John Burt Foster, Jr., Wayne Froman

Pierre Loti Portrait Of An Escapist:

PIERRE LOTI Lesley Blanch, 2019-08-07 The definitive biography of the eccentric bisexual naval officer traveller amateur acrobat and best selling novelist who was given a state funeral in 1923 the only French writer to have received such an honour other than Victor Hugo Pierre Loti born Julien Viaud in 1850 was himself his own fictional creation and lived his picaresque fantasies instead of just imagining them Everything he wrote novels included is partly autobiographical He had a powerful influence on Marcel Proust and Henry James Bohemian exotic and fiercely romantic adored and scorned by French society in equal measure Loti spent his life escaping the constraints of bourgeois France and in so doing redefined his age He travelled the South Seas Asia and the Middle East his great obsession and loved with intense passion and freedom wherever he went One of the first foreign correspondents Loti's published work includes travel books and war reports from Indochina Turkey and China during the Boxer rebellion Today his house in Rochefort is a museum One elaborately tiled room is a fantasia of a mosque Another room evokes a medieval banquet hall NEW YORK REVIEW OF BOOKS Part Casanova part Ren and part Baron Munchhausen Loti got out of scrapes and away with behaviour that would normally lead to disaster disgrace even death as in the case of the Turkish lady whom he abducted from her husband's harem night after night and sometimes for days on end This adventure forms the subject of his anonymously published novel Aziyad 1877 The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Tahiti The Marriage Of Loti Pierre Loti, 2014-04-08 First published in 2002 Set in Tahiti in 1872 this is an autobiographical novel that tells of the love affair between a beautiful island girl and the French naval officer who wrote under the name of Pierre Loti Mutual (In)Comprehensions Rosemary Mitchell, 2013-07-26 This collection of essays by French and British humanities scholars explores the complex relationship between the two nations in the long nineteenth century Both countries contemplated the other with admiration and anxiety using their best enemy to shape their own national identities Mutual In Comprehensions is unique in the range of its coverage which includes artistic literary economic educational social and historical interpretations interactions and appropriations British railway engineers consider the character of the French railway worker a French illustrator portrays with disturbing insight the social divisions of Victorian London British agricultural writers find cause for reflection in the condition of the French peasantry and an English Anglo Catholic considers the lessons for her church in the history of post Reformation French Catholicism French architects discover something to admire in the British Gothic Revival while geographical societies on both sides of the Channel exhibit a spirit of international co operation Including the work of both established academics and young scholars the collection demonstrates the significance of Franco British interactions over the long nineteenth century and shows that as ever British culture can only be fully understood within a Continental framework and vice versa This volume will appeal to scholars of Victorian culture in particular French and British nineteenth century literature and art as well as to academics interested in the development of national identities and international cultural relations Colonialism and

Homosexuality Robert Aldrich,2008-01-28 Colonialism and Homosexuality is a thorough investigation of the connections of homosexuality and imperialism from the late 1800s the era of new imperialism until the era of decolonization Robert Aldrich reconstructs the context of a number of liaisons including those of famous men such as Cecil Rhodes E M Forster or Andr Gide and the historical situations which produced both the Europeans and their non Western lovers Colonial lands which in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century included most of Africa South and Southeast Asia and the islands of the Pacific and Indian Oceans and the Caribbean provided a haven for many Europeans whose sexual inclinations did not fit neatly into the constraints of European society Each of the case studies is a micro history of a particular colonial situation a sexual encounter and its wider implications for cultural and political life Students both of colonial history and of gender and queer studies will find this an informative read Representing the South Pacific Rod Edmond,1997-11-20 This book examines how the South Pacific was represented by explorers missionaries travellers writers and artists between 1767 and 1914 by drawing on history literature art history and anthropology Edmond engages with colonial texts and postcolonial theory criticising both for their failure to acknowledge the historical specificity of colonial discourses and cultural encounters and for continuing to see indigenous cultures in essentially passive or reactive terms The book offers a detailed and grounded reading back of these colonial discourses into the metropolitan centres which gave rise to them while resisting the idea that all representations of other cultures are merely self representations Among its themes are the persistent myth making around the figure of Cook the western obsession with Polynesian sexuality tattooing cannibalism and leprosy and the Pacific as a theatre for adventure and as a setting for Europe s displaced fears of its own cultural extinction Writing Marginality in Modern French Literature Edward J. Hughes,2001-04-23 Writing Marginality in Modern French Literature first published in 2001 explores how cultural centres require the peripheral the outlawed and the deviant in order to define and bolster themselves It analyses the hierarchies of cultural value which inform the work of six modern French writers the exoticist Pierre Loti Paul Gauguin whose Noa Noa enacts European fantasies about Polynesia Proust who analyses such exemplary figures of exclusion and inclusion as the homosexual and the xenophobe Montherlant who claims to subvert colonialist values in La Rose de sable Camus who pleads an alienating detachment from the cultures of both metropolitan France and Algeria and Jean Genet Crucially Genet who was typecast as France s moral pariah in charting Palestinian statelessness in his last work Un Captif amoureux 1986 reflects ethically on the dispossession of the Other and the violence inherent in the West s marginalization of cultural difference French Orientalism Desmond Hosford,Chong J. Wojtkowski,2010-07-12 In 1798 Napol on I launched his Egyptian Campaign and opened what has become recognized as the canonic period of French

Orientalism which extends from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth century As defined by Edward W Said Orientalism 1978 Orientalism is intrinsically Eurocentric and places the Orient in opposition to the European West as the quintessentially foreign Other In this sense the Occident supposedly defines itself by gazing at the East as its inverse image and purportedly asserts a geopolitical dominance materially confirmed through imperialism and colonization Although Europe may cast the Orient as the archetypal Other this necessarily entails deep conflict since the Orient is also frequently posited as the source of Western civilization which prohibits the articulation of a complete separation between Europe and the Orient Nevertheless according to French Orientalist discourse the East had fallen into barbarism inertia and languished awaiting the mission civilisatrice by which France undertook a heroic project of universal enlightenment The canonic approach to Orientalism has drawn much criticism which calls for re examining the notion of French Orientalism broadening the scope of enquiry and exploring the history and ideological strategies behind French formulations of the Orient from the Middle Ages through the twenty first century Such an expanded field of investigation reveals that the canonic Orientalist paradigm is not universally applicable particularly regarding material from before the late eighteenth century New theoretical literary historical philosophical and cultural perspectives provide the opportunity to deploy question subvert and resituate canonic Orientalist theories revealing the continuing evolution and relevance of French Orientalism as a notion with global stakes and material consequences Because of its broad scope and variety of theoretical approaches this volume will interest scholars and students from a wide spectrum of disciplines including literature gender studies history theater art history music cinema and cultural studies

Thresholds of Western Culture John Burt Foster, Jr., Wayne

Froman, 2003-01-01 Thresholds of Western Culture explores identity postcoloniality and transnationalism three closely related issues which redefine contemporary cultural identity The book opens with an analysis of subjectivity and the cultural meltdown that accompanied fascism in the West The situation in Africa is then explored which while recalling modernity's dark side highlights the intricacy of postcolonial identity Post Soviet Eastern Europe presents a separate case of neglected postcoloniality which emphasizes how ethnocentrism and cultural tensions have exposed the fragility of transnationalism The book concludes with an examination of East Asia a region which offers transnational options potentially much more fruitful than Balkanization

Empire of Love Matt K. Matsuda, 2005-01-20 In this broad ranging survey of Paris Tahiti Indochina

Japan New Caledonia and the South Pacific generally Matt Matsuda illustrates the fascinating interplay that shaped the imaginations of both colonizer and colonized Drawing on a wealth of primary sources Matsuda describes the constitution of a French Pacific through the eyes of Tahitian monarchs Kanak warriors French politicians and prisoners Asian revolutionaries and Central American laborers among others He argues that French imperialism in the Pacific both real and imagined was registered most forcefully in languages of desire and love for lost islands promised wealth and riches carnal and spiritual pleasures and political affinities Exploring the conflicting engagements with love for and against the empire in the Pacific

this book is an imaginative and ground breaking work in global imperial and colonial histories as well as Pacific histories

Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History Vol.1 Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2005-10-25 Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History From Antiquity to the Mid Twentieth Century is a comprehensive and fascinating survey of the key figures in gay and lesbian history from classical times to the mid twentieth century Among those included are Classical heroes Achilles Aeneas Ganymede Literary giants Sappho Christopher Marlowe Arthur Rimbaud Oscar Wilde Royalty and politicians Edward II King James I Horace Walpole Michel de Montaigne Over the course of some 500 entries expert contributors provide a complete and vivid picture of gay and lesbian life in the Western world throughout the ages Desert Divers Sven

Lindqvist, 2013-12-05 In the first half of the twentieth century European writers plunged into the stony baking expanse of the Sahara drawn by their own strange dreams What did they hope to find And what was really there In Desert Divers part travel book part literary history and part confession Sven Lindqvist follows their paths into the Sahara and drags to the surface the history of colonial slaughter and exploitation that enabled Europeans to conduct their one sided affair with the desert

Ethics of Description Matt Reeck, 2023-09-29 Ethics of Description The Anthropological Dispositif and French Modern Travel Writing follows the development of a minor tradition in French literature where metropolitan authors traveling abroad demonstrate their awareness of the ethical conundrums of representing world peoples During the colonial modern era currents of anthropological thought and representational practice are identifiable throughout society and across literature the arts and the sciences Collectively they can be theorized as belonging to a dispositif the anthropological dispositif The modernization of anthropology serves as an ambivalent interlocutor for the realizations of the writers studied in this book about the difficulties of describing cultural realities that lie largely outside their ken Anthropology motivates new literary representational strategies that are alternatively in keeping with scientific mandates or operate against them Forty images are analyzed alongside literary works A postcolonial chapter shows how the ethical awareness of the colonial modern authors studied have impacted minority self representation in contemporary France Lesley Blanch Anne Boston, 2014-08-28

Blanch writer artist and adventuress followed her own compass in everything she did She called herself a romantic traveller her appetite for the exotic colours all her books The first The Wilder Shores of Love became a worldwide bestseller and is still in print Emotions she insisted can be transposed to places or countries and in this she was her own best example Her guiding passion for Russia began in childhood later she found the eternal Slav in Romain Gary Franco Slav diplomat and writer and with him embarked on a series of postings from Bulgaria to Los Angeles After their divorce she transferred her obsession to Turkey Persia and the Islamic East where she travelled widely with tremendous baggage She eventually settled on the Cote d Azur in a small pink villa dressed as exotically as herself Lesley Blanch loved mystery vivid yet elusive she hid as much as she revealed and created a legend about her early past In this first biography Anne Boston draws on publishers archives unpublished journals and conversations with those who knew her to piece together the portrait of an escapist for whom character plus opportunity equals fortune Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers The French Presence in the South Pacific, 1842-1940 Robert Aldrich, 1989-06-18 An examination of France's presence in the South Pacific after the takeover of Tahiti It places the South Pacific in the context of overall French expansion and current theories of colonialism and imperialism and evaluates the French impact on Oceania

A Vision of the Orient J. L. Wisenthal, Sherrill E. Grace, Melinda Boyd, 2006-01-01 Best known as the story from the 1904 Puccini opera the compelling modern myth of Madame Butterfly has been read watched and re interpreted for many years This volume examines the Madame Butterfly narrative in a variety of cultural contexts literary musical theatrical cinematic historical and political The Way to Isfahan Pierre Loti, 2021-07-02 From 17 April 1900 to 6 June of that year Pierre Loti travelled in a private capacity from Bushire on the Persian Gulf northwards through Shiraz Persepolis Isfahan and Tehran before returning via the Caspian Sea to Europe This is the personal day by day account of his journey the hardships of the mountainous terrain and the empty desert Loti excels in his descriptions of the world around him the sky the mountains the fertile plains the deserted desert His descriptions of the people he meets their dress and manners are remarkable Loti had come from India and on his way to the Gulf he stopped off at Muscat and his account of this brief visit was published as En passant a Mascate Passing through Muscat This is the first English translation of both texts

Museums and Biographies Kate Hill, 2012 Exploring the relationship between museums and biographies this collection of essays examines examples from the early 19th century to the present day Image into Identity, 2006-01-01 The pervading theme of this book is the construction and allocation of identity especially through images and imagery The essays analyse how the dominant social discourses and imageries construct identity or assign subject positions in relation to the categories of race nation region gender and language The volume is designed to inform the study of those categories in cultural studies sociology anthropology gender studies literary studies philosophy and history Its coverage is geographically global multidisciplinary and theoretically eclectic but also accessible The authors include both established and rising scholars from historical literary media gender and cultural studies This innovative collection will appeal to all those who are interested in the mechanisms of constructing and evolving personal and group identities in past and present
