wine Country Heather Sandy Hebert, Chase Reynolds Ewald, 2021-09-07 Showcasing 17 stunning residences in California wine country designed by top architects and designers. Through compelling narrative and stunning photography, authors Heather Hebert and Chase Ewald feature the architecture style and design of 17 homes plus 4 unique auxiliary structures in California's picturesque wine country. At Home in the Wine Country showcases the work of many of California's top architects and designers with styles ranging from modern farmhouse to refined rustic to updated agrarian to unapologetically modern. This virtual tour documents a native terroir-derived style that has evolved dramatically since the days when the region looked to European chateaux for inspiration. These ranges of styles, as well as the varied approaches to managing environmental factors, is broad and captivating and pays homage to wine country living in an atmosphere of understated family-focused hospitality. The California wine country is a region without distinct edges. In recent decades, this region has come to be defined by its lifestyle just as much as its wines. It has developed its own ethos, one whose contemporary expression is creative, sustainably minded, art-filled, and bathed in light. It has a youthful attitude and a decided sense of fun. Central to this distinct way of life is the indoor-outdoor experience; today's homes seamlessly integrate the region's sublime scenery and climate with its cuisine and lifestyle. At Home in the Wine Country pays homage to a region that is ever-innovating, adapting, and evolving and showcases the best of design and lifestyle in California's iconic landscapes.

Bay Area Style David Weingarten, 2004 The San Francisco Bay Area is one of the most beautiful and romantic spots in America, and for over a hundred years some of the country's greatest architects have graced the region with their work. Bay Area Style houses exhibit a distinct and frequently dramatic relationship to the outdoors while suggesting a feeling of informality. Emerging from the California Craftsman Style, these houses use natural materials including wood and river stone. Bay Area Style showcases a variety of the most extraordinary homes from this remarkable region and spans more than a century, revealing the development of a rich tradition. These houses capture the spirit of the place and embody the region's unique style. Featured are houses by architectural luminaries Ernest Coxhead, Bernard
