Pierre Perrault And The Poetic Documentary:

Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary David Clandfield, Pierre Perrault, Toronto International Film Festival Group, 2004-10-14 One of the great exponents of the direct cinema style Quebecois poet essayist and film maker Pierre Perrault 1927 1999 began his documentary career in radio before joining the more traditional Ren e Bonni ere filming life in the lower St Lawrence In the 1960s he joined the National Film Board of Canada to shoot films in the new direct style taking a small two man crew into communities to reveal their beliefs and allegiances as they coped with social change His legendary trilogy on the Ile aux Coudres opened with his most famous work Pour la suite du monde 1963 Ostensibly a look at the local people s effort to revive a traditional beluga hunt it is actually the beginning of a lifelong inquiry into the relationship between community and national identity This relationship emerges most clearly in the highly poetic Un pays sans bon sens 1970 which brought Perrault into conflict with the NFB The film was sidelined for many years After a trip outside Quebec to Moncton to document francophone student unrest Perrault made a second trilogy this one in northwestern Quebec showing the collapse of traditional farming communities relocated to the Abitibi during the Great Depression Further explorations took Perrault to the northern interiors of Quebec the hunting woods of Maniwaki and to the tall ships retracing Jacques Cartier s voyages of discovery The trilogy culminated in the desolate arctic landscapes of the mysterious muskox and two of his most haunting creations The first major publication on Perrault in English Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary discusses not only the world that Perrault s cinema revealed but a revolution in film making from a great poet Co written and edited by David Clandfield Principal of New College in the University of Toronto Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary also features contributions from scholar Jerry White as well as translations of some of Perrault s writings on film Published by the Toronto International Film Festival Distributed in Canada by Wilfrid Laurier University Press Distributed outside Canada by Indiana University Press The Radio Eye Jerry White, 2009-11-17 The Radio Eye Cinema in the North Atlantic 1958 1988 examines the way in which media experiments in Quebec Newfoundland the Faroe Islands and the Irish Gaelic speaking communities of Ireland use film video and television to advocate for marginalized communities and often for smaller languages The Radio Eye is not however a set of isolated case studies Author Jerry White illustrates the degree to which these experiments are interconnected sometimes implicitly but more often quite explicitly Media makers in the North Atlantic during the period 1958 1988 were very aware of each other s cultures and aspirations and by structuring the book in two interlocking parts White illustrates the degree to which a common project emerged during those three decades The book is bound together by White s belief that these experiments are following in the idealism of Soviet silent filmmaker Dziga Vertov who wrote about his notion of the Radio Eye White also puts these experiments in the context of work by the Cuban filmmaker and theorist Julio Garc a Espinosa and his notion of imperfect cinema J rgen Habermas and his notions of the public sphere and dourard Glissant s ideas about cr olit as the defining aspect of modern culture This is a genuinely internationalist moment and these experiments are in conversation with a wide array of thought across a number of languages

Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first. When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology, inexact formulations, sliding definitions and abstract generalities. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers. Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions. The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus, Gaze, Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics, Gilles Deleuze's Time-Image and Jean-Luc Nancy's Evidence. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline.

Bibliographic Index, 2007 International Index to Film Periodicals, 2007 Film in Canada Jim Leach, 2006. Film in Canada offers a comprehensive examination of Canadian cinema in its political and cultural contexts. While highlighting the films and filmmakers that have defined the national industry since the 1960s, this book also looks at many of the factors that have influenced Canadian filmmaking including Canada's ethnic and linguistic diversity, the country's national identity and the emergence of a global media marketplace. Each chapter explores both historical trends and contemporary examples of a specific topic, allowing the chapters to be used in sequence or independently. With careful annotations, a detailed filmography and bibliography, and a ten-page insert of film stills, this book is ideal for students of Canadian film or of Canadian arts and culture generally.

BOOK JACKET L'archipel de Caïn Daniel Laforest, 2010-10-28 T00:00:00-04:00. Pierre Perrault est surtout connu pour ses films. Il en a réalisés près de vingt dont Pour la suite du monde en 1963 et Un pays sans bon sens en 1970. Mais il a aussi écrit et réalisé des missions radiophoniques et il a fait paraître un grand nombre de livres des transcriptions commentées et illustrées de six de ses films, une pièce de théâtre, des récits, des essais et des recueils de poèmes. Quel que soit son mode d'expression, cependant, c'est le titre de poète qu'il a toujours revendiqué. L'archipel de Caïn est le premier livre offrir un regard d'ensemble sur son travail littéraire. Daniel Laforest y questionne les déplacements incessants de Perrault travers le territoire du Québec entre la ville et la campagne, entre le familier et l'étranger, entre la parole et l'écoute, entre les images et les mots, et partant, entre le Québec et son devenir afin de comprendre le rôle fondamental du langage de la nation et de la culture chez un auteur qu'on se trop souvent content de lire reculons. Le résultat s'avère fort surprenant. Professeur adjoint d'études françaises à l'Université d'Alberta, Daniel Laforest mène des recherches sur les transformations des milieux de vie depuis l'après-guerre, l'urbanité, les banlieues, la ruralité et sur leurs représentations dans les littératures et les discours culturels au Québec et au Canada. Il s'intéresse également à l'histoire des traditions du réalisme dans la théorie, la littérature et les
