The Structure and Status of Pidgins and Creoles Arthur Kean Spears, Donald Winford, 1997-01-01. Destined to become a landmark work, this book is devoted principally to a reassessment of the content, categories, boundaries and basic assumptions of pidgin and creole studies. It includes revised and elaborated papers from meetings of the Society for Pidgin and Creole Linguistics in addition to commissioned papers from leading scholars in the field. As a group, the papers undertake this reassessment through a reevaluation of pidgin/creole terminology and contact language typology. Section One: a questioning of process and evolution in pidginization/creolization and other language contact phenomena. Section Two: a reinterpretation of the sources and genesis of grammatical aspects of Saramaccan and Atlantic creoles in general. Section Three: a reconsideration of the status of languages defying received definitions of pidgins and creoles. Section Four: analyses of aspects of grammar that shed light on the issue of what a possible creole grammar is. Section Five: Language in Australia. Suzanne Romaine, 1991. Linguists and non-linguists will find in this volume a guide and reference source to the rich linguistic heritage of Australia.
