Becoming Visible in Iran Mehri Honarbin-Holliday, 2009-02-28 The state of women in Islamic societies is the subject of much interest and heated debate Yet these discussions and representations in the media and elsewhere rely on inadequate information and misperceptions imagining Muslim women as oppressed victims in need of liberation by outside forces Becoming Visible in Iran disputes these widespread stereotypes providing a vivid account of women in contemporary Iran as they go about their daily lives Beginning at home women are infusing dramatic change by challenging the patriarchal conceptions of their fathers brothers uncles and others within the intimate sphere of family and home Empowered by education they transport the power of their minds and being from the domestic to the public and political Mehri Honarbin Holliday presents the experiences of these young women who wield a key if indirect political influence on the seemingly male dominated politics of this society as they achieve a new visibility She shows us how women understand their place in contemporary Iranian society and how they interrogate it making demands for shifts in attitudes and behaviours both at home in relation to male relatives and in the wider world Women s daily existence weaves between the public and the private from home to classrooms parks metros cafes and taxis negotiating socio political limitations and the current regime s policies of female invisibility Detailed interviews and striking narratives draw our attention to the women s reflexive and critical stance and their desires to be recognized as independent and active architects of their own personal lives whilst also contributing to the discourses of change and a more just civil society From this fieldwork and focusing especially on young women Honarbin Holliday presents women s views on such key topics as public visibility body presentation and sexual curiosity in addition to education civil society and political and social change Highlighting links and continuities with the history of women in Iran from the early twentieth century to the present moment she shows how Iranian women today strive to be the author of one s fate to resist narrow interpretations of religion to conduct meaningful rich and complex lives to bring about change in the mindsets of male relatives and to contribute to legal and political debates in the country For its direct presentation of women s voices as well as its analysis and insight this book is a vital contribution to our understanding of the lives of Muslim women and the possibilities before them today Becoming Visible in Iran is indispensable for those concerned with women in Islamic societies gender studies sociology anthropology as well as Iran and the Middle East

The Iranian Metaphysicals Alireza Doostdar, 2018-03-13 What do the occult sciences s ances with the souls of the dead and appeals to saintly powers have to do with rationality Since the late nineteenth century modernizing intellectuals religious leaders and statesmen in Iran have attempted to curtail many such practices as superstitious instead encouraging the development of rational religious sensibilities and dispositions However far from diminishing the diverse methods through which Iranians engage with the immaterial realm these rationalizing processes have multiplied the possibilities for metaphysical experimentation The Iranian Metaphysicals examines these experiments and their transformations over the past century Drawing on years of ethnographic and archival research Alireza Doostdar shows that metaphysical experimentation lies at the center of some of the most influential intellectual and religious movements in modern Iran These forms of exploration have not only produced a plurality of rational orientations toward metaphysical phenomena but have also fundamentally shaped what is understood as orthodox Shi i Islam including the forms of Islamic rationality at the heart of projects for building and sustaining an Islamic Republic Delving into frequently neglected aspects of Iranian spirituality politics and intellectual inquiry The Iranian Metaphysicals challenges widely held assumptions about Islam rationality and the relationship between science and religion

Iran Today Manochehr Dorraj, Mehran Kamrava, 2008-10-30 Iran dominates the media headlines once again and has taken center stage in the U S and European Union strategy toward the Middle East A more nuanced understanding of Iranian society has assumed even greater significance and urgency Iran Today An Encyclopedia of Life in the Islamic Republic offers crucial insight for students and the general reader into an often misunderstood and complex country that is shrouded in mystery and misperception. Heir to a long history and a great culture and civilization, Iran embodies a rich, complex and diverse mosaic that defines its national identity. Diversity is also the operative word that describes Iranian landscapes and geography, its multiple ethnic groups and their varied cultures and traditions, as well as the uneven and vastly different levels of economic and industrial development, conflicting political tendencies and different and often contradictory social and cultural outlooks. Because of its tumultuous recent political history, Iran appears to encapsulate all of these internal differences and stark contrasts somewhat more distinctly than most of its neighbors. The 1978-1979 revolution transformed the society and culture in fundamental ways and redefined social life. It created new institutions of governance and Islamicized the culture, education and the legal system in an attempt to create a new society that would usher in the reign of piety and virtue. Yet Islamization had to come to terms with pre-Islamic and illustrious Persian history and culture, as well as the realities of an interdependent, postmodern, globalized world in which, as a developing country, Iran resides in the periphery. Within this framework, the dynamics and complexity of social life in the Islamic Republic unfold. This encyclopedia is the source for up-to-date, authoritative information on a full range of critical topics of interest. Coverage of the Islamic Republic here falls into the general categories of history, politics, economics, society and culture. The most significant aspects of the life in Iran since the revolution, the era of the Islamic Republic so far, are stressed. The wide range of entries shows the richness and complexity of Iranian society, its multiple and varied facets, its expressions and outward manifestations, and its nuanced responses to political repression, instability, war, pervasive crisis, and the chronic tension between modernity and tradition. Some of the entries designed to highlight these important phenomena revolve around the country's ethnic mosaic, the social role and position of women, veiling, the educational system, sports, intellectuals, the arts and artistic expression, literature, poetry, cuisine, healthcare and the family. Other entries range from regionalism and urban development to the petroleum industry, agriculture, the banking system, issues of wealth and poverty, class structure and economic mobility, and the private sector. In a number of significant areas, economic, social and cultural phenomena intersect. These intersections are reflected in entries on broadcasting and communications technology, the Internet, public relations, electronic and print media, and family planning and healthcare. A chronology, selected bibliography, and photos complement the entries.

Revolutionary Bodies K. S. Batmanghelichi, 2020-12-10. Gender and sexuality in modern Iran is frequently examined through the prism of nationalist symbols and religious discourse from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. In this book, Kristin Soraya Batmanghelichi takes a different approach by interrogating how normative ideas of women's bodies in state, religious and public health discourses have resulted in the female body being deemed as immodest and taboo. Through a diverse blend of sources, a popular cultural women's journal, a red light district, cases studies of temporary marriages, iconic public statues, and an HIV/AIDS advocacy organization in Tehran, this work argues that conceptions of gender and sexuality have been mediated in public discourse and experienced and modified by women.

whole of the modern period from colonial conquest and domination to decolonization the Cold War from start to finish the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the renewed instability in certain areas Not only did the colonial regimes lay a new patina over the region but nationalism remoulded all old identities into a series of new ones That process of the twentieth century was perhaps the most transformative of all after the colonial subjugation of the nineteenth While it has been the basis of remarkable stability in vast stretches of the region it has been a fertile source of tension and even wars in other parts The impact and the results of such changes have been astonishingly variable despite the proximity of these states to each other and their being subject to or driven by virtually the same compulsions      Vanguard of the Imam Afshon
