Bruegel and the Creative Process, 1559-1563 Margaret A. Sullivan, 2017-11-30 The art Bruegel produced between 1559 and 1563 presents a rare opportunity to investigate a concentrated period of productivity by one of the world's greatest artists In this brief period Bruegel produced some of his most original works the first pictorial collection of contemporary customs in Carnival and Lent the first painting with children's activities as its subject in Children's Games the first large scale painting of a proverb collection the unique and enigmatic Dulle Griet Mad Meg and the extraordinary Triumph of Death his disturbing vision of men and women fighting off the onslaught of death In this comprehensive study Margaret A Sullivan accounts for this burst of creativity its intensity innovation and brevity by taking all aspects of the creative process into consideration from the technical demands of picture making to the constraints imposed by the dangerous religious and political situation

Bosch and Bruegel Joseph Leo Koerner, 2023-10-17 A bold new interpretation of two northern Renaissance masters In this visually stunning and much anticipated book acclaimed art historian Joseph Koerner casts the paintings of Hieronymus Bosch and Pieter Bruegel in a completely new light revealing how the painting of everyday life was born from what seems its polar opposite the depiction of an enemy hell bent on destroying us Supreme virtuoso of the bizarre diabolic and outlandish Bosch embodies the phantasmagorical force of painting while Bruegel through his true to life landscapes and frank depictions of peasants is the artistic avatar of the familiar and ordinary But despite their differences the works of these two artists are closely intertwined Bruegel began his career imitating Bosch's fantasies and it was Bosch who launched almost the whole repertoire of later genre painting But Bosch depicts everyday life in order to reveal it as an alluring trap set by a metaphysical enemy at war with God whereas Bruegel shows this enemy to be nothing but a humanly fabricated mask Attending closely to the visual cunning of these two towering masters Koerner uncovers art history's unexplored underside the image itself as an enemy An absorbing study of the dark paradoxes of human creativity Bosch and Bruegel is also a timely account of how hatred can be converted into tolerance through the agency of art It takes readers through all the major paintings drawings and prints of these two unforgettable artists including Bosch's notoriously elusive Garden of Earthly Delights which forms the core of this historical tour de force Elegantly written and abundantly illustrated the book is based on Koerner's A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts a series given annually at the National Gallery of Art Washington Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
