

The background is a vibrant collage. In the top left, a large, bright yellow sun with a textured, gear-like border is set against a blue sky with white speckles. Below the sun, green hills and trees are visible. In the foreground, two figures are depicted. On the left, a figure with a green head and a grey body is shown in a dynamic pose, as if jumping or dancing. On the right, a figure with a red head and a brown body is also in a dynamic pose. A thin, brown, curved line, resembling a string or a path, winds across the scene, passing behind the title. The overall style is artistic and handcrafted, using various materials and colors to create a rich, textured scene.

Edward Cardwell,1836 A Modern Relation of Theology and Science Assisted by Emergence and Kenosis Bradford McCall,2018-02-28 How should we attempt to understand the relationship between theology and science in the twenty first century In this book I will attempt to answer this question by examining several previous attempts to classify this relationship I also develop my personal view of the relation thereafter discussing some Catholic contributions to this project and then revisit some of my previously published material highlighting the role of panentheism therein and noting an emergent implication from the literature the resultant possibilities for God an implication that creates space for a broadly relational perspective of the process of emergence These movements allow me to argue that kenosis and emergence can add to the discussion of understanding the theology and science relationship Herein I advocate a monistic process based view of the overlapping relationship between theology and science The Healing Imagination Ann Ulanov,Barry Ulanov,2020 This eloquent work speaks of the centrality of imagination in the life of the spirit Ann and Barry Ulanov describe the imagination as a bridge between the psyche and the spirit Using rich imagery drawn from literature film and their own experience as therapists they unlock for us the healing power of our imagination Imagination heals by building a bridge sturdy enough to link us up each of us to the river of being already present in us to the currents flowing through us and among us in our unconscious life After describing this healing power of imagination the authors go on to show how it is vital in the spiritual life in preaching prayer teaching counseling and politics God's Kingdom through God's Covenants Peter J.
